

Sunday, January 4, 2015

Special Message of the Glorified Christ Jesus, transmitted in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandu, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

In this end time, remember My Words of Light and hold on tight to Me so that My Love may dispel the confusing ideas of evil.

Thus, I ask that each day you trust in Me a little more and that you remember these last moments of love which, in My Celestial Glory, you have shared with Me.

Do not delay, time is going by and My sidereal bell tower is calling the last sheep before the time of Divine Justice comes.

Decide to surrender. My absolute confidence has descended upon your being. And in all of this precious mystery is held My Love for souls.

Thus, with resolve and emptiness of your own will and expectations, focus your attention on what I tell you, for you have the supreme Grace of being worthy of My Father and of receiving My infinite Mercy every day.

If you walk toward Me, the darkness of the pathway will not touch you or embrace you.

Be intelligent and decide to seek the things that come from My Will. In this way, you will know what correct path to follow and you will be free, by My Grace, of your peers being lost.

Open your heart, for you still have not done so. To open your heart to Me means to constantly renounce your own desires. Take care of yourself more than your opponents. The pure pathway is built based on the perfect unity you establish with My Kingdom.

Throughout time, I have given you My Peace and My Mercy. Be thankful and good. Listen to My Words through your brothers and sisters.

Remember that I am present in tabernacles and in all the praying temples of beings. If you still have not recognized My wise and pure Will, today I show it to you, and this is My spiritual petition: follow Me and renounce your projects.

I Am the only portal to salvation and redemption of your tiny terrestrial life.

It is no longer the time or the moment for your feet to be in two boats. Stop being shipwrecked in your own world and humbly recognize Who has come to call you and redeem you.

When you open your little heart, you will already be loving the things of Heaven. While you look for your own fulfillment, for Me you will only be a part of the sin of this cruel world.

Be resigned and implore for My Mercy. The Tablets of the Law are already at the Feet of the Creator and they will soon be revealed by the celestial choirs before My Return.

I have come for a long time and so many days, so that one day, you can give up and unite with the spirit of My holy Humility.

May this merciful Marathon, after so many have been done, be the moment that every being reconsiders because of all that they have received directly from My Sacred Heart of Light.

When you have reconsidered, meditating on My Passion, I assure you that you will realize all that I have told you in the name of God.

Pray and seek nothing but to pray. Ask forgiveness for your immense pride and decide, now and always, to be worthy of the Lord.

I thank you for your gesture of humility and reverence.

Under the infinite forgiveness of God, be blessed.

Thank you to those who adore Me from their heart, in the Most Holy Body of Christ.

Your Master, Christ Jesus