

Saturday, June 6, 2020

Apparition of the Glorified Christ Jesus, in the Marian Center of Figueira, Minas Gerais, Brazil, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, for the 82nd Marathon of the Divine Mercy

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Today I need you to take into consideration all that I have done in this place and in other places of the world, because all that happened had a larger and unknown purpose for a great part of the world.

Placing your consciousness in the sense of what I have wanted to do, your understandings, your knowledge, and even your wisdom will not be limited to the mind, but to the soul, as that is what receives the impulse of My Merciful Heart.

There would be no other form for Me to come to the world, in this cycle, to announce My Return to humanity. But nobody knows yet how this will take place and what will happen at the time when I do return.

Through the years I have given you some examples, but it depends on each one of you to go deeper into the spiritual sense of this event.

Would My Return not be a part of this current event? Who could censure it? Why would this be done? Who has the authority, the Father of Humankind?

As I speak to you, at this moment, it is as I have spoken to you in the temple and in many places of the Holy Land, for the souls to correctly learn what was happening with the Presence of your Master and Lord in those times.

But this time it is different. Humanity is very influenced, the message is modified, seized and interfered with, and the souls fall in these great holes of unconsciousness and ignorance; but the Word of God is undeniable, especially when it descends with power and authority.

I come here to announce to you the Word of God and nothing else.

I am not the Christ of the new era, I am the Christ of yesterday and of today, the Lord of the eternal present. I have given testimony of My Presence throughout time, not only within My Church, but also outside of My Church.

By chance, isn't the House of My Father for everyone? Who would have the authority to say the opposite?

The Power is in God, in the Son and in Holy Spirit, and in this, I invite you to believe it and to live it so that everyone will be baptized by My Spirit because when I physically come back to the world, I will come for all.

What sense would it make to come only for the Christians?

The universe will move itself; the elements will be shaken and the planet will feel when the Son of Man returns to the world.

I came and I come for humanity, because I teach you to reconnect with God, to follow the teachings of the Gospel, to be a part of the experience of the Sacraments and to deepen yourselves, day by day, into the meaning of prayer.

Is this only for those who know Me? What would be the reason for having died for you?

My sacrifice was for the whole of humanity and for all generations that have passed through Earth till now. And this sacrifice will continue having value, power and authority, because it is the Father that is in Heaven who has the authority and power. I am part of the Father and the Father is part of Me, and all His creatures can be part of My merciful Heart.

My message is for those who are awake and for those who are not awake, because My Purpose is not for the knowledgeable nor for the learned, it is for the souls that are the those who should continue living in eternity, at My side, always.

But if I do not speak like this to the world, humanity continues submerging into ignorance and under the influence of other human beings.

It is time that you understand this great event that you are experiencing in this place and at a worldwide level.

Many souls are being called to renew their faith, their commitment with My Heavenly Church and the value of the Sacraments that I taught you, a long time ago, so that you can always be at My side and nobody and nothing will confuse you, because you will be in Christ and you will live for Christ, being guardians of the Teachings that I left for you, not only in the Gospel, but through this call that I have repeated in these last seven years.

This value of the legacy that I have delivered to you recently, which is a part of the Word of God for the open hearts, cannot be depreciated, neglected nor censored, because in reality, companions, nobody knows the essence of the Word of God and the transforming power that it has when it reaches the hearts and the lives of people.

Heaven comes for the self-summoned, not to those who resist nor to those who deny what happens here. Each one will experience what one needs. Remember that your choice is what will save or condemn you, and this does not depend on any religion nor on any spiritual movement.

But I am here to show you the Truth. I told you that I am the Truth, the Way and the Life, and you must recognize it in your heart and in your union with Me through the redemptive Plan of My Father.

There is a path that humanity has not recovered yet, which is the path of redemption. Therefore, I suffered for you, not only in the Passion and on the Cross, but at each moment that I was here with you, announcing My Good News.

However, I will continue coming to the world while it be necessary, and while My Heavenly Father needs it. And this will not be hindered, obstructed nor interfered with, because nobody knows, in any part of the planet, what the Power and the Will of God means.

I invite you humbly and in reverence, and in profound gratitude, to unite yourselves to the Will of My Father, because I am part of His Will. If it were not like this there would be no reason nor motive to be here speaking to the world, taking My Word to the hearts.

Awaken and do not let yourselves be mistaken. Many wolves surround My Churches, and this you already know. The Church has to correct itself a lot by its deeds and actions throughout the centuries.

Who will correct it?

For now, only one man, he who has given his life for Me, not for his words, but for his actions, the holy Father Francis. I placed him there for him to help Me in the most difficult moment of humanity and he knows, in his heart, that what I am doing here is correct, because it gives the truth of transformation and of redemption to the souls, of renewal of faith and of a union more and more profound with the Sacraments.

Is this out of the Law?

May your hearts not be filled with bad words, but may your lips be filled with prayers, because what has happened here throughout the years is just in the Eyes of God. Nobody has the authority to make accusations nor to judge you because I am the Christ, the One Who has requested and established it.

If you want to know the truth, come to see it with your own eyes and feel it with your own hearts. The souls that are here have given their lives for Me and this cannot be insulted because it will be out of the Law, and the Law will act according to your actions.

I have asked you to love one another, but you still love your own wills, therefore the world suffers. And to love one another if not to love one's own beliefs or religion, it is to love humanity, the Kingdoms for Nature, the Creation. Do not be unjust because then I will not be able to intercede anymore for you.

You know who I am speaking to.

I cannot let you deceive yourselves. My Presence and My Word are for the whole world, because when the most difficult moment arrives, which is approaching, day by day, at this time men and women from Earth, beyond their religions and actions, will receive a very potent blow to the consciousness, and each one will see before themselves what they have done with this life. At this time, you will have the last Grace of repenting or of condemning yourselves.

I would like to use My Word for what is really happening to the world, how many souls in the world are sincere and truthful, how many hearts feel without understanding and without seeing, waiting for this moment, each new month, in order to listen to their Lord and gain strength, bravery and hope among so much evil and suffering.

I invite you to keep the Commandments, to experience them and to fulfill them, but it is time that you feel and understand all that I am doing, because it is for a greater good, for the good of the whole world, for those who need it most, for those who supplicate, for those who become lost.

I invite you to collaborate with the Work of your Master and Lord, and not to censor it. I do not want to see new pharisees, because I have already had them before My Eyes.

By chance, will you condemn what I am saying now?

I suffered for you, I was heavily hit, whipped and badly hurt. My Body and My Blood was shed at each step of the Calvary. And although many times I felt that I would not make it to the end, or that I would die on the way, the loyalty, obedience and transparency of the holy women and of many of My followers gave me strength to continue, under the maternal embrace of My Mother.

I need this attitude and no other from you, because you will never understand the things from Heaven if you do not love them profoundly in advance.

Love what is out of your reach and control, love the Work of the Mercy of your Redeemer at this time.

I come to make in the nations apostles and missionaries of Mine, in love, service and prayer.

I told you all that which I expected because you allowed Me to do so.

Now I invite you, before the Sacrament of the Altar, to renew your offer to My Heart, so that the Holy Spirit may grant you the Grace of understanding and the science for the discernment and wisdom to awaken in you, and may your hearts feel the peace of what you hear and of what you experience through My Presence as the Sacred and Glorified Heart of Jesus.

Bring Me the incense to elevate this moment and the offer of this altar at the Feet of Our Creator. I hope you will do so, at this moment, beside Me.

You can bring the altar.

We invite those who can to kneel for this consecration.

Know that what I had said, more than a thousand years ago, and that I do at this time, is only for only reason: Love.

"Father, accept once more the offer of Your Son, for this bread to become the Body of Christ. I raise it in Your Presence for you to bless it and, through It, to bless Your children, so that they may be ready to receive me on the expected Return.

Therefore, I offer it to You and I offer it to all, for you to eat it, because this is My Body, that will be given to humankind for the remission of sins."

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

Amen.

Thus, Eternal Father, I offer you once more the Chalice, fruit of the redemption of the hearts, for it to be accepted by You and by all humankind, as a form of conversion and redemption of the hearts."

And I say once again: "Take and drink it, because this is the Chalice of My Blood, Blood of the New Covenant, that is shed by your Lord for the forgiveness of the mistakes. Do it in remembrance of Me."

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

Amen.

Body and Blood of Christ.

Let us pray the prayer that the Lord taught us.

Our Father (in Portuguese).

Our Father (in English).

We announce the Peace and Mercy of Christ on Earth.

"Lord, I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof, but only say a word, and I shall be healed. Amen."

Brother Moses and brother Camilo come here, to serve this Sacrament.

Let us pray together, with brother Camilo and brother Moses, before Our Lord Jesus Christ, the prayer of the Angel of Portugal, for Christ to carry this prayer in His Heart and to give it to the Father as an offering of the souls that have converted themselves to Christ, in the Love of the Heart of the Redeemer.

*O My God, I believe, I adore You,
I wait for and I love Thee.
I ask pardon for those who do not believe,
do not adore, do not wait for and do not love Thee.
Amen.*

(repeat three times in Spanish and once in English)

I say farewell to this place, after this meeting of prayer experienced with the effort and dedication of the brave hearts, carrying in My Spirit all the pleas, intentions and prayers of those who invoked the power of My Divine Mercy. All these efforts, that many cannot see and that are silent but true for your Lord, on this day are converted into Graces and atonement for the whole world. Amen.

I will rise to Heaven and return to the House of the Father, listening to the last song that will close and end this moment of instruction and knowledge for souls. The song is called "I will rest."

I thank and bless you in spiritual and inner Communion with the sacrament of the Altar. In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.