DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

May the sun of hope shine within those who pray, for them to never be afraid of the future and of the unknown.

May the essence of the divine prophecies pulsate within those who have faith, so that by knowing the prophecies, they will know that their triumph is certain, and also know that Grace follows after every darkness and each difficulty.

May love be born, awakened, grown and multiplied within those who try hard, every day, to imitate the steps of the Lord, and who live the cross of these times, as He did.

May the dimensions unite through the essence of those who are self-summoned for these times and may they discover, this way, the true meaning of the human existence.

May the knowledge of truth and the wisdom of universal life be the shield for the hearts that aspire to go through the transition of times peacefully. Their spirits will be sustained in the certainty that this life is a school of passage for that which is real and eternal.

Therefore, children, strengthen your inner world. Search for the truth through the knowledge we give you. Serve and be the light upon the table of this world.

Deepen yourselves in your surrender and self-giving to God, and you will see the birth, the awakening, the growth and the multiplication of love within your hearts.

Be what it really is to be a human being, and experience the real purpose of your existence.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
