APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS DURING THE 36th MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY, IN THE CITY OF FATIMA, PORTUGAL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Prayer of the angel of Peace

My God, I believe in You... (x3)

Commune of Me in this moment and adore the Almighty, because He is attentive to the voice of all pleas.

I have come again in My Glory to bless you, for the hour of this great meeting has come for each one of your spirits and the spirits of your brothers and sisters, that also make an appeal for this moment of being united with My Heart in this evolutionary proposal to concretize the Plan of God, in these times of Armageddon.

Today I come with the Glory of the Father and of the Holy Spirit, as the manifestation of the Firstborn Son, so that in this way, you may recover your filiation with God; and the world also recover its spirituality, which has been lost because of the wars.

Today I come to establish the second protocol of My Peace here, in union with Universal Creation, that governs all these things, of which I avail Myself to accomplish the Works of My Father; which are also your works, yours, My apostles.

Today I come in the silence, perceiving humanity and its great need for love, for these critical times. Thus, your effort must be permanent so that My Work may be realized in the world and in this humanity.

Each one has their role in this time. Each one fulfills a part of this Plan. All the pieces of this Plan are important so that the Work may be concretized.

In the depths of My Heart, I know that many pieces are still missing in order to be part of this Universal Plan, which invites us to elevate the consciousness and to get out of the superficiality in which humanity has placed itself, forgetting the Love of God.

This Plan is governed by the Love of God. Just as Love governs all Universes, so does Love govern your consciousness, governs all of Creation, all that is life and manifestation in this material Universe.

You are part of this, companions, of a greater command that you are invited to participate in; it is not a command like that of the Earth, which is governed by weak people who seek your property, war, and a separation among souls.

The command of which I speak, My friends, is the command of My Heart, from where all the Rays of Mercy blossom, where all the souls that spiritually assemble with Me are born so as to serve the end of the times.

You are part of that reality and each one of you is positioned within this Work. Each action you perform within this Work is important, just as is the discernment in it.

Everything is a part of a spiritual science that I am inviting you to live in an unknown way, because it is still not in your consciousnesses; but it can be in your hearts when they vibrate with Mine, in this Work of Redemption and of Peace in all of humanity.

The Plan is coordinated in these times according to the need of this Universe, of all the humanities that form part of this material creation. From there come all the Laws, in which all creatures are governed according to a greater principle, according to the Law of Love and of Unity with God.

Who is outside of this Principle, cannot be a part of this material Universe either in spirit, in soul, or in body, because they will be out of the Law.

Humanity is at this point, outside of the true reality for which it was created in the Beginning of Genesis to carry out the Work of God; to concretize this human project based on Love, on Truth, and on Unity, which very few live throughout time.

This led, My companions, to the determination of the Celestial Father and of His holy archangels that I, the Christ, the Firstborn Son, born from the Heart of the Celestial Father, from the Greater Source, should incarnate among you in order to save you and guide you, to remind you of the Laws of the Universe through simple parables that all hearts can understand.

Relive My Message, My Gospel, the New Testament, and also unite it with this New Testament, with this New Message that I give to the world today, and to all the messages that I have already given you, so that your lives may be redeemed under the Principle of My Merciful Love.

I came to the world and very few understood what it was I did. Only as time went by were many holy consciousnesses and souls inspired by My Christianity able to access My Principle of Love and of Unity.

They were re-transmitters of My Universal Love for the world; just as you, companions, who in this definitive hour, within this Plan that summons you, are called to radiate the Love of God to the world, not forgetting first that among you, you must be thoroughly united so that this may happen; otherwise, everything would be a failure.

That is why I come to tell you in this Marathon that you must seek your truth above all mistakes and successes, learnings and tests, challenges, calamities, or sorrows.

Above all things, I come to give you the Principle of My Truth, which is based on the Love of God, in which you can enter in consciousness to discover your true purpose, which you must accomplish in this hour, in honor of My Sacred Heart.

That is why I came in the past and came throughout the times, performing miracles and wonders, testimonies and healings, so that all could believe that I Am the Christ, the Son of God, Who prepares for His Return in this acute hour of the planet, in which souls must find the spiritual meaning of their lives, the path to reconciliation and forgiveness, which you have lost among your peers.

I come to unite the times: the time in which you live and the real time of the Universe.

I come to draw you closer to the true dimension of things, through all the Spiritual Hierarchies and all the angels that cooperate in this Work of Redemption and of Peace.

I come to open the doors to a unique and definitive opportunity that souls will have in this last hour; a chance to cross the threshold, to cross the portal toward My Heart, to recognize your own truth, your real spiritual constitution for which you were created in the image and likeness of the Creator.

Humanity will not be able to self-destruct, and although it leads to that every day, the Divine Messengers are at the service of the Plan, just as you must be at the service of God; you must banish from the world this destructive idea of taking faith away from hearts, of extinguishing love in hearts, of causing the world to suffer.

That is why I came here to show you the origin, your true filiation with God, with the Most High, that is hurt by the sins of the world, by the war and the persecution among brothers and sisters.

As My Mother said in Fatima, in this hour I come to bring you a short time of peace, so that the majority of souls may enter the Kingdom of God and not lose the Grace of being redeemed.

I bring you an awareness of the Plan, because it must be well understood; but first loved, to then be understood in each human heart that opens to this infinite Mystery of Love.

I unite consciousnesses when consciousnesses truly unite with Me, not wanting anything for themselves, but rather all the greater good for the world, for those who most need to find salvation, just as you have found it.

That is why this Meeting with Me, companions, is unique and in a short time will not be repeated again, because the world must be purified completely, within and outside of beings.

That purification will be intense, but the heart that trusts in Me will not perish.

I will give you a renewal, the strength to be able to bear your purification. For who loves Me is protected by Me when they are sincere in their thought, in their feeling and action.

This is the truth that I want you to live for those who do not live it, for those who hide it because of being blind to themselves and far from God, although believing that they are not.

That is why I show you, companions, My true Spiritual Church, that does not live in this world, but rather in the heart of those who seek it in an intimate union with god, with the Father, with the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

My Spiritual Church is expanded throughout the world in that Most Holy Trinity, in the inner temples of souls; because it will be your little inner church that will merge with Mine to form the new pillars of the New Race.

I will bless and consecrate the elements. Just as on this day I will bless them again at the request of My Celestial Father, through My sublime Grace.

I will pour out the Graces of My Glorified Heart for those who know to contemplate them in humility and love.

Let us praise the Father Who is in the Heavens. It is the Creator Who has sent Me to save the world from its complete ignorance and incapacity to love.

My apostles, servants of My Divine Mercy, leave this inner sanctuary loving one another. Remember that Law, for who loves in truth will not be in the claws of My adversary.

The beast fears Love and consequently, all those who follow It.

My Heart is the Power of God made manifest in each part of the Earth. Venerate My Glory, disseminate My Mercy, and everything will be accomplished.

I have come with My angels of the Universe. Solar Governors of the Celestial Universe that know your souls and the origin of your spirits, and who bring you awareness in this moment, the sacred opportunity of being able to awaken to the Science of the Universe based on the Love of God, on His infinite Unity.

As the angels sing to Adonai, proclaiming His Wisdom in this material Universe, that is how I want your voices to sing, proclaiming to the Father, to the Regent of this Creation, to the One Who loves you from the beginning.

Kodoish...

Prayer: Most Holy Heart of Christ...

All stand.

When the Sacraments are blessed, souls win; not like the prize that the world knows, but rather like the Supreme Grace of God, which descends over consciousnesses so that they may be able to take a new step.

This is the real meaning of those who receive the Sacraments, to be renewed by the Love and the Unity of God, and to find the path, the true path of their purpose for this life, the realization of the Work of God in each human heart, in each soul that assembles in order to serve Me.

My Sacred Heart is ennobled by being here and It expands in Love for all.

My Mother grants these opportunities for all, because She intercedes for each being that cries out from their heart for the Grace of Her Beloved Son.

You are graced on this special day and I thank you for accompanying Me in this eternal Communion with Me for the triumph of the Plan.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Thank You, Lord, for all that You give us!
