DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED ON THE EAGLE OF LIGHT BUS, DURING THE JOURNEY between the cities of São Paulo and Florianópolis, Santa Catarina, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

It is time to live the Love of God in your hearts, or at least, to seek it. The search for that love will dissolve from your consciousnesses all the interferences of the mind, the doubts and the distrust that constantly impede you from stepping out of three-dimensional human thought.

Only those who experience the Love of God, even if a little, can perceive that the limits for surrender are imposed by each person; in the same way, the Gifts of God in the life of each being are manifested to a greater or a lesser degree, depending on the openness of the being itself.

I tell you these things because time continues to go by, and even though your hearts may be opening to the life of the spirit, that openness is very partial, and your consciousnesses have not completely surrendered to the celestial mysteries.

When surrender begins to become unknown, the soul loses control of its own life, and there, the consciousness stops.

Even though on various levels you may be consecrated to God, I am speaking about a much deeper surrender. I am speaking about aspects that you believe nobody sees, aspects that continue to cling you to doubts, to fears, to your own ideas and ways of thinking. Aspects that even control where the soul launches into the abyss of God and the point where it begins to impede your steps. Children, I speak of the invisible life of each one, a life that, in reality, you think is invisible but it is noticeable that this is stopping you from really taking steps towards the New Humanity.

Small transformations are occurring in many people, and you can already consider yourselves to be good people, but what is needed in these times is true soldiers. A soldier knows to follow the strategies, knows to fulfill the plans and lives for them. A soldier of these times must be aware of the truth, aware of their mission, and that which they must do in order to accomplish it.

You may ask yourselves: how can I be aware of all these things? I will respond to you: growing in spirit, adhering your own being more and more to this purpose that the Creator placed in your lives, defeating the resistance to transformation, entering in prayer within the Heart of God.

Do not be satisfied with what you have achieved, because this will make you go backwards. The path of prayer is permanent transformation, and it has only one destination: union with the Consciousness of God. Until reaching that divine union, you must continue walking.

Blessed are those who listen attentively to My Words and make them their handbook for their own lives. Those will understand the reason for My remaining in this world.

I love you and bless you.

Your father and friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
