

Friday, May 18, 2018

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF SAO PAULO, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

My Son does not expect the perfection of His servers, but rather the constant giving of self so that His Work may be accomplished.

My Son does not expect the complete transcendence of being, but rather a true love that may emerge as a spring from the heart.

This world is a school of challenges and tests. Each soul receives the learning experiences it needs for awakening more each day to the truth, and to absolute surrender to God.

My Son does not expect realized souls, but rather hearts offering love and sacrifice so that, in this way, the Designs of God in humanity may be accomplished.

My Son does not expect saints of the new millennium, but rather ardent hearts that live Christic love, in spite of their falls or tests.

My Son does indeed expect souls in full devotion, that love and revere everything they experience, that are aware of their mission on this planet and that, above any circumstance, can represent Him so that, when He returns, humanity and the planet may be freed from the current captivity and from all prisons and, thus, the Kingdom of His Sacred Heart may again triumph.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who blesses you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace