

Tuesday, April 28, 2020

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

To overcome mistakes and to persist, children, is a way to grow humanly and spiritually.

Many times your personalities and even the resistances of your soul lead you to fall into deep dark abysses, from where you can only come out through humility, obedience and when you embrace and welcome the desert.

When a consciousness makes a big mistake along the spiritual path it tends to want to give up everything, because it is easier to succumb, once and for all, into the abyss rather than to rise up with effort and courage, with humiliations and obedience, going against everything that once magnified it.

But when this consciousness repents and embraces the path of return to the Heart of God, however painful it may seem to be, and when it places its feet upon the footsteps of humility, surrender and obedience, it is then, children, that this consciousness will truly know the Love, the Forgiveness and the Mercy of God.

It is then that you will grow as a spiritual person and forge within yourselves a fortress that is not human but divine.

It is then that you will learn that it is better to fall and rise a thousand times than to succumb to the abysses of the world, because these abysses only bring suffering and sorrow, anguish and pain, whereas rising from them brings a growth forged by fire, which imprints upon the soul the unity with God. And though beings are always tested along their paths, this soul will already know what to do when it falls and, at every fall, it will grow more, humanly and spiritually.

Learn from your mistakes. Do not yield before human weaknesses but affirm yourselves in humility and obedience and thus, you will continue in ascension to the Heart of God.

You have My blessing for this.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph