

Friday, December 13, 2013

MESSAGE FOR THE APPARITION IN THE CITY OF CURITIBA, PARANÁ, BRAZIL, TRANSMITTED BY THE MOST HOLY VIRGIN MARY TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA

Enter directly into My Ocean of Peace and by means of prayer, find the breath and the refuge of your souls, mind and body. Exercise to be in My Heart all the times that it is possible for you and aspire, each time more, to live this encounter with Me; each day that you come in touch with the Peace that I bring from the Heavens you strengthen and mature the inner dwelling place, the place of eternal peace that I construct in your hearts.

I want that My children learn from constancy and from perseverance because without these two attributes, the inner steps of your beings will not be able to be consolidated.

Today it is necessary that you may attain more than an inner experience with Me, more than a moment of encounter with My Heart; it is necessary that you may attain the experience of that which I bring to you, the imitation of My Consciousness which, as well as those of Jesus and Joseph, express the perfect model of life on Earth.

Learn from serenity and from Peace and try, at some times, to leave from the common living of the human consciousness, because today I bring you this possibility as I have brought it over the centuries.

My children, those who know how to see and receive the Graces of God will perceive in the heart that there has not been in the world a more precious moment than this which you live today.

The Divine Messengers arrive to several parts of the world, among the different consciousnesses that are expressed on Earth; they arrive to different nations, different cultures, but bringing one same Message.

I am not here to create a new religion, but yes to unite, in the Heart of God, all the religions that already exist.

I do not ask you to follow some belief, sect or doctrine. My teaching comes from the Heart of God and to Him it should be turned.

I do not bring you, in this moment, an archetype of religion, but yes, a permanent archetype of life. These are not words that have been meditated on in the interior of a temple or church, they are divine impulses to be lived, applied in the consciousness, transforming all the matter corrupted over the centuries.

My beloveds, I ask you today to take a great leap in consciousness, and those who are encouraged and are impelled to take this leap, My arms will support and lift them until the step to be reached.

However it is necessary that each one has the firm decision of being launched in this transformation of life and, with bravery, to be directed to a new world, which you will not find outside; you will not see it in the material life, unless you construct it in your own interior.

The Divine Life already exists in each being; God Is in His creatures, but these must know how to find Him, hidden and silent, in their own heart.

Seek with patience this hidden God and do not fear to make a mistake in this search, because falling is part of spiritual walking. Each time that you are faced with a mistake, patiently hold out your hand to Me, and I will place you standing up again.

Follow in this way, among little and great falls; in this way the path will be made shorter, and closer will be the Kingdom of God.

Those who venture to transcend the barriers of their own existence, and to overcome the limits imposed by their own mind, will find a surprise in their lives and in their essences, and all that seems to them so mysterious and distant will become little and close to their lives.

It is then that other mysteries will rise up and greater unknown abysses will become visible to them and, in the vastness of this Universe, they will continue on this journey proposed by God to His creatures.

When walking permanently is your only goal, you will see before the eyes of the spirit the Divine Consciousness that embraces you.

I thank you for being today with Me, unveiling the words of My Heart.

Mary, Mother and Queen of Peace