APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS, IN THE SACRED CALL

Bow down before My Father, for He sees you.

I come this evening to give freedom to the world, for My Heart will not keep anybody imprisoned anymore, for I have never placed anybody in captivity, but rather, I gave you the freedom of this material life, the power to recognize My Countenance, My wonders, and My gifts, which I gifted you from the first moment on the Cross.

Live My Passion in these difficult times. Do not erase from your memories all that your Redeemer has done, for the appointed time is drawing close. The inner clocks are being activated, to feel the coming of the Master and Redeemer. He will come in a Spirit of Divinity and Glory to seek fallen souls, to rescue the innocent from the injustices of evil, for nobody will be free of being purified. It is necessary for these difficult times.

Humanity has distanced itself from God and created its own condition, even in the deepest level of the spirit. But I come to remind you of the communion with Me, so that your sins may be forgiven.

Be pure and crystalline before My glorious Eyes, for I come in search of your humility and simplicity. I will not place My Kingdom in vain souls. I will place My Kingdom in the hearts that transform themselves through My Heart.

I come to give you the last key, the last sign for humanity, for I need all to listen to Me attentively; for today I am making you prostrate before My Father, because My Father sees you through My Merciful Heart and all the Angelic Hierarchies surrounding My Glory and My Aura, to give testimony of the Presence of God.

That is why I come to be consequent with each one of you. I need your stars to awaken in the innermost depth of your hearts, for that is what will illumine the darkness of the times when you are truly united in Me to pray.

Now look at Me with eyes of detachment and surrender, for I come to rescue what is not rescuable in this world.

Your hearts are worthy of My Glory, therefore I record My Face on your countenances, so that you may be like Me until the end of times, where everything will have been accomplished in the name of Adonai. And thus I lift you from the ground every day, because I need you to walk at My side in this time of tribulation, when souls judge themselves and lose the path of redemption.

For this reason, I need you all the time, because I hope you will not become lost and not stop following My Footsteps of Light, that which I am marking for the last time in the world.

Recognize My Footprints. Feel My Steps and listen for Me within your hearts. I Am your Glory, I Am your Truth. I Am the manifestation of the living Love of God, which many are not seeking because of becoming lost in superficial things.

This is why I call you to prayer, for that will be your torch. You yourselves must light it through the fire of your heart.

I will no longer be able to give you the touch of My Light; humanity does not deserve it. But if you are seekers of My Mercy, you will always be in the ocean of My Heart, feeling My consolation and being bathed by My Grace, every day to the end of days.

With all that, I show you the Truth, because very few hearts want to listen to Me. I do not come to bring discomfort to your lives, but rather to remind you, up to the end of times, of your commitment to the Creator, to our Guardian Angels, which will be the witnesses at the Final Judgment, of your lives, of the world and of all that you have done, up to the last moments of these definitive times.

But it will not be enough that you be able to believe Me, but rather that you can feel My Words, which are transmitted by the Divine Energy of God, which transmutes and frees all things when pronounced by the Voice of the Son of God.

You will hold these moments with Me in your hearts. They will be what will strengthen you in the face of all the things you will see. But your hearts must not be surprised. What has been written for these times, has been multiplied by a thousand. Do you know then, companions, where humanity is headed? Because Our Voice will not cease to be pronounced. We know that Our Voice and each one of Our Words will be Light for the pilgrims. We will be faithful to each of those, when each one of them are faithful to My Heart, to the Heart of My Mother and of Saint Joseph, and mainly to the Heart of the Eternal Father, which is greatly blasphemed by the world.

I come to speak to you of these things, My companion children, because the world is experiencing these things. Divine reality cannot descend while chaos circulates throughout the world. But in this place, in the heart of the faithful, My Heart comes to create small Islands of Salvation, where My adversary will not be able to enter, as long as you are consequent with Me, on this path to Infinity.

I would like to tell you things of the universe, but humanity has not wanted to listen because it has surrounded itself with material things that distanced it from the Law of God. I come to demonstrate to you the equilibrium of the universe, which you must never leave, so that you may be protected by the Law of My Lord.

While I listen to your hearts, you confess to My Heart, for in this way, all will be repaired in time and nobody will miss the opportunity of re-encountering My Glorious Heart.

I come to bring you a definite offer, the incalculable opportunity of living in My Peace and in the Kingdom of My God, because, in spite of everything that will happen, you will not lose your calm. You will be in serenity and will be peace-bringers of My Merciful Heart.

Now I will make the offer to the Universe of God for you, at the Altars of Heaven and of all the Archangels.

Let us praise God in gratitude, reparation, and love; for My only wish is that some carry My Crown of thorns on their heads to share the pain the world causes to Me, because of so much ignorance and lack of love. This will be the reason, companions, for offering these Sacraments in the name of redemption and peace.

And when you do not see peace in the world, in these times that are coming, seek the Peace of My Heart, for I will only be found in the hearts that want to receive Me and this will be your peace for these times. To be in My Peace, to live in My Peace, and to seek My Peace. This, companions, will allow you to not be surprised or tormented by anything around you. Because, I tell you again, you will see inexplicable things inside and outside of beings. That is the time of Armageddon.

Friar Elías:

Before the angels of Christ, at the request of Our Lord, we will intone the melodic Kodoish, making this offering through the Sacred Heart of Christ.

Those who can, stand up to make the offering to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Companions, in the Name of Our Lord, we will pray to God, so that He may intercede for the world through My Blessed and Most Sacred Heart.

May this Communion that you will do with Me reaffirm and confirm your vows to My Plan of salvation.

Just as at the Mount of Beatitudes, we will remember this Mystery that I revealed to the world through the Our Father.

Our Father (in Aramaic)

Praised be God, glorious is His Kingdom, Hallelujah, Hallelujah.

I want to find you in this peace every day, because many souls will avail themselves of your peace to calm their uneasiness in the face of the end of times, in which everything becomes so complex for the little hearts of humanity.

I wait for you here, in the prayer of Mercy, for I will come to see you here on October 5 and 6.

That is My promise to you. To place My codes in your hearts so that you can always resurrect in these critical times.

Come to Me and embrace Me. I always wait for you in the vigil of the Heart.

While I am here with you, I am with the world, mainly with the souls most in need and that, in this hour, experience their despair.

I observe you and contemplate you always, until the end of days, for the New Christs must awaken, to concretize the Plan of Salvation.

I thank you.

Remember those that suffer more than yourselves; thus you will see your pain is very small in light of the universal suffering that this planet and all its created Kingdoms experience. In this way, you will find the strength for when I am no longer here, among you, to blindly follow My path until going through the portal of My Heart, where everything will be consummated. So be it.

Thank You, Adonai, Emmanuel, Abba, for all that You give us.

Do not be sad. I will always be your unbreakable strength. And even though the mountains may move and the seas are agitated in these present times, do not lose your calm. God already has your hour marked, for each of the beings of the Earth, who must not lose their direction toward the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

My last attempt is to engrave the story of My Countenance in your hearts. And in this way, you will be the relics, the spiritual relics in the universe of God and, in this way, you will be witnesses of this Work of Redemption. And even though you are few, the experience will be great for those that believe without having seen.

While I speak to you, I calm you, I make you serene, so that you can feel My Purpose for this entire existence, of which I am a part since the beginning of the Earth. Thus, you can be blessed when you follow My path every day; you get up from your difficulties and only yearn to find My Heart in each act in life that must be represented by the good example of your hearts. In this way, the codes that I give you will not be lost and it will have been worth the effort of coming here to tell you all these things.

And now My Eyes cry for the world, for the unfaithful world, for the unjust world. God has something special for all, except that everyone has always wanted to act on their own will and have forgotten the Will of God; that has distanced you from the love and the essence of all that exists.

I come to remind you of this Purpose, so that you may always see the things beyond you. I would not want your hearts to grow cold, nor that they be tepid, for My desire is that you live in My Fire, which fosters peace, Mercy, and redemption.

While I am here, I am in tormented regions of the world, bringing relief to the scream of souls that cry out for pity and Mercy. But you, companions, are in the joy of My Spirit, while souls are being lost, without finding the Light of My Heart.

I had already seen this in the agony of the Garden of Gethsemane. This would be humanity's test, to surpass itself through love rather than through power. But My adversary has conquered many hearts. Thus, the time of Justice is approaching. And you have seen it, you have seen it happen around this humanity.

The times indicate new signs for those that truly want to see with the eyes of the heart, without ownership or attachment. In this way, you will be more aware of what My Sacred Heart sees of this world and of all things that get in the way of concretizing the project of this human race.

This is why I repeat to you: feel the Words, the vibration of My Merciful Heart. These will be the last, which will change the story of your lives.

I want you to already be different, so that I can dwell in the depths of beings.

Through this Work of the Divine Messengers, God wants to build a strong and invincible spirit in the souls that are being summoned in the different nations, for the armies must be ready to go into battle. The war in the world has already begun and this is not just a theory; you can see it with your own eyes.

But there are companions of Mine who turn their face away from all these things so as to not feel ashamed in the Eyes of God. Imagine, companions, what My Heart feels before the Creator, after all

I did for you and for your brothers and sisters. Was the story of My Passion worthwhile?

I say yes, because I know there are hearts that will cause the Promised Earth to shine, and will fulfill the part requested of Moses, when all takes place, the waters calm, and suffering disappears in the new humanity.

Meditate on what I tell you and let My Words not blow away like the wind; let them remain in your hearts as life, until I return in Body, Soul, and Divinity.

And thus I say goodbye to the brave and consequent and I elevate to the Kingdom of God all the outrages and suffering, so they may be transformed through your offering of reparation for My Sacred Heart.

Peace to all, brotherhood for the end of times.

I bless you once again with My Light and today in a special way, in the Presence of the Most Holy Trinity.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Thank You, Lord, for all that You give us!
