

Saturday, November 30, 2013

MESSAGE FOR THE SPECIAL APPARITION
IN THE CITY OF DE SAO JOSE DO RIO PRETO, SAO PAULO, BRAZIL
TRANSMITTED BY THE BLESSED QUEEN OF PEACE TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA

Blessed are those who gather their strengths to be with Me in these times; those who make an effort to overcome, day by day, the limits that the world and their own body imposes on them.

My children, I am with you to teach you to live the last times, and to overcome this threshold with bravery and peace in the heart.

It is for this that day by day I ask you for more of an effort. And, at the same time that I conduct you through a path of sacrifices, I accompany you step by step, radiating the Peace that is born in My Heart and that is expanded throughout the world.

In this way, a space is opened so that I may be present in your lives, even if you are giving the maximum of yourselves, never will you lack the peace and the strength to offer always more.

Today I say to you that, when I ask you something apparently unreachable, it is to show you that you are able to do much more than that which you are doing today.

On each day that passes I will ask you for a little more, and I will make you donate of yourself that which you did not know you had. And little by little you will perceive that the impossible has become simple, and the unreachable already rises on the horizon.

When the time comes to cross the threshold of a new race, many will see themselves in the plenitude of the human race, as God idealized it in the Universe.

I just want you to be simple and true and adaptable as the water; that you may be true and pure in your actions, in this way the Creator Hands will be able to act in your lives and in your consciousnesses.

Those who have said yes to Me, that they may be renewed each day in this yes, and take care to not have conditions in their surrender. If they are attentive to that which I say to you today, they will see that they still say no to Me many times, believing that they are deepening in this surrender.

Upon awakening and at going to sleep, renew yourselves in the adhesion to the divine Plan, and if today you are tired, prepare yourselves, My dears, because you know nothing of what I have for each one of you. But do not fear, because I prepare you in the measure that I offer you new sacrifices and I will not place stones in your paths which you are not able to step over.

I want to thank you on this day for the Love with which you have received Me in this city, and say to you that I have waited for long to come to this place and to awaken those who have been committed with Me for so long.

Come, dears, come to My encounter, because My arms await you, and the Lord waits for you for the return in Redemption to the Celestial Dwelling.

I love you and I welcome you in My mantle.

I thank you for the answer to My Call.

Mary, your Mother and Queen of Peace