

Friday, May 22, 2020

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

XIII - Seek God, Come to Know His Mysteries and Experience Them

A soul that aspired to know eternity and Paradise, and each day sought merits so as to come to deserve a place in Heaven, questioned the Lord about which path is deserving to be by His side, saying: "Lord, life on Earth, in spite of being sacred, is too little for me. My soul ardently aspires to be with You in the Paradise of Your eternity. Tell me, then, beloved God, what do I do to remain by Your side in the Infinite?"

And with profound love and wisdom, the Lord responded: "Little soul, what is Paradise to you? In your heart, how do you think that life is in My Kingdom? I created you so as to dwell within you; thus, I want to make you understand that you do not have to desire to be in Heaven to be by My side, but rather discover Me within you. Happy and blessed is the soul that knows how to find unity with Me within their own essence, the one that does not seek outside of themselves, but rather within, in the depths of their own inner world.

Many are the souls that say they want to be with Me but how many souls silently stop to seek Me within their own essence?

Many are the souls that say they prefer My Kingdom to the world; but how many set aside, even if for an instant, the things of the world to seek My Kingdom within their own hearts and know themselves to be the Kingdom?

Many are the souls instructed in My Knowledge, those that know of My Words and say they love them; but how many souls are there that, after having been instructed about something, do not stop in the knowledge but rather seek an experience about what they have learned?

Little soul, My Kingdom is within you, just as I Am also within you, and the path to find Me is simply to truly seek Me, with sincerity and love. When you simply stop in order to find Me within you, you will see that My mysteries were not hidden in the stars. My Paradise is not only in Heaven; it lies within you."

May this dialogue, children, inspire you to seek God within yourselves, and not only come to know His mysteries, but also experience them, each day.

You have My blessing for this.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph