

Tuesday, October 16, 2018

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE SACRED HOUSE OF MARY, MÃE PAULISTA, SÃO PAULO, BRAZIL, TO SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

To My little and adult children of Africa

Calm your little hearts in My paternal and meek Heart so that I may give back to you peace and hope, and in this way, you do not become discouraged by the challenges of these times.

The paths of God are unknown and the ways He conducts this, which is His Plan, have always been incomprehensible to humanity.

The Creator Father honors and loves the peaceful hearts that do not fear to surrender their own lives in order to establish peace, that do not fear to encounter chaos in order to manifest the truth that dwells within them.

Each soul on this Earth has a unique learning experience to live, and there is a time and a place for it to be fulfilled. On this day a child of God fulfilled his cycle and entered other schools, where he will continue learning about love and peace.

Place your hearts only upon the Love with which God welcomes His children, and have the certainty that a time of greater peace will come for those who in life aspired to fulfill the Will of God beyond their difficulties, beyond their suffering and the weight they carried in their hearts because of a thousand-year history of anguish and pain.

Today My heart expresses itself because every day I see the effort of My little children of Africa who, in spite of everything, love and serve God. The merits of this service touch the Heavens and open the doors so that a child of God may reach the Father.

Do not be sad, nor fearful.

This is a time of purification of the Earth as well as of the human heart, and many tests are about to come, but if you are strengthened in love and permeated by the aspiration for peace, you will always have, as today, the doors open to Heaven.

I dedicate this message to the souls who make an effort to transcend the human condition and transform the history of this world with their persistence, and although I know that many will not understand Me, I speak for a Divine Will, because the Lord wished you to know of His Love for the children and young people of Africa, for the servers and adults who seek Him. The Lord wished to express Himself in the voice of His Humble Servant because as Father of service and charity, I come to protect those who serve this world, although they do not know it.

You, My little children, serve the world in prayer; you serve the world by establishing peace; you serve the world by being firm in your purpose of healing the human heart, through your own heart; you serve the world with the joy that is still born of your spirits in spite of so much pain that you have already experienced; you serve the world because daily your love and hope touch the Heart of God.

Your prayers are heard, and today not only one but many souls arrived in Heaven through the merits of those who departed trying to establish peace.

Calm your hearts in the Peace of the Creator and do not give up serving; do not give up smiling and praying; do not give up forgiving and healing your hearts, because the Heavens open with your effort and the blessings of the Father descend upon Africa and upon the whole world.

Just as God does, I love you and bless you so that you may find peace and hope.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph