APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS DURING THE SACRED WEEK IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Today the consecrated Holy Mothers are to come here and bow down before My Altar.

Like the Holy Women of Jerusalem, I will give you My Legacy for this definitive time.

Bow down and together with My Most Holy Mother, who today has come with Me, experience the Eternal Communion, so that we may celebrate this ceremony together with you.

Those who can, kneel on the ground, like the angels, at least for some time; in this way, you will enter into the Universe of My Heart to participate in this Eucharist that I come again to renew on this Holy Thursday.

I want the Holy Mothers to have a lit candle with which to adore Me, just like they did yesterday in union with My Heart of Light.

Today the Cenacle is being established in this place, the Spiritual Cenacle that conceived and allowed the manifestation of Holy Communion, through My Body and My Blood in the bread and the wine.

Happy are those who know how to celebrate this, who repent and humble themselves before the Master of Masters; because they may be new consciousnesses, souls in rehabilitation and peace, spirits assembled by Me from different points of the Universe that will carry My banner of Peace, just as My Glorified Heart is carried for the four corners of the Earth.

Be happy and live My eternal Communion, the renewal of your vows in the Plan of the Creator in the face of a time of crises.

Before lighting the candles, I wish to bless them so that they may be purified, for My Spirit lives in purity, just as I introduce you all in My Spirit of Peace, so that you work your sublimation.

I am preparing a ceremony for you. Pay attention to what I do, because it is unique to this time and for all the hearts of the Earth.

We will renew this sacred table with offerings you have made to Me, from your hearts to Mine.

Be in adoration as My Mother is, prostrated at My Feet, praying for the world in Her Magnificent Saintliness.

Blessed water, please...

Follow the instructions that I am giving you so that the Ceremony be perfect, in Heaven as on Earth, in your souls as in your bodies, in this institution that I carry out of the Codes of My Light in each one of the elements.

The Mothers come here, please...

With this candle that I give you, you will pray for thirteen days after Easter, so that My Heart may be glorified further in the world, especially for the souls that should awaken and that are lost.

You will do so together with My Mother, each time that you light this candle, to commemorate My Merciful Heart. You will do it especially for those, your spiritual children, who must be cared for by your motherhood, just as My Mother cares for all Her children until the end of times.

Dear Mothers, give this testimony of perseverance and of love, so that your children may walk just like you walk.

Now stand in a semi-circle from one end of the table to the other.

Each one, within herself, will emit an offering to My Heart, for humanity, which I will wholly take in, so that it may be transformed by My Mercy and by My Peace.

I listen to you in the silence.

Place your left hand over your heart, Mothers, and emit that petition to your Celestial Husband.

Before the Divinity of Mary, merge with My Heart and reestablish My Legacy in the world for all the creatures that you may come across on your paths and that need much help to bear the transition.

Just as I gathered together the twelve in the Cenacle, I gathered together the Women of Jerusalem, in the Spiritual Communion with My Body and My Divine Blood.

Gathered with Mary, they all communed and prepared to face the Passion of your Lord and thus helped Me to bear the cruelties of the world, the injustices of humankind, and the omission of hearts, phases that you may experience in these times, Mothers. But in the wholeness of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, your Governor and Commander will overcome everything through the extremely powerful Fire of Love and of Peace, in Forgiveness and Mercy.

Now, behind the Mothers will be the priests so that they may celebrate together with Me this Eucharistic renewal.

Do everything harmoniously, because I am gifting a special time for you and for the world, one of great importance for this place.

When the priests are ready, I will be able to continue with this celebration and this Cenacle.

Bring the incense and the blessed water to Me again, so that I may purify this table.

Now companions, at the foot of this scenario the consecrated residents of the Light-Communities must stand and together with Me they will accompany this Consecration, just like I consecrate them to My Eternal Father.

We are preparing the table for this Sacred Sacrament.

Let us together sing Kyrie Eleison.

Kyrie Eleison...

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

We can kneel, the mothers and the consecrated as well.

Let us prepare, companions, for the divination of these elements.

Water, Blood, Life, and Compassion that sprang from the blessed wounded Heart of Jesus, have pity, mercy, and redemption for all of us. Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Jesus says that we are to listen to "Thus spoke the Master."

The Mothers can come to wash their hands.

Jesus says that another jar of water must be brought.

With this water I purify your feelings and sublimate your ideas. With it I baptize the humble and uplift the simple, I unite the pure with God, I sanctify those who are consecrating themselves, I lift up the small to the Kingdom of God; I forgive and heal those who have always sought Me, in the servers I find Peace, I transcend all to My Kingdom, I live the sacrifice of those who have only just begun, I present Myself in open hearts, I am vivified in those who suffer. I am uplifted in those who pray with Me, healed in those who seek Me, served in those who give themselves, I free them in the power of silence.

In that time, companions, the Holy Women communed with Me. In the same way as I did with the twelve, with My Holy Mother they did so in order to institute the power of Motherhood, throughout the times, the infinite work of love and of charity for all fallen and lost hearts.

That is why Mary, in Her Holy Goodness, instead of taking a Chalice with wine, held in Her Hands a Chalice with water, lifted it up in the name of the Power of Her Son, to institute the liberation of the planet from evil and the redemption of souls, through Her infinite charity.

In that time, in the silent Cenacle of Mary, She lifted up the Chalice in the Name of the Passion of Her Son, thanked God for that sacrifice that the Firstborn Son of God would live, and with the Chalice being sanctified by the angels of all of the Universe and in Her holy vision and inner locution, she said:

My daughters, take and drink of this powerful Sacrifice that My Son will pour out for you and for all humankind, for the forgiveness of sins. Do this for your sainthood and for the sainthood of all the beings of the Earth until the time when He returns to the world for the second time. Drink of the Precious Blood that is spilled by the Lamb of God. Purify your bodies with the infusion of His Divine Spirit, which shelters you in His Most Pure Heart. Drink of the Humility that the Father Himself manifested through His Heart, the Heart of His Son.

Do not waste time, for just as He pours out His Blood, He spills His Mercy until the end of the times. Drink, My daughters, of the perfect Code of redemption and nurture your essences with the divine Passion of My Son."

In the same way, I did this with the twelve, when I lifted up the Chalice of Redemption and of Peace for all the outrages of the world and I spoke to My companions as I speak to you today:

"Take and all drink of it, for this is My Blood that will lift you up to Heaven and will purify you in spirit." Drink and do not fear because My Light will become visible in your hearts.

Trust in what I have poured out for the whole world. Trust and love just as I loved when I poured out each drop of Blood for the souls of that time and for these present times.

Repent wholeheartedly and you will not lose the path that I have come to commend for your lives, before the angels of Heaven, that today are assembled to have the Earth shine forever and ever.

So Mary, among Her Holy Women, took the bread, lifted it up in the powerful Name of Her Son and of all the Celestial Kingdoms, asking the Creator, Adonai, that it be changed into the precious Body of Her Son and into the Spiritual Communion with all the souls of the Earth.

At that same instant, your Master and Redeemer also lifted up the bread, instituting the Eucharist in the Presence of the Most Holy Trinity, broke it and spoke in the humility of His Heart, as Mary did, eat, My daughters, this is the Body of Your Lord, which in the name of all, is surrendering to establish forgiveness for sins. Eat and before My hour, experience the Passion of the Lamb of God. Eat and renew your vows with God the Creator.

And thus, companions, before My Death, I left My great testimony of love for the world, for those who would hand Me over throughout time, for their indifference, assaults, and for the punishment of the innocent.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Thank you, Jesus Christ, for all that you give us.

Afterwards, companions, you may have your siblings commune of this most sacred blessing that today My Heart has carried out for all those present.

I rise up in prayer and in vigil until the moment of My Cross.
