

Friday, April 19, 2019

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

May every day be for you the day to remember the Passion of Your Lord; a day to retreat into His Arms and His Heart; a day to be in the presence of His blood and His eternal surrender; a day to learn how to love as He has loved, and loves forever.

May every day be for you the ascent to Calvary, where you should look at the obstacles as opportunities to love, the falls as opportunities to renew yourself, the humiliations as opportunities to be in emptiness, and to there be fulfilled by God.

May every day be for you the day to overcome yourself in order for your consciousness to approach the Love of Christ, more and more.

May every day be for you the day of your surrender, your yielding, your offering, because eternity will come soon if you follow in the footsteps of Christ, and your steps must never stop.

Therefore, child, remember today, and relive the Passion of your Lord, so that your consciousness understands that every day is a day to follow in the footsteps of Christ. Every day is a day to see a new Christ be born.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph