Special Message of the Glorified Christ Jesus, transmitted in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandu, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón, for the 25th Marathon of Divine Mercy

Today I have come to the world for the second time in Glory so that you may know it, so that you may come to know the power of My Grace.

Before your hearts is the Throne of God, happy are those who enter It with humility in their heart.

Now listen to My Words.

Two years ago, in this simple place, I asked you to gather in My Holy Name, to pray the Chaplet of My Divine Mercy for two days.

The souls that followed Me and the ones that did not follow Me gradually gathered together as My new flock to respond thus to My Requests.

Over the course of these months, your lives have come to know the powers of prayer, have found the real meaning of life in faith, and transmitted this spiritual invitation of brotherhood to those who did not know Jesus or His unfathomable Mercy.

Then, you were called to participate in a perfect and repairing union through My Blood. You prayed each of the beads of the Chaplet by My side and placed your hope in the merciful ocean of My Heart.

Later, companions, you opened the doors of your hearts and your homes to make Me known, but perhaps you did not find great results nor deep changes. But know, My prayerful ones, that because of your faithfulness, I was among your own, and so My Heart began to shine in the consciousness of everybody. You came to know the true life of the spirit and, later on, became aware of each one of your debts.

In these moments, My Heart was among you to help you walk in the sacred confirmation of My Christic Path.

You fell and you stood up, abandoned Me and sought Me, again and again. You died many times through My redemption and rose from the tomb of this unfaithful world.

You became My disciples, became consecrated, and took Me to your families, to your work and friends; you called everybody so that they would return to My Heart. And in this way, through your merciful prayer, you humbly glorified Me.

Now that today you are again before your Guide and Shepherd of Love, have you seen the sacred results of this eternal fusion with My Love? Yes, many have seen them and will continue to see them. In this way, you will set aside your roots and will get out of this eternal captivity that physical life represents.

And so, children of My Father, now more awake, you are invited to meditate on your lives, you are called by Me to turn your hearts into temples worthy of the Lord, because the sign of My Return, for tomorrow, August 5 of this definitive year, will be present before your eyes.

I Am the risen Christ. I Am the ascended Christ. I Am the merciful Christ, and now I Am your glorified King, Who comes before everything happens, to remind you that you must not forget God in these times nor His Plans, which each one must accomplish in light of the Divine Universe.

Dear companions, extend your arms toward Me and take in My meek and peace-bringing Heart.

I come through this Marathon of prayer to reveal the power of My Glory to you, which is the next step after My Divine Mercy.

I leave you My Peace and I give you Peace.

I will not look at your debts, but rather at all you will be able to offer me during these next days.

Happy are those who will enter the Kingdom of God, for He will be open to all over this holy place.

Take up your missions and you will thus always please Me.

I summon you to joy and peace.

Be in Me during these days.

Under the Glory that comes from God, be blessed.

I thank you for having come here, to the meeting with My unfathomable Heart.

The Glorified Christ Jesus, before you and the whole world.
