WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF GONDOMAR, PORTO, PORTUGAL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

While the world is in agony and the Lord shares the wounds of the injured spirit of the Earth, cry out for Mercy. You are still in time to pray, and may your prayers open the doors to the healing spring of Divine Mercy, so that what is lost may be found and what is far away from God may return.

Children, you are still in time to open your eyes and raise them to Heaven, seeking a way out, seeking the One Who is your salvation and life: the Creator of all things.

You are in time to ask for another opportunity to live His Principles and His Peace, so that His Project is not lost and His Hope does not fade away with the dust of what will be left of humanity.

You are in time for giving all of yourselves for the One Who gave everything to His creatures, and giving them Life, He Himself became flesh to show them the path of evolution. He gave Himself to the most lost of His children, entering where everything was darkness and spiritual blindness so that souls could see His Light and awaken.

That Light still shines in the darkness of the world and on the inner horizon of all beings. It is enough, children, that you want to see and walk in its direction, while it is still visible. That Light came to the world to ignite many more. Those who reach it will become the new light of the world, and those who do not go towards it will remain in the dark.

Only those who do not know God, do not seek and love Him, for there is no single heart in Creation that, having truly known the Love of the Father, chose the world and the illusion of matter. Only those who do not know Love, choose the world. For this reason, children, do not fear surrendering to seek the Love of God. Do not fear saying 'yes' to Him and walking towards Him.

There is no greater treasure than the one that is to be found upon walking on the life of the spirit, on taking steps in one's own evolution, on returning a little further towards one's own Origin, to the Source of Unity and Absolute Love.

While the world is in agony and the Son of Man is still in agony for the sins of the world, pray and seek God. There is no greater service for all Life, for God and for yourselves than seeking the Father and finding Him. All of Creation finds relief when a heart unites with God. You are still in time to do this, because the paths are open and Mercy shall intercede for those who repent and cry out for it.

I tell you that you are still in time, because there will be a moment in which it will no longer exist, and each one will illuminate their path with the light they ignited within themselves. Whoever is in God, will walk with the Light of God, and even during the times of Justice, will drink from the Fountain of Divine Mercy.

Your Father and Friend, the One Who warns and guides you,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
