APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

My Heart is injured by this humanity.

Who will have the courage to inwardly heal Me on this day?

Offer God your reparation so that the Great Consoler may come to your aid.

Friar Elías takes the notebook and begins to write the first monthly Message.

On finishing, Christ Jesus continues to transmit His words:

On this evening, I bring the opportunity to live in My Mercy.

On this sacred evening, I will invite some brothers to raise to My sacred Altar the offering of the Body and the Blood of Christ, in honor of all those who die and all the innocent, so that My infinite Mercy may continue to be poured out upon the world.

My Heart is in you whenever you allow it. Today My Heart needs to be further within you. Will you allow Me? Live in My Mercy.

I am here with you, but also with the world. I observe what takes place around you and also in all of humanity.

While you raise the consecration offering of these Heavenly Goods, sing to My flagellated Heart to alleviate it.

"A Man Called Jesus" will be the song.

After consecrating, dear companions, I will say goodbye.

Song: "A Man Called Jesus"

Let the summoned brothers come up onto the stage to make the offering of the elements for the consecration.

Each heart holds, in its hands, the offering for My Sacred Heart.

I want you to know that at this moment, God listens to you in the name of this humanity. Let each one of you, in My Name, make an offering to the Creator for a necessary cause of this planet, so that Divine Mercy may permeate all the spaces and all consciousnesses. Silently, I listen to you.

I gather up your supplications in My Heart and from your hearts receive all the love you can express to Me. With all the love of this world, which comes from good souls, I rebuild this humanity, transfiguring that love into the essence of My merciful love, and again I pour it out upon humanity, just as it is at this moment.

Let us pray.

Our Father (in Aramaic)

Remembering within yourselves the passage of My Last Supper, bring to memory the moment of the important consecration I carried out for this humanity, in honor of the Supreme Father and all the Creator Fathers that united with this principle of transubstantiating the bread into My sacred Body, the wine into My precious Blood.

At this moment, revere the Rays that emerge from My Heart.

Prayer (repeated three times):

*Water, Blood, Life and Redemption, that flowed out from the Blessed wounded Heart of Jesus,
have pity, mercy and compassion on all of us.*

Amen.

And thus, in commemoration of My eternal Presence in the world, as it was in that time, among all My apostles of the past, the present and the future, I bless these Sacraments under the powerful, luminous, redemptive and merciful imposition of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Celebrate My Eucharist with love.

Go in peace.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Song:

A Man called Jesus.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

In truth, thank You, Lord!

And although the Message of Christ for today was very powerful, He again revealed to us His flagellated Heart. He did not fail to tell us that He deeply loved us, just as each of us is. He needs each one of us because He was telling us that each of us hears His Call, and He needs this love that each of us can express for Christ, because it will be the only way that He has for being able to pour out this Love again upon humanity.

He called on us, also on this day, to renew our trust in Jesus. To not give up in spite of the things that are happening on the planet. To foster our hope and our faith. For this reason, in the end, He poured out His Rays upon us and called each one of those brothers that held these trays, within the public, because He also recognizes His disciples in all of us, not only in those of us who are consecrated, because He sees our consecration inwardly.

Through this consecration of the Body and the Blood, He attempted to have all of us together become unified in Christ.

He needs each Sacrament, each prayer that we do to be offered to Him in reparation of the things that happen in the world.

He says that it is the only thing He can do at this time, thus avoiding the Justice of the Father, because today He showed us that the Father's Heart of Light is in great pain.

But if among us all, we unite and multiply this offering of love to Christ, doing each thing that we do during our daily routine for Christ, He promised to raise the innocent into Heaven.

For the closing, the first monthly Message was shared.
