

Thursday, January 23, 2020

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Withdraw into the desert with God, trusting in His silence and in His Presence.

Let all spiritual and human sensations, which were once before confirmations and inner impulses to you, now be substituted by the fortitude of faith that, in a simple and pure way, unites you with God.

Accept the miracle of the desert with love, for God calls to the desert those in whom He hopes to place His trust, His Cross, His Grace and, above all, child, those who have been willing from the beginning to redeem their own lives, surpassing the Love of God.

My voice is an encouragement for the souls that walk into the void, for I simply say: "Go into this void and this desert; walk far and go deep into it, for it is there where you cannot recognize yourself that God will reveal Himself, and will finally show you who you are."

Your Lord used to withdraw into the desert to pray, because it was there where He left behind His human condition and embraced His Divine Condition. And thus, the desert must be a hope for you.

Let the pain of renunciation become freedom from what holds you to the world.

In the desert, you can suffer with heavy footsteps due to the chains of the slavery of the world that are fastened to your feet, or you can bow down before God, place your face on the ground and know that, with your clamor elevated into the void, these currents are broken and you can walk free.

The desert will not cease to be arid and lonely, but your steps will be free and your heart light, so as to reach your own destiny.

You have My blessing for this.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph