

Tuesday, December 10, 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

Why do you fear, My soul, to surrender yourself to the ocean of My Sacrifice?

In the Greater Kingdom there is Eternity, the sublime place that you will be able to find after the long journey through the fires of the Earth. Encourage yourself to suffer for others. My pulsating and luminous Heart will never abandon you.

For this, My dear soul, I let you know a little more of that which I suffered so long ago for you and for the world. But many souls do not want to drink of this sacrifice that I have proposed for you from the beginning of the redeeming walk towards My Heart. I will not give you pains greater than those I suffered, but in holy suffering lies the key that will open the doors for those who have fallen from the arms of God.

O, imperishable soul! Do not be afraid to find what I propose to you for your conversion difficult. I rejoice that on your path you find difficulties because the path of holiness consists of the renunciation of self to all.

My soul, stay very close to Me and allow Me to embrace you so that in the hardest moments you may feel that the Love of My Heart will encourage you to go on. Dear soul, you must know from the beginning that whoever offers themselves to the Great Shepherd will be the sheep who will transform themselves the most and will graze through bitter meadows.

The Lord wishes to make you an empty instrument so that, upon you, dear soul, the Grace of My Inner Presence may be poured.

Do not lose sight, My soul, that I Am always by your side, showing you the direct path to My Heart.

Under the Love of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you, My soul, for donating yourself to My Heart!

Christ Jesus