APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS DURING THE SACRED WEEK, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

While I am present, reconsider everything that I have told you in these last days, and define your lives in My Merciful Heart, that opens like an inexhaustible spring for souls thirsty for the Love of God.

On this day, I prepare you for tomorrow, at My Last Supper, where we will relive the great mystery of My Divinity and of My Agony, before the Passion.

My Heart offered Itself completely for each one of you, and it lost nothing.

I am before you as before the people of God, who gather together as a single flock to receive Me in this Holy Week.

I have already anointed your feet, blessed your bodies, purified a part of your lives, and brought you even closer to the Heart of My Father, so that renewed by My Spirit, you will be able to survive in this transition that is approaching, which you should love, although you do not understand it or know it; for the world has to be purified, companions, so as to be able to incarnate a new humanity, and write a new story in the sacred books of Heaven, through this cenacle that we will live today and of this blessing that we will propagate for the bliss of all.

Lift up your intentions again so that My Father may hear them, and thus, in His infinite Mercy, contemplate all the needs of His children in the whole world.

You know, companions, that there are souls that suffer more than you at this planetary hour; that is why the work that you are all in must be continued, and not hesitate.

My Holy Mother has given you the foundations for carrying out these works, based on the integration of fraternity and in the union of the beings of the Earth that assemble in My Name to serve Me, and thus, serve My Father Who is in the Heavens.

Do not want anything for yourselves, but rather everything for others; in this way, you will find your freedom in the simple donation of things, and in the absolute expansion of the love of your hearts.

Oh, My friends! How I would like for many more to listen to Me, just as you listen to Me with your heart open, and with the preparation that I convey to you to live in the end of times.

Do not leave your spiritual work behind, never allow this. Walk with confidence toward My Heart and in this way, you will be able to live the spiritual renewal of your inner beings every day.

Now I will show you an example [1]:

This is the greatest secret of My Love for the world.

This is the perfect revelation of the Love of God for all of His creatures.

Who contemplates it will be saved.

Who internalizes it, finds the liberation of their spirit from all their forms.

Who loves the Most Holy relives My Passion and embraces it as their inner work.

This, companions, was what I surrendered for the twelve and for all of humanity.

On the material plane, I show you My Presence.

Happy are those who believe in it and live it permanently.

This is the portal through which you can pass every day and leave behind your mundane customs and habits to raise your spirits, which will free you.

Who crosses through this Holy Monstrance toward the Kingdom of God, will be strengthened and will never feel lost.

This is My expression of Love for the world, and I repeat it, so that you may feel it as real and pure.

Here is God present with all of His Consciousness, small and similar to you, alive and glowing, like the humble hearts.

This is the symbol of My Patriarchy, this is the emblem for My legions, for the adorers of Christ and of His Holy and Living Face.

This is food for the hungry.

It is the light for those who are in the darkness.

It is the solution for doubts, clarity for uncertainty, strength for those who are blind and cannot see Me.

Who will want to adore Me as the angels adore Me all of the time?

I Am not something unknown to you; that is why I incarnated in the world and I gave you the greatest testimony of God for all of humanity.

On Wednesday, after having lived My greatest agony for love and of having supported all the sins that until today the souls would commit out of ignorance and perdition, before the last supper, I withdrew into the silence of the heart.

I come, companions, to reveal to you this light that I Am, for all of the Universe; this saving symbol for souls that seek a way out and cannot find any truth on their path.

See the Son of God, resplendent in this Mystery, before His Passion on Friday.

How much love was reflected for each one of you in that time!, and which is still alive through hearts and of all the generations that live Christ within themselves.

This is the commitment of all the adorers who may want to assume the equilibrium of the planet and of humanity in their lives, in this time of chaos: to Adore the Blessed Body of their Master until the last days of the battle.

How much love there is to pour out through this Monstrance and this symbol of peace!

How many hearts could be alleviated, if you would only look at Me with simplicity and devotion!

I do not come to establish fanatic souls, but rather spirits in constant contemplation and elevation towards the high; living mirrors of God on the surface of the Earth that retransmit the Divine impulses of this holy symbol through their hearts: to be mirrors of peace, to be a light in the darkness and the gloom, to be lovers of My Merciful and Peaceful Heart.

Assume this legacy in your lives, because there are souls that have come to this world to fulfill this, My Will, of adoring Me all of the time.

At the table of the last supper I instituted this Principle of God in the world and for all creatures.

My Heart surrendered for you, and offered Itself like a great living eucharist of flesh, blood, and water, so that souls could be saved under the intercession of your Lord.

And today, companions, I impose here the blessing of the Most Holy Trinity on this archetype, this symbol of peace for the world.

Who walks behind it will be a spark for the world, glowing in the abysses.

Who lives for Christ will find peace and will never perish, when their trust is greater than their fears and all their tests.

Now, son, show the world what I Am.

Leave your aspirations deposited in this symbol; in truth, I will never abandon you, because who is in Me fears nothing and will have eternal life.

I bless you, children, with My Light and with My Peace.

Rest your faces upon My shining Heart and feel the love that comforts you in this hour of surrender and of renunciation for the world.

You consecrated yourselves to Me, and I am pleased by that.

You said "yes" and I accept you, in imperfection and in immaturity, because I do not see your miseries, companions; I only see all that the world can give when it walks in transcendence and it confirms itself in the faith of serving God until the end.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

And even when I am present, I expect you to know how to contemplate Me in the continuance of your love and of your devotion for Me, because the only thing that I want, companions, is the redemption of your lives and the pacifying of your hearts, in you and in your fellow beings.

Let us lift to the Heavenly Father the offering for today, that My Merciful Heart welcomes, and feel the peace, only the peace of living in God.

"Who is in God, fears nothing.

Who is in God, does not retreat.

Who is in God, lives of the love of God,

This is the strength of today.

In God, in God, in God." Amen (x3)

Incense.

In the offering of the incense, companions is found the purification of the spirit and the soul, and of each part of the bodies that align with the light to be uplifted.

Water.

The water is the symbol of the purification of all matter; it is the chastity of God manifested through this sacred element; it is the baptism for all those who must be renewed.

Oil.

In the oil is found the remedy for the sick in spirit, the renewal by means of Grace, and the sacred objects that trace the upliftment of souls through contemplation and adoration, are the perfect connection for beings.

I institute the code of My Divine Blood.

Through My Body I institute the essence of My glorified Soul.

Second day of intentions blessed by My Spirit.

The Our Father is recited in Aramaic and some intentions are read and answered.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

At the request of Christ and for all these intentions, we will listen to "Páter Noster"

[1] Friar Elías asks for the Monstrance to be brought.
