

Sunday, December 25, 2011

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Rejoice your hearts for the rebirth of Christ within each being. Allow, My little ones, the divine flame to transfigure the life and settle in each heart.

Today I am with each one of your hearts, keeping vigil in prayer for the next encounter on this day of Grace. Some hearts have already reconciled themselves with the Lord, but others will have to deepen in the sense of faith and of adoration to Our Sacred Lord of the Heavens. Faith and adoration, by means of the exercise of prayer, permeate each being, uplifting the heart towards the Kingdom of God.

May your hearts, My dear children, live this reconciliation with the Most High on these dates on which I am appearing, with total joy and humility. I wait for you day by day in a state of adoration through prayer so that it may simply collaborate with the reconciliation of many hearts with God.

A celestial key for your lives will be to drink from the True Love that My Son is radiating to you today from His Heart of Shepherd and Master. Thus, with this living and pure Love, you will be able, My little ones, to travel the path that each day you must discover by means of prayer.

This path, which My Immaculate Heart invites you and calls you to live, is the path of consecration of the soul to My Immaculate Heart and to the Sacred Heart of Christ. Through this pathway of love and trust, that your lives must cultivate, your souls will come to witness the gifts and the talents that each one of you will give and offer with humility to the Lord of the Heights. He wants to see you happy, persevering and pure of heart. This will help you to overcome the evil on the path and to find the Divine Light in the face of each test.

Remember, My children: practice faith and adoration through prayer. This will strengthen the spirit and the heart in face of everything that the world will live. I call you to the unification of your lives with Christ.

Who adores you in the silence of the Immaculate Heart,

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity