

Wednesday, October 30, 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

My Eternal Dwelling of the Heart dwells in the great infinite ocean of My Divine Mercy.

Every day, at three in the afternoon, I wait for thirsty souls and the devout souls to address Me, and to travel, by means of the Chaplet, to the center of the home of My Heart. There, I will humbly talk to your heart about the things of God. In this way, I will relieve your inner beings from the constant pressure that this world of today generates, so that you may reach My House of Eternal Dwelling.

Today I ask you to make the decision of ardently living the hour of the Mercy of God. Thus, you will permit, in a simple way, that the most sublime Graces, those that your souls need, may be received in this time of tests and tribulations.

It is so simple to enter into My Mercy that the souls become discouraged when they begin to pray with Me. But the devotion that I need from you must overcome the obstacles of inertia and material density, and this will be possible when your hearts just say to Me: "Jesus, I trust in You".

Through this constant affirmation, you will open the doors of My Spring, this is the key that will liberate you from perdition and from the temptation of the world. For this reason, before each new test, decree and affirm: "Jesus, I trust in You" because this affirmation, which was given to Sister Faustina, has the power of defeating any evil in the natural environment of your lives and of your inner beings.

Remember that I trust in you.

Under the Love of God, be blessed.

Thank you for living in My Heart!

Christ Jesus