PRIVATE APPARITION OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, IN THE CITY OF TUSAYAN, GRAND CANYON OF COLORADO, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Today the voice of your Heavenly Mother emerges from the desert, in a part of the planet distant from you, and from where today God has given you the chance to come to know it, so that this place can be revealed and shown to the world.

This is why I come from this place and from this space, to speak the Word of God, to bring souls an inner revelation that comes from the Universe and from Cosmic Life.

I bring the message from this place for all of you, so that all may feel it, perceive and recognize it, knowing that these are times in which humanity must place itself again in the Plan of the Father, after having distanced itself for a long time, after having distanced itself from the Law and the fulfillment of the Commandments.

This is why I today come from the Grand Canyon of Colorado, where the history of humanity is held in its deepest and innermost silence; where Nature, and mainly the Mineral Kingdom, reveal this message for all, with the potency and the power of its expression, beauty and loveliness.

In this place, many events have taken place. One of the first civilizations emerged here, a civilization that maintained contact with God and knew what was the essence of the Plan of God, and of its fulfillment upon the surface.

In this way, God showed them His Divine Will, so that they could live it and accomplish it according to how He had thought.

It is a civilization unknown to all and not yet revealed to the humankind of the surface, but which did indeed exist since ancient times, in which humanity experienced a fluid process of contact with their inner world and the Universe.

From there the sacred instructions came for that whole civilization, which achieved significant degrees of evolution, and, above all, of wisdom, an experience that led them to not only understand life and existence, but also led them to enter into another school, into another dimension, in another plane of consciousness, where it was no longer necessary to experience that which is lived on the surface of the Earth; where it was no longer necessary to use that which is material and concrete. But rather, within that entry of that whole group consciousness, they began to live from what was spiritual, cosmic and divine.

And from that point on they began to take significant steps, not only in their awakening, but also in their evolution, individual, as well as group steps, because the essence of that whole event was unity; group unity, unity of souls, unity of consciousnesses.

This led this very simple but deeply contacted civilization to live and to know the Laws of the Universe and all the treasures that the Higher Universe holds, which are found within the different galaxies, stars and suns.

This revelation came to them, this revelation was shown to them in a clear and sharp way. The impulse of instruction and knowledge led them to take this great step for all of humanity, even for the present humanity, for the current humanity, even though you may not believe so.

They knew that future generations would come that would experience great tests and challenges, great events and lessons, and even having achieved that very high degree of consciousness and contact, they decided to remain on the planet in order to be able to safeguard and protect the essence of the project of humanity and its evolution.

They thus came to know the Gifts of the Holy Spirit and the science was shown upon the path of this sacred people, this civilization that found a deeper meaning for being present upon the planet, to live the Will of God and higher designs.

But this story did not end here, because, this story, this event and this school, is still being experienced up to now. This sacred people and civilization is to be found there, living this experience of evolution and of awakening the consciousness, and as a group of souls, as a group of consciousnesses, they continue to emit and emanate these principles to all of humanity, the most ignorant and unconscious humanity of these times.

Is this people now a brotherhood? A still unknown and unrevealed brotherhood. It is more than a brotherhood, this people is a universal and inner fraternity, a spiritual fraternity that also lived its experience and took its steps through the giving of self and the surrender of self to the Higher Will.

But the time has come, My children, for the humanity of the surface to contact these realities and be withdrawn from the deep sleep of illusion and ignorance, where all consciousnesses are placed through modernities and indifference.

All the sacred peoples who went through the school of the planet will, in the coming time, show themselves from within the inner planes so that souls that are on the surface of the planet, which also experience the same school of evolution, may be able to avail themselves of the knowledge that they experienced and learned, which continues to be an eternal knowledge that leads you to expand your consciousnesses even more, and leads you to elevate, transcend and ennoble the human genetic code that needs to continue to achieve, in the same way that Christ did, His great expression of Love and the giving of self.

This sacred people of the Grand Canyon of Colorado continues to learn even more things about the Hierarchy itself, and many have now entered into new schools of instruction and knowledge, to expand their cosmic consciousness, and thus they are able to continue to embrace the Plan of God in its different manifestations of the Universes.

Human beings of the surface of this planet and of other times, having gained this degree of awakening, are giving today's precarious humanity the impulse to seek the same level of consciousness and awakening, even though they are silent and in retreat. Because this sacred people experiences its permanent retreat in the Grand Canyon of Colorado, but it also experiences its intelligent activity that the Holy Spirit provides it with, within Its service of love for humanity.

It is thus, My children, that they never lost their roots nor their culture. They carried all this schooling and experience with them to present them and share them with the Higher Consciousnesses of the Universe, with the great regents of the Celestial Brotherhood.

It was all complemented and understood. And this makes it possible for the human project to be understood and known throughout the rest of the Universe as a possible experience of redemption, forgiveness, change, and, above all, of love, of a love that expands, a love that is lived, a love that leads consciousnesses to accept the Plan of God and to fulfill it beyond their possibilities or their understanding.

This sacred people of the Grand Canyon of Colorado mirrors to humanity what humanity needs to spiritually find in these times. And it is their goal, intention and purpose that the majority may reach and contact that which they reached and contacted in their simplicity and surrender.

It is now, while you are aware of all this, and illusion has withdrawn from human sight, that you can find the truth of the existence and the real history of your whole civilization upon the planet, from the beginning times. It is time, My children, that you impel humanity onto the same path, onto the path of achieving that same evolution through group life and a true connection with what is High.

Thus, the Essence of the Will of God will be better known and understood by the men and women of the Earth, and ignorance will no longer embrace them, rather, they will understand the meaning of being here, incarnated in this world and in this time, to continue on with what God needs, within this experience and this human civilization which cannot continue to deteriorate nor self-destruct, but rather should embrace the vision of the Purpose and of the goals that the Eternal Father presents for each group of souls, within His universality and His divine Consciousness.

In this way, you will be part of a great fraternity and you will feel yourselves to be part of a great existence, which has no human condition and is not restricted to inner processes nor mental ones, but rather, through the profound spirituality of life and of science, everything may be understood and evolve.

From the Grand Canyon of Colorado, today your Heavenly Mother announces Herself and presents Herself to the world so that it may know that it is in time to recover its civilization, roots and culture, its evolutionary lessons, and, above all, its contact with the Heights, the contact that nourishes the spirit of each being and which comes through the impulses of the Hierarchy, from a single and absolute contact coming from the Law of the Hierarchy, which all may avail themselves of and learn about so as to be on the correct path, rather than on others, rather than on other paths.

This is the time to become aware of the truth and to know that all My children are called to continue this human civilization which must embrace the Purpose so that it may be expressed and fulfilled in these times, so that the planet may be regenerated, so that humanity may be redeemed and healed of all it has experienced throughout time, for there is still much to do, there is still much to accomplish and carry forward.

But by placing your consciousnesses on this level of evolution and contact, your miseries will dissolve, your problems will end, and you will place your heart at service to the Heights, a heart that will be given the impulse to always find the truth and the meaning of its existence within this Universe and within this planetary school.

And this too is a part of the redeeming Project of My Son, which arrives in the cycle of divine revelations of the Spiritual Hierarchy.

So remember, My children, everything that happened here in the Grand Canyon of Colorado, and which continues to have repercussions throughout time and throughout the generations so that humanity does not lose the meaning of its purpose and of the essence of being here, on this planet.

With this announcement, I take you by the hand and lead you so that you may reach new schools, deeper schools of love and of the giving of self, of surrender and of trust in the absolute guidance of the Eternal Father.

From the Grand Canyon of Colorado, I allow souls to again find the meaning of their origins, of their origins of Earth and of their ancestors, who had the experience of love and brotherhood.

Through this impulse, I bless you so that you may continue upon the same path, and as much as you do not know how to do so, that you allow your inner worlds to be able to guide you to the same level of contact, wisdom and understanding as the sacred people of the Grand Canyon of Colorado once experienced it, and continue to live it, throughout the course of time.

I thank you sincerely for responding to My call.

I bless you in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
