DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

While My Blessed Heart opens the doors of Heaven on the Earth, the dark hells are opened in order to save those who have eternally condemned themselves to live this spiritual condition.

When in truth your lips proclaim My Divine Mercy, My Compassion does not have limits nor spaces. It saves, redeems, heals and liberates the most inveterate souls in original sin.

My perpetual and invincible Light pours its redeeming powers upon those who would not deserve the Grace of My kind gaze, and this is possible when a person who prays remembers that prayer is essential for the other, it is as needed as it is for oneself.

May at this hour of Mercy your feet walk steadfastly towards My Kingdom so that soon I may be able to recognize that My Heart makes use of apostles in service and in abnegation.

At this hour of wonders, may your souls elevate themselves to the universe to confirm in this time the perfect union with My Project of Salvation. Open your arms and receive in your beings the balm of My Unconditional Love. A love that will always nourish your little essences.

Under the Infinite Glory of God, be blessed.

Thank you for living in My Heart!

Christ Jesus
