Weekly Message of Christ Jesus, transmitted in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandu, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías

The precious souls of My Heart are those I rescue and lift straight to the Heart of My Father. The precious souls are the simple people that honestly contemplate Me and glorify My Name every day.

Today I wish to say to all precious souls: thank you!, infinite thanks for truly trying to alleviate My flagellated Heart. In this way, My work is accomplished in the whole world through the help of all the groups of souls that, in critical times, follow My redeeming Path.

On Earth, God manifested certain groups of souls that, being immature and imperfect, fragile like the crystal of a cup, were assembled by Me.

In all of them, I pour out My Christic gifts and fulfill My designs through their essences.

Now that many souls are captivated by the benefits the world promises them, My Divine and unfathomable Mercy seeks the souls ready to follow and to live My Commandments, to be loving, helpful, meek and peacemakers in all the places they go.

I want and I wish to have souls that, in this time, will be a true testimony for planetary life. If you imitate My simple example of a peacemaker, the world could change many things. Day and night, I need living examples of brotherhood and of fraternity.

The great Agriculturist of Heaven has already plowed the earth to sow new seeds that will give divine fruit and food to other hearts. I ardently hope to harvest the best fruits from these seeds, for you know that today, My Divine Grace is among you, while a large part of the world is dying in the spiritual life because it cannot find the Light.

I want you to define yourselves so that you may be visible sparks of My Divine Mercy; in this way, the world will be able to heal. Call Me, invoke My Sacred Name, saying:

"Lord Jesus,
enter my little life
and make my existence
Your spring of life.

Come Lord Jesus,
stay among us,
so that we may feel
the Love of Your powerful Heart!
Amen"

That is why your 'yes' will define the events. I need you, now and always, unto eternity.

Under the Love that comes from the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for living in My eternal Heart of Love!

Christ Jesus
