DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS????

Child,

To overcome the indifference of the human heart, start with yourself. Observe every time your heart closes to planetary reality or when you think you care about the world, but your actions show the degree of importance you give to yourself.

Indifference numbs the consciousness and does not allow it to evolve. It is not necessary that you get emotionally involved with what happens in the world, but rather let such events lead you to transformation and impel you to never stop your steps.

Indifference is one of the great evils of humanity, even worse than ignorance, because the one who is indifferent already has a certain degree of education, and yet keeps thinking more about themselves and their own needs.

Child, indifference will lead many beings who believe themselves to be spiritual to the abyss of planetary consciousness. Be careful so that you are not taken and carried away by human indifference. Try to follow your consciousness and heart, and when you know that you must do something, do it promptly; do not ignore the needs. When you perceive that someone needs you, go in assistance, without fear. If you know what is happening in the world and that while at this very moment you are before the words of God, others are being tested in their faith, and on their knees, they choose to die with Christ rather than living without him, then pray truly, without ceasing.

If you already know the role of the indigenous consciousness on the planet and you also know how much the indigenous people suffer from neglect and indifference, then act, serve, pray, assist, offer your love. Show those brothers and sisters that they have vital importance in the spiritual life of the planet and that their way of being should not be sold in a tourist way, to amuse the unconscious.

When you stand before an indigenous brother or sister, learn from them and, in your learning posture, let emerge from their hearts the purity and wisdom they have to transmit to humanity.

If you know that effort and perseverance are the keys to overcoming obstacles in this time, then do not become discouraged when you are in difficulties.

If the trial is greater than your faith, turn to unity with your brothers and sisters, a unity that, when it is true, opens the doors to God, to the descent of His Will.

Unite your heart to the heart of those who are with you. Make this Work a stronghold in which the King of kings will dwell, in His expected return. Trust in the victory and value love.

Do not think about what others will do for you; practice what you know and overcome the indifference that in different circumstances manifests itself in the hearts of all living beings.

Be the one who transcends the laws of this world; in this way, I will be able to reveal universal mysteries to you, and the events of the world will be the signs for you to read and take the next steps without fear and with bravery.

Unite to God, unite to this universal mission.

Live under the grace of Divine Mercy.

For the awakening of the human heart,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
