DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

I pray so that souls may attain peace.

I pray so that the consciousnesses may awaken to the planetary reality, to the universal truth, and thus, they may transform their lives according to the Divine Purpose.

I pray so that hearts may aspire toward unity with their neighbor, with the Kingdoms of Nature, with life, with God.

I pray so that seekers may recognize the truth in all the teachings transmitted by God through His Messengers, so that those who seek may know how to see beyond words and find between the lines the divine science of Creation.

I pray so that sacred life may no longer be hidden by human superficialities and, in the same way, I pray so that the essence of beings not be hidden by the illusory beliefs they have about themselves.

I pray for a new life and a new race so that after human learning is consolidated, beings may have the courage and hope to make the new life emerge and allow the new being to blossom within themselves which, before Christ, will begin to appear.

I pray so that humanity may not lose the meaning of its existence and so that spiritual life may cease to be a habit and a practice in order to become a reality and an experience of life.

I pray, finally, so that the Graces of God may not remain in Heaven, but that they may be poured out upon the Earth.

Today I call you to pray with Me, and thus you intercede for this world while there is still time. Pray with Me for Peace.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
