DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

May your heart remain silent so that you may hear, now and always, the truth of My Words.

May your peacemaking be more profound than the great oceans so that in the right hour you may be able to perceive the truth and the wisdom about things.

Enter now into the Universe of My Heart so that I, from this day on, may take absolute control of your life. For this you must open space and place for Me so that My Merciful Rays may be able to act and transform.

Walk by My Side without observing what exists around you, concentrate your being in the divine power of My Love and wait for the coming of My Supreme Grace.

Trust what I ask you because it is time to awaken to the Supreme Consciousness.

Under the Love of God, be blessed.

Thank you for remaining in My Heart!

Christ Jesus
