APPARITION OF JESUS CHRIST DURING THE SACRED CALL, IN THE CITY OF MEXICO, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

I come this evening to celebrate Communion with you, under the powerful spirit of My Father, who gathers you in this fraternity so that My Plan, which is the Plan of My Father, may be fulfilled in this humanity and on this planet, in such need of love and mercy.

As you have said, companions, I open My Arms towards you, to give you My Peace and deliver My Heart to you, as a symbol of Redemption for your consciousnesses and the consciousnesses of all your brothers and sisters.

With all the angels that are with Me today, I come to bring you good news, because the arrival of the Mother of God to Mexico and Central America was fulfilled in this third stage.

I want to tell you, companions, that the sacred task of the Messengers of God who come today to your encounter, is being fulfilled as God wrote it in His Golden Book of His Celestial Kingdom.

Each event experienced is being written by the Eternal Father Himself, so that the destiny of this planet may be able to change in time and many souls may be saved, by just awakening to My Glorified Heart, which is the living Heart of God, that can be present in each one of you, just as you have done in this prayer that you have proclaimed to My Merciful Heart.

It is a joy to be on this earth after two thousand and sixteen years. But in truth I tell you, companions, that My Heart, in the depth of Its silence, knew that this humanity existed here.

That's why, at that time, I asked the Mother of God for a special Grace for you: To leave stamped in this nation Her Celestial Presence, so that all the nations of the world would know her and would have total knowledge of the Divine Science stamped on the cloak.

Therefore, companions, with all the stars from Heaven and the Divine Consciousnesses that today are congregated in this place to pour out the Mercy of God by means of the offer of My Glorified Heart, I tell you once again, companions, that peace is possible in this time.

You should not fear what you will live. The humanity on the surface must redeem itself. It must reach the transformation of its consciousness, so that the new codes that will come from the Celestial Universe through each prayer exercised, may be present in this last phase of humanity.

Today My heart beats for Mexico, for each one of the creatures of God that today must reach the Light that My Merciful Heart offers them.

Receive from My Hands the Rays of the Mercy of God, which today I come to deposit upon this beloved nation, very protected and cared for by My Heavenly Mother.

Dear companions, I invite you on this evening, in the simplicity of the heart and soul, to be the apostles of My Love in this last planetary cycle, in which it will be necessary for decided souls to live and feel Me. Because it is through their souls and hearts that I will be able to retransmit the celestial gifts, to all the creatures who need it most.

I also come today, on this day, to alleviate the suffering that was generated in this nation from the beginning of the colonization until the present.

Therefore, I have opened the doors of the Universe, the fourteen main ones, so that the pain could be liberated, in obedience to My Celestial Father and to the service of all the angels, for the hosts of the Archangel Saint Michael who have come to remove the suffering of the spirit from the consciousness of many beings.

It is at this time, companions, where I invite you to vivify Me through the Communion that today I will consecrate for you.

Because I Am the same Jesus of Nazareth, who comes to find you so that you remember your commitment with Me, the commitment to be My ambassadors of Peace in this crucial time of humanity.

I come to deposit in you something that will flourish in the future. That is why you must persevere, even more, so that those who are on My path, because at the end of the goal is eternity, which is where I want to take you after having served Me in this humanity and for this planet, which agonizes so much due to the ignorance of this race.

It is thus that I come to open the eyes of your hearts and to expand the consciousness of your souls so that you may be in Me.

It is a victory that Our Sacred Hearts, that of the most Blessed Mary, of Saint Joseph and My own Living Heart, are descending upon this nation.

I come to bring you the codes of Rehabilitation, something that for many is a mystery, but that forms part of the Divine Science.

These codes descend through your spirits and ultimately will materialize in your own lives by means of transformation and of redemption.

So, companions, I come to heal the great wound of the indigenous consciousness and to recover the purity that it reached when this whole Mexican people, its original people, lived in the happiness of God and of the Kingdoms of Nature.

Thus I come to make a cut in time and space. I come to reconnect you with the truth that you are, with that which you reached through the generations, by way of the living devotion that emerges from your hearts with My Heart, which today receives this gratitude from each one of your souls.

This is what encourages me to continue coming to the world for all those lost souls, who day after day are immersed in the hells of humanity. I want to reach each one of them through you.

Open the doors of your hearts for me as you did today, so that I to may indicate the path and the service you must fulfill for My Heart.

It is thus that I come to sow seeds of Light in this suffering time of humanity.

And while I am with you, companions, I am with the nations of the world, mainly with America, that should not lose the opportunity to be the cradle of the new humanity.

Do not fear what human beings of the surface do. Remember in humility, that God has the power and that it is He who allows things, including the presence of My adversary in humanity; the hearts that live Me will not tremble.

I am that Source who renews all things each time that you commune with Me in love and gratitude. It is this love and gratitude of all the souls that follow Me, of all the nations of America and of the world, that has allowed Me to come here, to Mexico.

It is through My servants of peace, of each praying group, of each serving soul, that allows Me to come here, because this generates, not only for Mexico but also for the world, an inexplicable atonement, that today is poured upon this place.

You called Me once and today I am here among you to give you My Peace, My Consolation and My Grace, something that is lived profoundly in the spirit of each being.

I come to give you rest, pacification of the consciousness and the elevation of the spirit towards the Great Portal of God, through My Living Heart.

I want you to feel at this time the opportunity to love Me as I love you, beyond imperfection and error.

See around you in the eyes of your brothers and sisters the brightness of My Spirit, for the souls that have redeemed themselves by just saying "yes." And so it is that I am here to bless you.

Let us pray to the Father so that Mexico does not lose its peace and is not conquered by the ideas of tenebrous human beings.

It is thus that My Divine Mercy first comes to prevent chaos and to establish peace in all hearts that open themselves to receive My Light and My Love. This will prevent the imbalance of the planet.

I invite you to live the changes in peace. Trust in what we tell you and never deviate from My path.

I invite you to feel things with love, for then you will be in Truth and your hearts will also be alive, alive in the Source of God by means of His glory. And His Glory will be with you and with your brothers and sisters, and My Kingdom will approach, more each time, so that I may be able to return soon and put an end to many things.

I want you to be happy for being with Me and that you offer each small sacrifice for humanity, so that many more than you, can benefit through My last atonement, which will prepare a part of humanity for My second coming, fulfilling, thus, the prophecies of John.

We know that this moment is approaching unexpectedly. Do not forget to be vigilant. Distance yourselves from distraction and you will not lose wisdom. The times demand concentration and vigilance, so that everyone may be sheltered in My Spirit, and in spite of what happens, may know what to do and where to be.

When everything happens do not be afraid nor think of what will happen. Live in Me and you will be able to be in the eternal present and thus you will act according to the Will of God, which is simple and loving.

Now I want to see on your faces a smile for meeting me again and persisting, because in persistence is found the triumph of the Plan of Love in each one of the souls.

Let us celebrate this Communion in union with all the brothers and sisters of the planet, with all the praying people and mirrors that reflect the Love of My Heart to the world.

Smile, smile to God. He too must be consoled by His children, thus He will shed upon you the Source of His Providence and all His Grace, and many more souls will be touched by this impulse of Light.

Now adore My Heart by singing "I came to adore You."

And as two thousand years ago, once more I repeat:

Blessed are the merciful because they will attain Mercy.

Blessed are the meek of heart, because they will inherit the promised land.

Blessed are the humble of heart, because they will always find peace.

Blessed are the simple of spirit, because they will always see God.

Blessed are those who live Me, because they will always find Me.

Blessed are those who adore Me in the most Holy Sacrament, because I will wait for them in the Kingdom of God to take them with Me to Eternity.

I thank you for having received Me, for having listened to Me and for having felt Me for only one minute, for having praised Me, for having honored Me, because everything will not come for Me but for the Creator, who is the One who loves you from the beginning to the end. From the smallest of you to the largest one, He loves everything, because in His Love is the peace and His blessing.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

May peace be in you and be peace for the world.

Continue singing.
