APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN, AT THE 27TH MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

What do you think of when I come to meet you? Where is your heart placed before My Presence? And your spirit, where does it dwell?

Where does God reside in these moments, when His Firstborn Son descends to the world to uncover the catacombs of the Earth and free the souls that are imprisoned?

You are bearers of My Light, and My Mercy is here, for if I am within you, why am I outside of some?

My Heart is stronger than thought and allows all souls that are not deserving of the Grace of God to be awoken, but I trust in many of you in this most sacred hour, in which My Heart shows itself to the world to glorify God and all His creatures that correspond to His Greater Plan of Redemption.

Do you, by any chance, remember where you come from? What motivated you to be here at this moment?

My Path is unique; there are not two paths. My ship is unique, there are not two ships in My Project of redemption. Which will you board? The ship of the world that is submerging or the ship of the Holy Covenant that comes to save you in spirit and divinity?

I do not come to search for what you cannot give Me; I come for that which I gave you, which is called the gift of the Heart; give that gift of your heart to God; thus you will glorify the Celestial Father who is much outraged by this world because in spite of My Mercy being invincible and presented before you to give you life, spirit, and renewal, in other parts of the world, companions, the suffering is greater than the light and there are no souls in this time that can bring relief to such things.

Companions, that is called the great unpayable debt of humanity; but if your hearts trust in My Heart, someday you will be able to be merciful and whole; you will receive the Kingdom of God in your hearts and you will be within His celestial wholeness to show this civilization that a profound change is possible.

I come with the hope that you will synthesize this meeting of today with Me in your lives because I repeat, companions, it is time for the great definition. Your feet cannot walk two paths; I come to offer you one path of light that is called sacrifice for humanity, hope for fallen souls, redemption for those who have fallen, and especially for those that, in their spiritual resistance, do not allow themselves to be overcome by Me.

You, companions, have surrendered your hearts to My Heart. I spent many nights in your homes, to visit you, share My joy, console your unhappiness, bring a deep consolation to your spirits. Many times, companions, I accompanied you in your work, guided your families towards My Most Sacred Heart, and this has been possible because you opened the door for this to happen.

I would deeply wish that on this afternoon, you heard other things, things that come from the Celestial Universe, that are eternal emanations of all the Creator Fathers that assemble in My Cenacle of Light to bring a solution to this Project of humanity.

Companions, you are part of this Project of redemption and rehabilitation; never lose hope nor faith that your lives will be realized in Me, for in this way, I will be present all the time, accompanying your hearts and your families.

I would like to tell you, My beloveds, that through the Sacraments I come to give souls a unique opportunity. When a Sacrament is not carried forward, you are interfering in My Project of redemption, but you are free since your birth into life.

I come to offer you an opportunity rather than an oppression, but these matters will be understood later, after I am no longer here and some years have gone by, in which you will see, as true testimony, all that the Messengers of God carried out and where they led you for an Infinite and divine Higher Purpose for this humanity, for this part of humanity here on the planet.

I bring you confidence in what is impossible to do and believe. I know that many of you feel My Spirit, but I still will not be able to show Myself to everyone; some will see Me after this life through that Portal of Light you will cross as souls towards the meeting of My Kingdom of redemption, where I will be waiting for you, for a new divine fusion, for a new mission in the Plans of God.

Everything that is done here in My Name, such as the Sacraments, has a spiritual and inner purpose that you will not understand in this life, but the experience I provide you with through the Sacraments is indelible and you will see it in the next Earth.

Thus, in these times, on this day and in this place, I come to rebuild what I gave you in the beginning; I come to renew the teachings that I gave My apostles on washing their feet, baptizing their spirits, exorcising their bodies, consecrating souls that come to go through an experience of love in this humanity.

With this, I tell you that the Sacrament of Marriage is a primary project of God. I come to recover the spirit of the Sacred Family in many hearts because that spirit that We placed in the world is being erased from the consciousness of humanity through the suffering, the martyrdom of punishment, that is generated in these times.

Companions, you know more than I that families are disuniting, that souls are being lost because not even the spirit of My prayer dwells within them. Thus, through the Sacrament of Marriage, I come to recover and to renew your lives in that chaste union that I propose for you through a simple consecration to My Sacred Heart.

Simply through the movement and the fact of consecrating your hearts to God, you will re-open the doors so that the blessed and Sacred Family of the universe may descend with its spirit of life to the Earth, fill consecrated hearts, renew the teachings so that your lives may be an example for God, for the universe, for universal life.

And in this way, in the Presence of My Heart, through each Sacrament, you will be testifying, as it was with the peoples of the desert, that the Project of God, will be in recovery in your consciousnesses.

I know you will not understand it. I know you sometimes do not understand what I ask of you because you do not have the structure to be able to understand Me, but the heart that trusts will never fail, for it will be on the correct path, the path of My Sacred Heart.

Today My Words would have been different, but My Instruction must be well heard, not by your minds, but rather by the true feeling of the heart of light that dwells in each of you, that belongs to God and His universal infinity, by His Grace.

You are always free to walk, but I ask you not to forget Me, because all of this weights the universe, due to the atonement that I give you and My Divine Mercy.

Hearts are separating from themselves more and more, and this has repercussions in the families. Families must be the expression of My Love, of joy, of hope, and renewal. If, companions, the family is not sacred or blessed, how will the Project continue in the New Humanity?

Thus, I come to open you a door so that you, who are the first in the perfect list of My Heart, may re-open the doors for those that are lost, that hate, that separate from God the Father.

Each Sacrament is a tunic for your lives.

I will not rest until achieving what My Father asks of Me. I will not rest until My Work is completely carried out in your lives.

You must love the Plans of God to be able to understand them; many want to know them before loving them. My Science is not from this world. I bring you closer to it so that you may grow in wisdom.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Our Lord is calling the coordinators of the areas of Figueira because He wants to tell them something.

While I am waiting, trust in My Divinity; that will bring you closer to God and you will not become lost easily when things are intensified in this world.

Listen to My Voice, companions, because when I am no longer here and My Mother or Saint Joseph either, your hearts must be realized in faith, in trust, in the believability that We were always here to guide and console you, for you must testify to the laws of the Earth on all that happened here, in the coming time.

That will be the definite and important time for each one of you and confirmation to God and His Project of Love. This will allow, or not, the doors to be open for those that will need the consolation of the points of light that were founded on the perfect base of the Sacred Hearts.

This Work will not end when We are no longer here. This is the first part of the preparation; the Work will continue throughout the years, the multitudes will grow because faith will be present as a living flame at the top of this Hill. It will be the primary motivation, the invisible spirit that will call hearts to redemption and the healing of each of your lives.

Thus, the 144 thousand will assemble before I return in Glory, in Body, in Soul and Divinity. If this were so, a part of the Project will have been accomplished. If this were not so, we must pray.

For you, I bless this important Sacrament that is on My Altar, that not only unites hearts and souls but unites lives and families through the spirit of My Mercy.

I thank you for consoling My Heart for the grave sins of the world, for the thorns on My Chest hurt, and you must alleviate this through love and prayer, just as you have done up to now.

Renew yourselves every day and do not tire of working at My side for peace.

In the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Thank You, Lord, for all that You give us!
