

Monday, April 6, 2015

APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS DURING THE SACRED WEEK, DAY 6, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Let the self-summoned seat themselves at the table of light, for their time has come, the hour of their surrender.

Now I am here, among My Own, recognizing the resurrection of all sinners through the compelling power of My Spirit.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

By the glorious ascension of Jesus that saved all of humanity, give us Your Spirit, Lord.

Amen.
(repeated nine times)

Receive My Graces and once again let My Light penetrate your hearts.

Today, with My gifts, I come to touch those who recognized Me as the Shepherd among shepherds, as the Greater Star among the stars of the Universe.

Let the consecrated mothers bow down within this sacred cenacle at the foot of this altar.

Watch with Me in union and love.

Let the mothers bow down in this cenacle at the foot of this altar so that I may give them to drink of the sacred Fountain.

I gave you a grand Mother for the end of times, but this sacred Universal Mother that knows you deeply, needs more arms and hands to move forward with the preparatory work of My Return.

Cleanse your hearts, sanctify your consciousnesses, from My Heart receive all My love. Recognize the spiritual Hierarchy extensively manifested on the surface of the Earth, for God weaves His precious project through the hands of all His instruments.

It is time, companions, that you recognized the great task God has placed in the most imperfect to achieve the best things, which are unknown to you; but if you remain firm in My Heart, you will know what I tell you. My Words will not only move through here, they will remain in your consciousnesses, just like I desire all of the time.

Today I bring you the essence of My Blood, a precious code for souls in redemption, a divine Light for spirits that are dead. Because in the same way that I come to resurrect you to the great existence of the Universe, I also come to resurrect all consciousnesses that united with My Heart this week.

Be happy and blessed, for only this will be a preparation for what will come.

The Lord is requesting that here at the foot of the altar we place the sacraments that will be offered today.

The water, the wine, the bread, the incense, the oil, and mainly, companions, your hearts, are the greatest offering of love to the Creator.

But if your hearts are united with Me and you trust, greater will be the gift for God, and from His scourged Heart the pain of the world, of the ungrateful hearts will be erased; thus, the way the women prepare My table will be seen, and My Spirit gives continuity to the events through omnipresence, where all souls avail themselves of My ministry to receive the gifts that I so wish to pour out over all, from the beginning to the end, from the Alpha to the Omega, in which everything will be accomplished and humanity will enter into a new cycle.

Lie down on the ground like children. From My Heart receive the blessings, but do not make too great an effort. My Presence fills you completely and gives you life, within your lives. It is the regenerative code of My Christic Light.

Women of yesteryear, consecrated mothers, rise up from the ground and remain kneeling to offer your Lord the sacraments of reparation and of healing for souls, which I come to vivify through the presence of good hearts and also sinning hearts, which on this afternoon of Divine Mercy are being freed of their faults, of the stains of evil.

Take up the sacraments, mothers, as fruit for the altar. With harmony and deliberation, offer an intention to My Heart, in the silence of your constant prayer.

The Greater Mother, Who accompanies you in this world, must also offer Me an intention, which I deeply know in the essence of the spirit.

Remember what I gave you yesterday. You will not understand it through the words nor the feelings, but when your memories enter into the heart and you experience again all these facts, as happened last year, you will remember the legacy that I gave you, the same as with My apostles. Happy are those who believe in My Presence, for in the end of times they will be resurrected.

Our Lord is giving us a song of the celestial choirs so that it may be repeated here, with the help of Sister Piedad.

Song: Praised be God.

All together My children.

And may this peace that I give you be offered for sinful, martyred, and mutilated hearts; and for all the existence of this creation that suffers the consequences of humanity.

Mothers, lifting up your offering to the thrones of God, the time has come for all, together with their guardian angels, to lift up this offering to the temples of the Creator in the celestial spheres, through My Merciful Heart.

Sing again.

Walkers without boundaries, serve God in fullness, and drinking of the Source of My trust, testify to My Return, for the world needs to hear that I was here among you, announcing My new Good News for all the redeemed and for those who will be freed from captivity.

Carry the Message of God in your hearts, and may this love that was poured out over all be able to reach all the people that come in these days to your homes, to your workplaces, and on your roads. Wherever you go or travel through, there you will always find a soul that needs the encouragement, the relief, and the hope to be able to find Me.

Mothers, keep the sacraments in the same way that you took them, for today they were especially sanctified for sinful souls, many of whom are not here today.

Companions, I not only leave you the planetary adoration. Here I leave a space consecrated for all, within the Immaculate Heart of My Mother. I leave a cenacle for all in this space, so that all may remember that they will always be able to find Me here, in the omnipresence of My Silence.

Today the Celestial Choirs observe your actions. Blessed are those who offer acts of reparation and of love, for the thorns are removed from the innocent and souls reach the Kingdom of God through your sacred offering.

The names of God are keys of transcendence and doorways that lead you to the greater spirit. They are sacred and blessed names, scales of vibration, of sound, and of energy. Sublime Codes that descend to the universes through the emanation of the Creator Fathers, who are the forerunners of the love and the unity of God in all the universes of which you are a part.

Let us sing to God and give thanks for this meeting.

Let the names of God be intoned with reverence, but also with much rejoicing so that this love, which is in your hearts, may reach the world.

I thank you.