Apparition of the Glorified Christ Jesus, in the Marian Center of Aurora, Paysandu, Uruguay, to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón, during the 12th Marathon of Divine Mercy

And after My prayers, I bless those who will eat and drink of My Blood, those who will have their feet washed, renewing their vows to God.

And in this magnificent universal blessing, I again leave everybody an important Call: persevere, persevere, do not let evil deceive you. My Mercy is the great shield in the end of times. To those who cover themselves with My Mercy, I promise they will not perish, and they will triumph in the Eyes of My Father, because they will be a missionary consecrated to the Greater Plan.

On this afternoon of Mercy and of Pity, I bless you and I deeply love you as essences originating from the Greater Source.

Recognize your past, the true past that is found in the Origin, in the Greater Star, in the universe of the Father, where Love and Peace abide.

Do not forget this. In the difficult moments, the union with your origin will be the key to transcend the atavisms of this humanity, and in this way, you will give permission for the doors to open for those who have them closed, and then all will live in the Universe of My Divine Mercy.

I am grateful for your prayers and pleadings. I leave you My Peace.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Thank You, Lord, for all that You give us!

In this meeting we honor You, Jesus.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Today the apparition was special, because Jesus appeared as a pilgrim, one of those pilgrims who walk on many roads.

In His Hand He held a staff and today He appeared kneeling before us and He took support on that staff.

He observed us for a long time; He looked peacefully at us, in silence. We felt that something was going to happen behind all that, something good, positive.

After some time, He showed His Sacred Heart, still as a pilgrim, and then He transformed into the Glorified Christ; He stood before a book that floated in the air, and on the covers of the book there was a symbol, the symbol of the Alpha and the Omega.

When Christ stood before that book, the book opened and He began to read.

First it was a silent reading, and He did not say what was written in that book; He only said that it was the Book of the Apocalypse that was known to the great Masters of the Universe.

Later on, He began to give His Special Message \(July 6, 2014\). And He began, saying:

"Prayer of Christ" and I asked Him: Is it really, Lord? "Yes, it is a prayer that I make to the Father."
