Apparition of the Glorified Christ Jesus in the city of Bogota, Colombia, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Before the whole Universe that rules us, I have come here to consecrate you in My Love and to show you My Sacred Heart that is still wounded by the sins of human beings.

Glimpse My Celestial Presence. Reconsider your surrender, and offer to God your sacrifices for the conversion of this humanity and the glorification of the Name of God, from the beginning to the end.

Today I have come to satiate you, for My spiritual food is important in these times, mainly for those who lean before Me and try to contemplate My merciful heart.

I wanted to come here for one primordial reason, on behalf of the need of the planet and of all souls that live here: you must not forget My Living Heart, which will sustain you in the coming times.

I came here so that you feel My Love and renew your vows with Me in this perfect communion with My Divine Spirit in this time of transition in which many souls are defining themselves whether for the light or the abyss.

Who will have compassion for My Heart and will be able to satiate the lack I feel from the souls? For I do not seek the perfect ones.

I come to resurrect your lives, souls, and spirits from the abysses where they have placed themselves.

I come to extend My Hand toward you to show you a new path, to offer you My Heart for all souls that offend Me and do not accept My prodigies nor any celestial design.

I come here so that you know My Power that is invincible and powerful, because it is the Power of My Father who is in the Heavens, seated on His Throne of Light, observing the whole Creation and each one of your lives. This power is loving, strong, and alive for those who invoke it from their hearts, because through My Living Heart you will know the Power of God, and there should be no fear in your lives anymore because the Will of God will be acting through your consciousnesses.

Thus I come to renew you in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, so that you may always remember that these times urge new soldiers who consecrate themselves to My Sacred Heart.

I do not come to request impossible things from you. I come to ask you for the simplest things that exist, as I asked my apostles. But I know that very few want to listen to Me. For this reason, I cannot show Myself to everyone, because there must be an inner reception to listen to the message that comes from Heaven with the purpose to transform your lives and families into something sacred.

This is My last attempt before My glorious Return to the world. When My Return occurs, I will not be able to talk to you in this way. I will talk to you as I talk to humanity because I will come for humanity. I will come on the day of the Great Judgment when My Father will separate the chaff from the wheat and I will only be able to observe with My gaze of compassion and goodness towards those who always searched for My path in spite of the consequences and the tests. Because those, who are the last ones, will be victorious when the day of the final judgment arrives.

The scale is upon the table of My Father. The judgment is starting and very few perceive it. But those who follow My Living Heart and My resplendent flame of Love will transform themselves in spite of what happens, because the sacred merit, the great merit of Heaven, will be on the next Earth, in the next life that they will be invited to experience by the Lords of the Law, those who judge this world and others in these times of definition.

This is why I come to show you My Heart which is living because it pulsates in the Spirit of God and still wants to pour His last Mercy upon humanity.

I come to strengthen the devotion of all Colombians because this essence of devotion cannot be lost. It will be with your very hard work that, just like in the fields, this devotion will not be lost and this living flame will never be extinguished in your essences and in all hearts that surround you, every day of your lives.

Thus, you will be waiting for Me with another degree of preparation and supreme awareness, to then see the Son of God, who is already coming in His Divine Spirit, to later arrive in the flesh, to manifest Himself in Glory in the times to come.

But the world must still be purified and so must your lives. Do not fear that which you have to purify, because if you trust in My Heart, which is sacred and full, your purification will pass and you will be renewed in body, mind, and spirit, and you will be prepared to receive My energy of Light that wants to be poured out for the last time upon the world and especially upon the 144 thousand who will prepare the return of the Universal King.

While this is about to happen, companions, may your lives be more crystalline each day. May your acts be more merciful each time so that your pride and arrogance, which have made the world succumb, may disappear from your cells, and thus the spiritual energy of My heart can be instituted.

You must purify your beings all the time, thus you will be deserving of the Grace of God, for many Graces were poured out throughout the times and few considered them as something sacred and reverent.

For this reason, now that the scale of Law is at another point, prepare your hearts through the unceasing search for My Sacred Heart. Nourish your spirits with My Spirit of Life every day in the perfect Communion that is offered in all altars on Earth.

Thus, repent in time and confess every time it is necessary. Experience a life worthy of sacred examples, of prayer, of charity, of service, and in this way, you will be serving My merciful Heart. Because I will not see you as sinful souls, but I will see you as doors through which My energy can enter to work in other hearts. Thus everything will be fulfilled in the hearts that listen to My Call.

And just as in Jerusalem, when I was gathered with the twelve to give My last offering to the world, I told them: "Eat of My bread because it represents My Body which is divinized by the Father through His maximum offering on the Cross; and drink from My Chalice that represents the Covenant, throughout the times, with all the hearts of the world; blood that is shed by your Lord to this day."

Offer this Communion in restoration and life, and may your hearts be purer every day to receive the Grace of the Kingdom of God.

And thus I also bless these sacred objects that you have brought to My altar so that they represent the signs of light to all those who carry them with reverence and love.

Let us pray.

Most Holy Heart of Christ

*convert our hearts
into sacred flames
of Your Divine Mercy,
so that Your Face is merged into the great human heart.
May the coming descent of Your Celestial Glory
redeem all consciousnesses, in honor and glory
to the Celestial Father.*

Amen.

Prayer: Our Father.

Glory to God in the highest and on Earth peace to beings of goodwill.

And thus you confirm, companions, the promise to always seek My Heart in times of tribulation.

Joyful, blessed are those who do it because they will be rewarded in the Kingdom of God.

And thus, I bless you and your nation so that you may strengthen the consecration to My Sacred Heart that wants to be alive in each one of you. Thus the Will of the Father will be fulfilled.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

And now that you are cleansed, you will receive the Body and Blood that are alive in the Sacraments to strengthen the souls and your paths of life.

Go in peace and goodness.

I thank you.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Jesus is a consciousness that has many degrees of love to offer us and today He offered one of the main ones, which is the profound love of His Heart.

Within that Heart, which He showed us today, a very strong flame of love for us, for the planet, and humanity was burning.

He came as the Sacred Heart and showed us part of the Kingdom of Heaven, where He comes from, where many crystals shone as light at His Feet. And those crystals, that light of the crystals that were at the Feet of the Master, shone throughout all Bogota.

With the help of the angels that were accompanying Him, the Master led us to the moment of Genesis, in which God started writing the history for this humanity, for this creation.

Jesus led us to that moment for us to remember the importance of this Project of God, which according to Jesus, each one of us as humanity has deviated throughout times.

He wants each of us to recover that, the main Project of God, the original one, so that we may know His Love, from which we have always separated.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus came today to Colombia and to the whole planet to remind us that He is the Love of the Living God, in whom we can always trust, in whom we can penetrate with our consciousnesses through the union that we can establish with Him.

God says He loves us profoundly and He comes to remind us of that commitment.

He came to liberate many souls from this region while He descended as a sphere of fire crossing the universe, the atmosphere of this planet until he located this place here where we are.

There a portal of light opened and the crystals appeared at His Feet. Behind Him was the Kingdom of Heavens, a part of this Kingdom, the angels that surrounded Him and that at the same time went through each part of the city of Bogota carrying a soul that was lost, that was looking for light and consolation.

He left us a main message for today which is that if we penetrate into the Love of Jesus, there is nothing to fear, in spite of what happens around us. Because if we trust in Him, as the Master told us today, His divine protection will always prevail.

Thank You Lord for all that You give us.
