WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Child, also awaken in your heart the Gift of Pity, just as one day I awakened It in My Chaste Heart.

After I was elevated to the Heavens, the Creator called me to be by His side, inviting me to intercede for this world. For this purpose, He made Me see and deeply know the four corners of the Earth.

At that moment, I came to know human ignorance and its most profound misery, and, knowing about the Perfection of God and that this Perfection secretly inhabits all beings, I felt Pity emerge in My chest.

I could not help but love the human heart because it was God Himself hidden within it. But not only God has hidden in humankind; humankind also hides the God that is present in them every day, with their actions, choices, thoughts, and feelings. Humankind prefers imperfection and illusion than finding the Truth. Humankind often chooses ignorance instead of Divine Wisdom. For all these reasons, I closed my eyes for an instant and cried out, almost in silence: Lord, have Pity.

Today I ask you to cry out with Me, when you are before your own ignorance and the ignorance of your brothers and sisters: Lord, have Pity.

Because of the consequences of human ignorance, which are expressed in the martyrdom of the Kingdoms, in abortions, in the suicides of young people, in wars, in family conflicts, I will ask you to cry out with Me: Lord, have Pity.

For there is no other way to transform the world and have it find the Truth but through opening the doors to the Pity of God, and thus attracting His Mercy. That is why, children, before you judge, criticize, or suffer, affirm: Lord, have Pity. Amen.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
