DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

XI - A Higher Purpose

A soul that claimed not to believe in God nor in a spiritual life, was in a state of great inner emptiness and, before their deepest anguish, the soul looked up and said: "What is there after death? A new life? From where and why did life emerge? You, Who people call God, do You really exist? Where are You? Why do You not make Yourself visible to those who call themselves Your children?"

And contemplating this soul with great compassion, the Lord responded: "From Me emerged life, a broad, deep, complex and very ancient life, previous to the existence of this world, previous to the existence of the human mind and the time of humankind, in a space where science does not reach, the mind cannot explain and even the patriarchs and prophets could not understand, for a reason that is kept within My Heart yet not understood, but only loved and experienced.

I did not create life for any reason, but out of Love. Therefore, I am not reached through an answer, but rather through a profound living of the same principle and gift that allowed Me to manifest all things. This mystery is to be found within your little heart.

Beloved soul, when with humility you embrace the healing of your deepest wounds, you will know that I Am God.

When you allow yourself to be loved by a Love that is not of this world, but that comes from the Infinite, you will know that I Am God.

When the knowledge of your smallness and fragility is greater than the illusion of your pride, maturity and vanity, you will know that I Am God.

When you place your forehead upon the ground and surrender your mortal mind for an eternal Love, you will know that I Am God.

When, in the emptiness of your consciousness and the solitude of your heart, you take the risk to look inward and discover that I am within you, you will know that I Am God and I am in everything.

Within you, I wait in silence, and within your silence, I will be able to speak to your heart. You will come to know My infinite Love and, through it you will come to know that which you call the reasons for which everything was created. What for you is a reason, for Me is a Purpose. There is no reason for life but there is a Higher Purpose: that of renewing My Love and returning to Me."

May this dialogue with God inspire you, children, to turn inward and experience Divine Presence.

You have My blessing for this.
