WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED the journey between the cities of Sant Esteve, Montserrat, and Burgos, Castile and León, SPAIN, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

When your heart and soul are seeking a way out of the abysses of your own consciousness, unite with the Spirit of God and cry out for Mercy.

When your heart is afflicted not only for the world, but also for that which you find within yourself, unite with the Spirit of God and cry out for Mercy.

The Creator does not expect anything more from His children than surrendered spirits, aware of their own ignorance and their need for Mercy.

The Creator does not expect anything more from His children than humble hearts that cry out and unite with Him to change their corrupted matter and their sick bodies.

Child, being in this world is at the same time a Grace and a great challenge. It depends on each creature to know to embrace this Grace and overcome the challenges in order to find, within their own self, the potential to love that cause them to remain alive, that supports this world, as well as each human heart.

Truly unite with the Spirit of God as a child of His, in need of His Mercy to return to the Sacred that once reigned in your essence.

God does not expect anything more from you than a surrendered heart that recognizes the greatness and the mystery of His Project and loves it, even without knowing it, so that one day it may express within you.

So love the Will of the Creator for you and cry out every day for the establishment of this Will. Let the Ray of God cross through your spirit and return you the peace that you once lost through being distracted from the Divine Purpose. Let the Creator rehabilitate and heal your small consciousness and make it great through being united with Him.

Recognize your smallness, uniting with the Spirit of God and sincerely crying out for Mercy. I will unite with your heart and will always cry out with you when you are sincere and pure in your intentions.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
