DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

The path to the New Humanity should not be long, in spite of being very laborious for the current human consciousness.

Looking at human beings of today, many ask themselves: "Where will the New Human Race emerge from? Where is the new world? Will it emerge from one moment to the next, unexpectedly?"

Children,

The New Humanity is called "new" because we speak to a human consciousness that is completely unaware of the truth about itself.

From the moment in which humanity was created by God, and this divine and archangelic Project became active, everything was already fulfilled, and perfection was already manifested in matter.

Perfection is hidden, covered by layers and layers of deep illusion, which cause the consciousness to suffer for not being able to find itself in essence, in truth.

The most illusory suffering of all is that which you experience when you are lost of yourselves because this is now the time for grace, the grace to discover the truth.

Why do you suffer because of your imperfections instead of looking for the essence, the truth?

Why do you fear losing something that has never been yours, in order to finally know that which you are, as children of God?

Many ask themselves how they will experience, in this world and in their so common and human lives, the principles of a Plan that, in reality, is cosmic and universal. Children, those principles are internal. Their expression and manifestation are that which transforms life on Earth.

Do not wait for the planet to change so that you may then find favorable conditions for your own transformation, because it is you that must change the world. And I do not speak to you of an ideologic, political or social project; I speak of small things; I speak of acts of fraternity and true love; I speak of a sincere gaze and gesture towards those who are forgotten; I speak of an act of peace for those who are affected by the chaos of the world; I speak of actions that cut the growing chain of evil on the planet because social projects are as human as everything you have built as humanity up to now.

In order to reach something truly great, spiritually great, transform the small, the simple, the profound. And it is there, with your own example, that you will move the structures of the unbelievers and you will make them reflect, those who are searching for the truth and do not find it.

It is with the example that you will mark the path; it is with love that you will ignite a torch in this world of darkness so that those who walk blindly can find a way out.

I could tell you much more than I have already told you, and renew you through My words, but when the father withdraws, the youth grows and faces life and its difficulties in a more mature way. There is no other way to survive but by practicing that which one has learned.

The fact that the Divine Messengers withdraw from your lives is not to abandon you, but to make you grow, because it is already time, children. And not only society but the whole universe will demand this growth from you so that you can endure what is to come and be a true triumph of God.

In this reparation of fraternity, unity, and love, may you cease one day to repair your own consciousnesses in order to reach the human consciousness, the Kingdoms of Nature and the planet, for there is much to be repaired beyond yourselves.

As a good carpenter and servant of the Lord, I will always accompany you.

Your father and friend, companion of all eras,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
