

Friday, December 13, 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

Do not fear, soul of Mine, to be polished as strongly as an old piece of wood in the hands of the Carpenter. The greater the polishing, the greater the liberation, and consequently, dear soul, you will be liberated from the game of arrogance and vanity. A good, well-treated piece of wood will last throughout the times.

Allow Me to mold you according to the perfect designs of My Plans. Do not fear, dear soul, to be polished so deeply that the impurities of the unconsciousness may be released from you. Surrender yourself entirely in My working Hands and you will soon see, soul of Mine, how it was necessary for you to detach from yourself for so long.

In new works, God pours His Spirit. In purified hearts, God pours His Infinite Grace. Dear soul, drink of the Water that I offer you from My Side so that, living in sacrifice, you may find the way of holiness and goodness.

Allow Me to show you the Will of My Father, soul of Mine. Abandon yourself in My Heart.

Under the Light of God, be blessed.

Thank you for humbling yourself before My Heart!

Christ Jesus