

Tuesday, May 5, 2015

APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, IN BRASILIA, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN, DURING THE 22nd MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

Listen to My Voice, lost flocks of the world. The Star is approaching the horizon. The great Sun of the universe is drawing closer to humanity to rescue souls, free them from perdition and find in each of them the new dwelling place of God.

Adonai is your Father from the Heights. He is unknown to humanity; from His essence comes Love, Unity and Truth, from which souls can be nurtured spiritually.

I come to remove you from superficial life so that you may find Adonai again. He hopes to find you awake, brave and available when His beloved Son returns to the world.

Through the Light of Adonai, I come to anoint you with My Hands so that you may be blessed by the Spirit of God, may repent and be healed, be freed from all evils and find again the path to redemption.

Adonai hopes to find you awake, for He wishes to have His Works descend through your hearts. Thus, He again sends His Son in a spirit of omnipresence and of truth, so that souls may recognize the sublime Light, feed their spirits again with the Goodness of God, with the principle of His immaculate Love, which will always nurture you and never leave you alone.

Adonai waits for you. Wake up, My flocks! Take the tasks that I give you today. There is much to do for this humanity. I not only need your word, but also your hands to express the love of charity. In this way, companions, you will be fulfilling the principle of fraternity.

Work, companions, in spite of tiredness, work. My Spirit will always comfort you. I can restore all things when you simply allow Me to.

I invite you, My beloveds, in the name of Adonai, to free your inner controls so that the new spirit be forged and be born, renewed by the Presence of Adonai.

His supreme Light comes from the profound Light. That is the principle of Love, which nurtures all universes. Seek the Fount of Adonai; in this way, you will be able to free yourselves from your ties.

Do not waste time any longer, companions, with superficial things. Just as I told you during the Sacred Week, be renewed through My Spirit, at this hour which marks the culminating moment of humanity, the coming of the end and the beginning of the New Humanity.

Thus, prepare your hearts. Isolate your lives from all superficiality. I need to find you in love and in truth, with your hands in prayer and in the works of God.

And in the same way that the missionaries of peace did, freeing their hearts through service and surrender, My infinite Mercy was able to descend into the heart of Africa. But now, I come to this part of the world to awaken the sleeping flocks again.

I bring you the firmness of the New Humanity; the unknown Spirit for this Earth; the great Spirit that comes from Adonai, who renews all things and all forms, who brings hope, joy and Mercy for sinning souls.

I invite you to repentance, thus, your families will also repent. And this spirit of repentance, which is a principle of redemption and of rehabilitation, will expand throughout humanity so it may truly recognize that it must above all things ask God for forgiveness. In this way, you will enter into the philosophy of My Heart and new gifts will awaken in your essences.

Your paths will be freed from ties and on your pathways, there will no longer be stones, but rather a path of redemption and of peace that I come to rebuild in the dwelling place of your hearts.

I give you the Strength of Adonai. I give you the Love of Adonai. I give you His profound Unity so that you may be renewed and be prepared in time for what will come to humanity.

Just as I was in Africa, announcing My Return, I come to meet with you, companions, seeking the apostles of Love, those who will define themselves by transforming themselves, achieving purification to live in transcendence; thus in their own life they will find the path of Light that will take them to Adonai, and allow them to find again the mission they have lost in all this material life.

My Spirit is invisible, but remember that I have already been among you, ascended to the Heavens, returned to the Dwelling Place of God. I am living in the Universe of God, but I will return from that Kingdom to bring redemption and liberation to humanity, and together with the Archangels of Adonai, we will banish evil from this humanity, which subjects the evolution of spirits and carries all souls toward the abysses of the Earth.

But in this hour of Mercy, in which My true Government and the sovereignty of Adonai are expressed, I pour out the Laws of God upon you, reminding you of the Commandments, which are extremely forgotten. Nobody shows any interest in any of them, and thus souls are lost, simply because of being involved in material life.

From the beginning of Creation, if you had lived the Laws of the Creator, the world would already be non-material and your consciousnesses would be in other worlds, experiencing the great universal fraternity, the principle of redemption for this local universe.

Light the stars of your hearts. Your inner Christs are calling you. Awaken from this illusion and look up at the skies. See in your inner worlds the codes that are poured out by My merciful Hands.

When I see you transformed, without fearing anything, without holding any fear, I will be able to say, companions, that it will have been worth it to be here, among you, giving you and bringing you My time before the great need of this humanity, which is submerged in modernity, distances itself from God and divides the union with the Divinity through looking for other unions that do not come from Adonai.

Study My Words, read My Messages, in these are placed the keys for the preparation. Step away from normality, seek always the life in spirit. Let your own prayer uplift you, so that you may find the path again toward infinity, and thus distance yourselves from this world of illusion that moves toward the perdition of all souls.

But in this hour, I come to ignite that which is held within you, the manifested Temple of God that waits to be re-ignited to find again the path of perfect communion with God that it has lost.

My divine Justice is unknown. Thus, in this hour, avail yourselves of My Mercy.

The time is announcing a great change. Thus, be awake and watch with Me in the constant prayer of the heart.

In the Kingdom of My Father, I receive the offerings of this sacred Communion so that hearts may be purified, souls may be freed from all stains, and in this definitive hour, you may find the spring of My Grace, a Grace that will save you, a Grace that will redeem you, a Grace that will give you My Mercy.

Today I am here with you, but also with all My children of Brazil, especially with those that live in the north of this country.

In truth, I tell you that who is with Me feels no separation, because the fusion with My Spirit is invincible and the perfect union that I bring you resides in the Love of My Heart.

Through your prayers, just as I requested in Rwanda, bring the true Justice of God and do not be confused by the things of this world.

The true Justice of God is found in the temperance of My Heart. If you seek My merciful Heart, you will lose nothing, you will be more just and free, wondrous and kind, for in this way, I will have achieved the transformation of your lives.

Let us consecrate in the name of Adonai.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Let us repeat:

*Praise be to God,
glorious His Kingdom.
Hallelujah! Hallelujah!*

Carry My Presence in your hearts, because through My Heart, the existence of Adonai is expressed.

Prayer: Our Father (in Aramaic)

Song: Adonai, Holy Spirit.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Brothers and sisters, we want to say goodbye to everybody by telling a little story about the Apparition of Christ.

Today He brought Adonai in His Presence. And how could we understand that experience?

He was surrounded by the Light of God and it seemed that God spoke through His Word. He manifested Himself with great Majesty, like a sovereign King that rules this and other universes.

Through His Word and His Presence, He manifested the Law of God. And synthetically, He was inviting us, on this day, to remember the Laws of God and to seek that union with the Laws through our prayer.

Christ knows that for us, the Laws are unknown, but He needs us to unite with God so as to be able to live in His Law.

He was inviting us on this day to correct humanity, to spiritually educate ourselves again, basically remembering the Commandments of Moses.

And today He was also telling us that they are basic and primary Laws for this humanity. And those Laws are not being obeyed, Christ said, and nor are other Laws.

For this reason, Christ was inviting us to repent on this day. There is something inside us, said the Master, that must go through a process of forgiveness. And that forgiveness will occur through our acceptance to live redemption.

He is warning us about the events of the end of times, but He does not come to cause us fear, but rather to bring us His Mercy.

He says it is important that we also remember what He said in Rwanda many years ago, and that many did not hear either.

Again on this day, He invites us to remember His Message through all the instructions He has given over the last three years. The Master says that, in spite of Him seeming to always say the same thing to us, He always tries to remind us of what we should be paying attention to, because from that, we will be able to experience other new things. In essence, He says that our life is renewed there, when we follow the Laws through prayer, by means of acts of service and of charity, of paying attention to fellow beings. And as a consequence, the Master says that our life will be redeemed little by little.

But He knows that the majority of humanity does not want to pay attention to these things. He sees that humanity is walking towards other places. His Heart is distressed because He can do things up to a certain point, He can help up to a certain point.

For this reason, He needs our prayers, our inner adherence, that we basically do what He asks of us in a simple and humble way. He says that in this way we will be helping Him to fulfill the Plan that God has foreseen for this time.

Through this Message that Christ left us today and this story that He asked us to tell, we want to leave this reflection to everybody. And as He asked of us, we invite you to listen to His Message again, to read and reflect on His words, because in these things we will simply find the Light that we are seeking for our paths.

We leave a greeting of peace with you all and we invite you to think of Jesus tonight.

Thank You, Lord, for all that You give us!