PRIVATE APPARITION OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, IN THE GRAND CANYON OF COLORADO, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, TO BE TRANSMITTED ON FEBRUARY 25, 2020

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

My children, I transmit this message again today from the Grand Canyon of Colorado, but this time from its depths, in which you reached today, not only to meet with Me but also with all of the Brotherhood.

While you went down these sacred mountains, your inner beings and the inner beings of your brothers and sisters gradually entered into the reality and truth of other times. You crossed thresholds, doors and spaces where the history of this humanity is kept, the most evolved, important and outstanding history.

And so, on this day and under the embrace of these sacred mountains, I continue the message that I had pronounced during these recent days so that the consciousness of humanity may not lose the impulse of finding, in this time of chaos, the return to its origin and toward the essence of its purpose within this humanity.

I am with you, here today, but I am also with the whole world, as the Mother of the World, the Mother of the New Humanity, the Mother that holds in Her Heart the knowledge and history of this civilization of the Earth, which went through and had many experiences, lessons and tests.

But what My Heart will reveal to you today is that which was most sacred, what was achieved by the most ancient civilizations of the planet, from Lemuria up to the current time. And all these civilizations, peoples and cultures learned to be in communion with the Universe and to know the Universe through contact. Something that humanity has always sought, has always tried to find the secure doorway to cross that threshold toward truth and cosmic existence.

Today My maternal Heart opens that door, lights up the sacred spaces of the Grand Canyon of Colorado, so that the information of the most ancient civilizations of humanity may come into light, awaken your consciousnesses and you may thus experience the commitment of bringing continuity to this sacred genetic project that has still not been finished, and which is at its culminating and most important moment of being able to evolve and represent, within all this Universe and macrocosm, a victory, the same victory that My Son, the Christ, achieved, which He continues to achieve and continues to live for you, for all your brothers and sisters, for this small but most beautiful planet that the Father gave to you in trust, so that you and your brothers and sisters could represent Him not only in evolutionary material life, but also in spirituality, in the essence of contact.

So, while I speak to you, the doors of the inner worlds of the Grand Canyon open so that your hearts, and, above all, your souls may be filled by these principles and attributes that the most ancient civilizations of the planet achieved, and in which each one of them stood out for something very important. And this, which has been something so important until today, spiritually helps all of humanity, especially My most lost children, most ignorant, most distracted from reality and from superior truth, which are latent in the Universe and are a part of the reality of the Plan of God.

Through this message, I want your consciousnesses to resume the commitment to carry out this genetic project, which goes beyond something spiritual, religious or inner. Which reaches the depths of your essences and consciousnesses, where the story is also held of your origins, your experiences, your lessons and life situations in this sacred Universe that surrounds you and waits for you.

Make vows, My children, of being able to carry out this project that will be finalized by the Presence of My Son, the Christ, when, in the most culminating moment of this humanity, which is close, He will arrive, to gather all the treasures, merits, lessons and experiences that you have been able to live in this incarnation and in this present time.

Even though the planet and its humanity may be convulsing, though the nations may be in great upset and conflict, in spite of any situation that may be present upon the surface of the Earth, nothing will prevent you from being able to experience and live what God so desires and expects.

For this reason, I am here, and I am sent to this planet as the Mother of the World so that you may also be conscious of the new task of your Divine and Spiritual Mother, which today is a vaster and deeper task that not only encompasses this local Universe but also other galaxies, worlds, stars and suns, which also constitute the existence and the experience of the Plan of God. And, with it, all of its Hierarchies, Consciousnesses that have worked in this human project and in others throughout the course of millions of years. Humanity today, since after 1988, has the opportunity and consciousness to know all these things that concern what My voice speaks of today, which is the Voice of the Father resounding in this valley and especially in the inner worlds that must achieve the truth and awareness of this definitive time.

From within these mountains, in the Grand Canyon of Colorado, your Heavenly Mother announces Herself in advance and proclaims this information for all the beings of the Earth, regardless of their beliefs, their religion or their inner situation, because, in essence, all are children of God and all come from the same Source, the same impulse, the same Origin that created you, and as from that point on, your consciousnesses, like the sacred consciousnesses of the previous civilizations of the Earth, come from different places of the Universe to continue learning to truly love and to be redeemed from the heart, without fear nor traumas.

So, it is through this sacred information that emerges from the Grand Canyon of Colorado that humanity has the spiritual opportunity of again healing, reconciling and redeeming itself, so that all the fallen stars that live today upon the surface of the Earth may again ignite, again find the path, again find their existence and origins. Thus, all these stars will be able to again shine in this cosmic firmament and, in this way, they will be within the history that continues to be written by the Hand of the Eternal Father Himself.

If this happens here today, in this inner and spiritual condition and situation, it is because there is a greater reason and purpose, which are unknown to you today, but I know that you can feel and understand what this means, beyond the forms and the moment.

Today My Heart opens the spaces of the Universe, fuses and unites the realities that are found within this sacred Canyon of Colorado, where humanity will be able to have the reference and the place to find, in the greatest silence and the innermost attunement, all that it needs for this cycle of transition and to overcome these difficult times in which illusion embraces the human consciousness more and more, and causes it to lose the path of the Purpose.

By means of these words, I bring you the Grace of again finding the meaning and reason for being on this planet and in this humanity, knowing that there must be a fulfillment of what the Father has determined and written, from the most ancient times of the Universe, since before the existence of the different Universes and civilizations, and of all that was created.

This is why it is time to thank, to thank from the heart for this impulse that the Father has decided to send you through the Mother of the World.

And so, My children, the veils of your consciousness will continue to fall so that you may have knowledge of the reality within you, which is also written in the Universe, a reality that must experience a synthesis and an end so that everything may begin again.

While I speak to you, through My words and My presence, I send the entire world the most sacred attributes and principles that the most ancient civilizations of the Earth achieved, a history that will never be lost, a history that will be able to continue being written by each one of you, so that the triumph of love and truth may be accomplished in this time, and that My most lost children, most deceived and placed in darkness by My enemy, may have the same Grace that you receive today.

In this way, the planet and its spiritual consciousness will be able to be regenerated. The soul of this planet will be able to breathe again and be what it came to be in this time, from the beginning when it was decided that this sacred planet should exist.

Embrace this call, accept this invitation, and bring continuity and a response to what I ask of you, because you will not be complying with Me, but with the Eternal Father, who is the one who sends Me so that all the beings of the Earth may finally see the truth written in the Universe and also held in the most beautiful places of this planet.

To all I send My message of peace and awareness. May the Light of the Grand Canyon of Colorado shine in the heart of all self-summoned beings and servers so that the Plan may continue to be accomplished.

I bless you and I thank you, permeating you with the Light of My Spirit and of My Heart, because I am your Mother, the Mother of the World.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús:

Brothers and sisters, at the request of the Divine Mother, from here, from the heart of the Grand Canyon of Colorado, we are going to say the prayer of the Advent of the New Race three times, so that we may decree and affirm this inner commitment with the Divinity.

Prayer for the Advent of the New Race

Lord,
let the advent of the New Race be fulfilled.
May humanity express its archetype.
May the word be alive and build Your Temple.
In us may Your mystery expand and may true existence be revealed to the world
so that we may gather in Your Name and glorify perfect unity.
Amen.
