Apparition of Christ Jesus during the 60th Marathon of the Divine Mercy, in the city of Vienna, Austria, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

Now I come from a place many do not know, a place where I was once received and from where I shall return to the world. You may know it as the House of the Father, the Celestial Source or the Universe.

I come from the Heart of this Universe, which has offered Itself to gestate life and Creation, so that all souls could live an experience of true and attainable love; so that souls could live an experience of redemption and of forgiveness.

I come from that Heart that pulsates in the center of the Universe and from where the Father sends Me to the world to proclaim His Word of Salvation and of Light, in order to bring you the impulses you need so that your consciousnesses may awaken to the true reality that emerges from the Heart of the Universe.

Today I show you My Face of Universality.

I am the One Who was among you more than two thousand years ago.

I am the One Who has risen, Who suffered for you and Who offered Himself to you out of love, a love that is still not known.

Behold the One Who ascended to the Heavens and Who is close to the Celestial Father to let you know the immensity of His Mercy, the great goodness of His Eternal Soul, the Infinity of His Love for each one of the creatures that have arisen from this Universe to live an experience of love and a great opportunity of forgiveness.

The history of humanity has not ended yet, nor has its past been dissolved. The Universe still needs to heal humanity and, for this to be possible, you must first heal your hearts, so that afterwards the world may be healed and finally redeemed.

With My Universal Message, I come to remove you from the superficiality of these times, from the ignorance of these times, from that which separates you from Truth and Love.

I do not wish to institute a new church in you. I wish to institute in your hearts My eternal Celestial Church, which is invisible, higher and infinite before the eyes of humankind.

Believe, companions, in the fountain that exists within you, in the universe that exists within you and that no human will be able to take from you.

I invite you to reconnect with the spirit of My Universality because, if you contemplate the Universe, you will contemplate Creation and you will attain the purpose of your lives.

I need New Christs who may feel like My Heart and My Soul do; who may know the immensity of My Works, which go beyond all churches of the Earth.

For I ascended to the Heavens for you and I come from Heaven for you, to reveal to you My new Task and the purpose the Celestial Father has placed in My Merciful Heart.

Therefore, I invite you to open your consciousnesses for you to know that I am more than Jesus, a humble man who came to the Earth to teach you about love and the importance of instruction for your lives.

Overcome the limits of matter. As you open your consciousnesses, your hearts will feel My Presence and you will know the place I come from is a special place for everyone, where all may commune with this precious Divine Energy which offers Itself from time to time, which reveals Itself from cycle to cycle so that souls may recognize the Will of God.

Do not see the Father as a judge. See the Great and Eternal One in the infinity of His Mercy. Recognize within yourselves the attributes He delivered to you out of love. Sacred Gifts of His Spirit which must awaken your talents, so that like many men and women of the Earth, you may feel encouraged to serve Him fully, experiencing service with joy and with deep bliss in your hearts.

I come from that place of the Universe so that you may know I am more than a Nazarene, and that I came here to the Earth just as I come at this time to take you to the Universe of My Truth.

In the Universality of My Heart, which you can find, you will have no restrictions or limits, because that which comes from the Source and which is in the Heart of the Son of God, invites souls to experience the Projects of the Father and to accomplish them on this planet through the donation of souls.

I invite you, companions, to find My Divine Spirit beyond forms and religions; for I come from a higher place that conceived the great opportunity for the world of bringing Love and Redemption to the Earth, so that all followers of My Heart might someday become witnesses of My Presence and of My Word.

Thus, I do not come to evangelize you, nor do I come to compromise you. I come to bring you the message of awakening, for this world and this humanity must come out of the inertia in which they have placed themselves, in order to experience their great transformation in the name of the whole Universe and of all of Creation.

Encourage yourselves to take this step and do it beyond My Name. Do it for the whole Universe, for the sake of the true experience of love that you have had in other times, and which I bring you today for you to remember it and, thus, awaken.

You are not here on this planet only for a human experience. You are a part of a Purpose and of a great Infinite Plan, which was thought and meditated by the Source and delivered to the great Archangels of Creation who, in the name of Love and of the Sacred Unity, have gestated the projects in all universes and especially within the inner universe of each being.

Therefore, recognize your filiation with the Heights. I do not ask you to become religious. I ask that your lives be redeemed and converted according to My Message, so that the Attributes of God may emerge in your hearts.

From that place of the Universe, I come to help the world, and I do not stop for those who have remained behind. I go ahead for those who accompany Me. Each soul will have its moment before

Our Lord and this is something irrefutable.

Thus, with the awareness I bring you and with all the Love that I give you, establish this alliance with the Universe and continue to uplift your consciousnesses, not only through service or prayer, not only through fraternity and consideration, but also through the awakening of the consciousness to that which every being on this planet has truly committed to accomplish in the name of Creation, for the redemption of this race and the purification of this planet, for the establishment of a new and sacred humanity in communion and in alliance with all Kingdoms of Nature.

In this way, the history of this suffering humanity will change forever if more consciousnesses respond to My call; if more consciousnesses feel encouraged to search within themselves for the richness of their inner universe, which is a memory that cannot be erased.

I need, companions, that you discover within yourselves what you truly are, thus you will also help build the new times and will bring to the world the peace and the love it needs so much, so that many more souls, just like you, may be encouraged to take new steps into the sacred commitment with the Creator.

As you seek the union with your inner universe, you will be in communion with the Higher Universe and the laws in your lives will change, and you will learn through love and joy. Thus you will be My witnesses by means of the transformation of your lives.

Nevertheless, there are some consciousnesses in this time who fear to take such a step, preferring to remain in their resistance and in themselves, in order to not change. Souls believe they must suffer in order to be transformed; yet, the Law I bring you from the Universe is completely the opposite.

Feel encouraged to cross the portal I once crossed, accepting the Will of the Father and accomplishing It on the Earth according to His sacred designs from the Source.

By means of My Words and of the Universe that today I bring to all of you, I dissolve the past of Austria, the deeds of suffering and of pain, so that, through the rebirth of the Flame of Faith and the trust in the divine, souls may be encouraged to give a great "yes" to the Universe.

All of humanity is before a great choice that could change the course of events. Therefore, just as it happened more than two thousand years ago, but now in all places of the world, I come to call My flocks that come with different experiences, cultures, languages and deep histories that I come to transform and to sublimate in the Presence of the Living God, alive through the Son and His Heart.

Let us celebrate this moment when the Higher Universe enters the inner universe of hearts in order to dissolve suffering and the past, and to revive the joy of being in communion with the Heights.

Be participants of this moment, not only through the Sacraments, but also through the inner union of each one of your essences with the Son of Love.

Incense.

The altar shall be blessed in order to deepen even more the inner union of hearts with the Creator, and also for His resplendent Angels to descend to the Earth bringing Grace, Forgiveness and Mercy through transubstantiation, a Law which is fulfilled today in the hearts that commune with Love.

Unique and powerful Source of the Universe, which has created everything that exists and everything that vibrates and which makes Itself present in the inner universe of each being; descend now to the Earth, so that souls may be liberated from error and may be reborn in the power of Your Glorious Love. Amen.

For the sake of the water that flowed out from My Side, may this water of conversion and of redemption spring as an immaterial source in the hearts that are opened to commune with My Spirit. Amen.

Those who have their feet washed today will be released from the past and will be granted a Grace for the merits attained by My Heart. Amen.

We offer You, Universe, the Sacrament of Redemption, so that the creatures of this material Universe, which vibrate according to Your purpose and understanding, may receive Your cells of Light, subtle and immaterial vibrations that transform the depths of beings, so that Your Will may be fulfilled.

The Immaterial Source of Love that comes from the Universe, incarnated as a human to witness the greatness of Love and of Redemption to the world.

The Immaterial Source delivers the Body and the Blood of Christ to you so that your cells may receive the impulses and merits that the Redeemer has attained.

Therefore, today I remind you of the Legacy that has been recorded in the memory of the planet for more than two thousand years.

Eat and drink of the Body and Blood of Christ, in order to commune with the universal legacy which God has expressed by means of His Son.

Behold the Living Love amidst men and women of the Earth. Blessed will be those who commune with It, in order to receive the Grace from the Source and the Mercy from the One and Only.

So be it.

Our Father...

This is the One Who gave Himself for you and Who will continue to give Himself. Blessed will be those who participate of the communion with the Immaterial Source. Amen.

May Peace be established in Austria and in Eastern Europe so that hearts may awaken to the call from the Source, in order to renew the times, to change forms, to rekindle spirits and to rejoice hearts.

In the name of the Source of Love and of the Center of this Universe, I give you Peace, for you to be peace, for you to radiate peace, for you to carry the Peace of My Heart to those who most need it.

God bless on this day, by the intercession of His Divine and Unfathomable Mercy, all those who listen to My Word.

Receive the Peace and the Mercy of God.

In the Name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I thank you for responding to My great Universal Convocation.

Now you may give one another the greeting of Peace.

I thank you!
