APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS DURING THE 38th MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY, IN THE CITY OF BELO HORIZONTE, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

May evil disappear from this place, in the name of the Almighty and of His angelic legions!

May the Light descend to Earth and may hearts recognize the Purpose of God, for it is the time of the self-summoned, of the 144,000!

My Heart is present here again and all My Divine Consciousness, which is part of God, manifests before you to have you know the Will of the Father in each one of your lives.

I establish My Kingdom here, and in it no adversity may dwell, because the Plan will be accomplished in all inner hearts through My blessing, by the authority granted to Me by God, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Praised be the Father, companions, Who at this time gathers His smallest sheep so that they may return, after having been lost in the world with nothing to drink and nowhere to graze, to the stable of My Heart; because in My Kingdom exists providence and souls do not feel thirst eternally nor do they feel hunger of spirit perpetually.

Do you know what that means? That the Father may gather you together again so that you may remember Him through His Son, His Glory and His Mercy, which allows, in this time, this reality.

I come to call the chosen with the luminous Finger of God, Who with infinite Love and Mercy comes to rescue the fallen and to withdraw millions of consciousnesses from the abysses.

Thus, I reveal to you the power of My Divine Mercy, of My Grace, and of My wholeness for all those who are Mine.

Yesterday, I told you that I am more than the Sun. Today I tell you, companions, that I am more than a Divinity.

Because if the Son of God is in the Father, the Eternal Father will be in His beloved Son. And if you are in the Son of God, in the depths of His Most Sacred Heart, you will also be in the Father and the Father will be with you, in spite of what may happen.

Strengthen your trust in the Creator, companions, and deny the modernity of these times. Souls are hypnotized and are profoundly blind, they cannot manage to see My Path of Light.

Again and again, from time to time, I knock on the door of your hearts to call you to this sacred task of sharing the time of redemption with Me.

Redemption is a profound essence still very unknown to the world. A small sign of it has already been shown through the Passion of your Lord, when for you I suffered all the martyrdoms, all the sins, all the unconsciousness of humanity, through the agony, Calvary and death. And so I reveal to you, companions, that Redemption is something deeper, for it is based on the essence of Love and of Unity that all beings can live in these end times.

The Redemption of your lives has steps. They are steps of Light which you are invited to ascend, little by little, until finding My Glorious Kingdom, which does not belong to this world.

Thus, I uplift your consciousnesses to other realities, withdrawing them from material life and opening your hearts to what is real and profound.

Through prayer, companions, build the first base of Redemption.

But there are more bases existing that you must build on this path of prayer, on this spiritual path of consecration which you are invited to journey on to get out of the illusion of the world.

Little by little your lives will transform. When you accept My Summoning, you will be accepting the Will of God and My Heart will be glorified in the Father, because His children are glorified in My Heart.

And I will ignite in God so that My Divine Spirit may descend to Earth, to rescue the last who remain in this transition, which still has not ended; a transition unknown to you called purification. A mysterious transition that is discovered, is revealed to the hearts that are simple, without fear and without deceit.

For this reason, companions, I offered you the Cross, a teraphim, a sacred symbol, perpetual and eternal.

I offered you My Mother, so that you could accept Her as your Guide and Governor. She unites you with God through Her humble Heart.

And if your hearts are humble, you will be in My Mother, My Mother will be in God and all will be in the Father, in perfect unity.

It is unity, companions, that you cannot lose. Unity will be the key for going through the transition.

Humanity does not know about being united; it only knows to be divided all the time and throughout time.

Through My Gospel, I taught you how you should love one another. This rule is in force, companions, because that love will protect you from yourselves when you sacrifice yourselves for your peers and your peers will sacrifice themselves for you.

In this way, you create a real spiritual family, regardless of blood, genetic, or human relationship. Because the real family is the one that lives in the Heart of the Father, and vivifies Him all the time, seeking to please Him with the emanation of love and of unity present in each one of you.

For the first time, I come to teach all those present the basic Laws of God that are kept in the Commandments, which are completely forgotten by all of humanity.

If the Commandments had been accurately fulfilled, it would not be necessary to live the transition.

That is why I came to the world and incarnated among you, to show you the true Message of God; through the incarnation of the Beloved Son, the Love of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit was manifested, something that very few learned.

But you are still in time, before this transition arrives on the planet in which the straw will be separated from the wheat, and that will be inevitable, companions.

You know the world is wrong, is immersed in its adversity, in its profound darkness and blindness. And while evil things continue in this world, I will reinforce the merciful spirits so that they may serve in this Plan of Love, which must be accomplished in the human consciousness and then in material life.

I will do everything possible, companions, so that you may walk with firmness and with valor. That is why I am with you and among you today to teach you to truly love from the heart, so that you set aside your bindings and the errors from the past, and so that through this meeting you may leave renewed by a true and sincere commitment of your hearts with Me.

In this way, beloved friends, I give you a sacred task, which is not material, but rather non-material.

Your spirits know that this exists and that it is not an analogy.

My task in the world is concrete and visible. You have seen My Holy Church, My true and celestial church, rise up in the humble hearts of the faithful and religious people.

It is this Church that I lift up to God every day, so that the Father may contemplate it in wholeness with His Merciful and Compassionate Eyes.

It is this Church that the Father comes to seek in you with your action of service, of charity, of love, and of prayer.

It is this inner Church which will never be broken.

Remain in stillness while I speak, for the celestial and universal Church of the Spiritual Kingdom is visible at this moment for your souls. Enter into contemplation and do not lose this moment. Let inertia not be stronger than devotion.

Let indifference not be stronger than compassion.

May we always be in Unity and in Love, so that the celestial Church may continue to descend.

In the past, I gave My apostles and all of you a message that you did not understand.

When I said that in Peter I would found My Church, it was that in him and in his brothers and sisters the celestial church was to be founded, in each human heart, and not in material life.

But I avail Myself of all the faithful, because in them My Light may be present.

I come to have your inner worlds understand something that you never see, because you always look outward and forget about your inner universe, where the true wealth is, the story of your origin, of all of your existence in the center of your hearts.

My Celestial Church is in the depths of your souls, which I expect you to worship when your King enters into it, just as I enter in you at this moment, when you open to Me in humility and devotion.

May this divine Fire that you have received during these days never go out. Be renewing flames that can ignite other flames that are darkening on their own.

Carry these celestial and divine impulses to the precarious consciousness of the planet, to each place you go, where the Peace and the Love of God is needed.

Be united among yourselves and your families. Religiously renew the vows of the Sacred Family with all of your loved ones.

That the misunderstandings, the indifferences, the judgements, and the evils disappear from the bosom of your families. Thus, I invite you to be a little more merciful.

You, companions, on this sacred day in which My Mercy is made present, receive more awareness of the true reality.

Your blindness disappears, your hearts open and understand the Infinite Mystery of the Universal King; your inner churches emerge, all the temples of your hearts become sacred, having pronounced and invoked My Divine Mercy in these days.

This is how I always hope to see you, companions, in the next meetings, irrespective of where you are from and that I cannot be with you; because if you are united to My Heart, I will be with you. You know that this is true and that it is not far away from anyone.

Then live, companions, this practice of unity with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. You will thus allow the whole Earth to not suffer the consequences of its own faults.

Have My Divine Mercy be known in the world, just as Saint Faustina did.

Be apostles, ambassadors, and servants of My Divine Mercy. In the simplicity of your prayers and the love of your services, transmit all the codes of My Light.

Take to your fellow beings and to the Kingdoms of Nature the help they need. See with different eyes, with eyes of Mercy, the true planetary need.

Grow in love and in devotion, and you will always reach the Heavens. The angels will lift you up and you will enter the Kingdom of God in absolute awareness, to worship with them this celestial moment.

The doors of the Universe are opening, the spirits of all are summoned to form the lines of the Plan and ignite the Solar Light of My Heart in your breasts.

Let hearts be happy. Let souls become peaceful. Let errors be erased. May the Mercy of God be established and all be blessed in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

You will live the Sacraments again to renew your consciousnesses with the Gifts of God that are kept in them.

Do this for your peers, for all of the planet and for the Universe, which contemplates this moment in omnipresence.

Let each Sacrament be an opportunity for forgiveness, so that your souls do not make the same mistakes, and with more attention and vigilance, you accomplish My Will and protect your paths from My adversary.

The last battle has still not come, in which the Archangel Gabriel will perform His defining Judgement in the face of the great fallen angel and all its armies, those which do not live in the Love of God.

That hour is coming. For this reason, I prepare your hearts, time after time, and meeting after meeting, so that in that moment you know what to do and where to be.

Do not seek to understand how it will happen. Love the unknown and divine life, and you will be true beings of the Light, in the simplicity of heart living the Supreme Will of God.

Just as I will bless the Sacraments, I will bless you and all the family members that you place at the foot of My Altar, in the silence of the heart, in the profound prayer of your souls.

Know that you are being graced by the divine Light of the Father, Who in His divine Mercy manifests this Grace for a humanity that does not deserve it but receives it, when the Father observes in His creatures the effort of wanting to change.

Change a little every day and you will not lose the battle. Because those who are with Me live the hardest paths and even though they do not understand, on experiencing the sacrifice and the surrender, after everything, by My Holy Hand they are victorious.

In this way, the Law of God and the Plan are fulfilled. Each one has the opportunity of consecrating themselves to My Heart.

I need you to put yourselves in a place where, in truth, you can give Me everything.

I Am the Sacred Heart, the Source of the inexplicable wonders, which manifests from time to time in redeemed hearts.

I am happy to see your efforts and the concretization of this sacred task in this city, with whole servants that can still give a little more and that have testified to My Heart that they truly love the Plan, beyond themselves. This is very important for the Father, in such imperfect creatures, where the Work of God is realized through the hands that give of themselves and through the feet that dare to walk toward the Light, the infinite and unknown Light of the Universe. Thus is established in these serving souls the possibility of perpetually adoring Me and of recognizing Me in a fellow being.

I call My angels here so that they may transubstantiate the elements and your bodies, in honor of God and the triumph of His Love on this planet.

Divine Hierarchy of angels and archangels... (x3)

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

The Master asks for thirteen bell strokes.

Creator Parents descend and resplendent beings draw near, to venerate the Son of God and all His creatures that respond to Him, manifesting the Glory of God and His Work on this planet.

Glory, Glory in the Highest and Peace on Earth to all the beings of goodwill.

While I am present, companions, make an offering to God so that it may be placed in My Merciful Heart and be accomplished according to the Will of My Father.

Offer what you still have not given Me and dare to take a step toward that final summoning.

So be it.

Here I give you the example of My most beloved and ancient disciples, that in the silence of the heart and in the work of permanent service, have built the foundations of fraternity and unity among consciousnesses.

Into the hands of My beloved servants I placed many Graces, which allowed the manifestation of the Plan of God in the part that your group is responsible for, in the islands of salvation and in the nuclei of love.

Thus I again establish these principles, now in a new time, in which all My servants accompany Me to prepare for My coming, My awaited coming to the world.

Again I give you My Body and My Blood, so that you remember Me, when you were with Me in that time, walking in the lands of the Holy Land, accompanying Me in the Gospel and in the Word, serving your King in prayer and in the silence, in the contemplation of My Heart, which in that time was already Glorified.

Thus I show you, My companions, the Order of My Universal Service, formed by all My apostles of the new time that have come, in this cycle, to serve Me.

Today I am here with you, as in Emmaus, when after having resurrected I appeared to shepherds similar to you, on a night of stars and moon, at the foot of the fire.

I took the bread, now with My Body already transfigured and glorified, I broke it in two and I said to the shepherds:

Eat, this is My Body that always lived among you and will live forever, for all eternity.

Commune with the Master of Love and of Forgiveness, for your hearts will be glad because the day of His Mercy has come.

I bless these elements for the deep healing of souls and the redemption of hearts, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

And before saying goodbye, companions, with the deepest affection of My Spirit for each one of you, I want to thank you, because My Redemptive Work of the end of times was accomplished once again, through the hands and the arms that served Me in a profound giving of self.

May ardent devotion interpenetrate you and illumine the end of times and your paths forever.

I wish to rise up to Heaven with My angels, that play harps and violins, with their trumpets announcing the coming of the Universal King on the day so awaited by all.

I wish to hear your song of Hallelujah.

I want you to stand up and thank God for this Work, which with all of His creatures, unites Heaven and Earth.

May this Marathon remain engraved on your hearts. May you always be able to remember it as an impulse to step out of tests and of all adversity, for who is in Me will fear nothing.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
