

Friday, June 23 of 2017

WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF SAN ESTEVE, MONTSERRAT, BARCELONA, SPAIN, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Behold what emerges in the world and in the hearts of humankind, that which came to be healed and redeemed since the beginning.

The "end" is only the concretization of the beginning, of the true reason why your spirits came to the planet. But souls became distracted, became attached to illusion and took it to themselves as the only great and real truth, and now, you fear what is true and invent as many fears as illusions in order not to not accept what is there before your eyes and what no longer hides from your hearts.

Behold, what was created by humankind will also fade away with it. The boundaries within and outside of hearts-among races, religions, cultures and thoughts-will fade away before the unity whose existence the Universe will demonstrate to you.

The Heart of God will be mirrored in the hearts of the pure and of those who, in spite of their impurities, aspire to live the good. All will feel the imperative need to discover and live Love. The borders will be knocked down by humankind itself, by those who will receive into themselves the grace of the Heart of God and who will be given the impulse to build the new world.

There will be pioneers, who will activate and inspire others. They will first lose their fear, for they will be protected by the grace of Truth.

The youngest will conduct the new ship, because their hearts will open more easily to find the Universe. They will not see, upon the futile Earth, the meaning for their existence and while thirsting they will seek a Truth that will calm their anxiety to find something unknown to them, but that they know exists.

The chaos of the world will inspire many to sainthood, because the Law states that opposites balance each other. The love for God will be awakened as in the past, and, with madness and truth, they will proclaim His Name. Although it will seem they are heard by very few, their cry will resound beyond the Earth, and the Cosmos will hear their call, which will be enough for a higher help to come to Earth.

To the pure, I say: never give up. Your word must go beyond the stars, like a key that is born of the essence and of the heart to open the doors of this world toward inner truth.

The skies and the earth will shake, beasts will roar, which have their false power built on appearances, but none of that must make the faith of those who have found God and His Messengers fail.

So build today the fortitude that will sustain you tomorrow and that will be like a lighthouse in the dark night of the world, inspiring others to say "yes."

Simply pray and do so from your heart.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph