

Friday, January 15, 2021

PRIVATE APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS, FOR THE SACRED CALL

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

God decided on an inexplicable purpose for humanity. In His Heart that purpose is written and it must be fulfilled even if with a few.

I am not talking about something material or something mental, I am talking about something that comes from the Spirit of God, from the emanation of His Source.

That is why I came to Earth, incarnated and I was among you, I taught you to seek the Kingdom of God and, above all, to love it.

But before giving myself, I already knew, from the Garden of Gethsemane, that this moment could come, it was a probability.

For this reason, I gave My Being for you and for each one of your brothers and sisters, just as today I give My Spirit for each of you and for each of your brothers and sisters.

My Heart is silent in the face of certain events, not only those that refer to the entire planet, but also to all groups of souls, especially those groups of souls who have an undeniable commitment to Me.

I'm still counting the time, even if it does not seem like it, to return to the world.

The wounds that open in the consciousness of the planet are becoming deeper and humanity is not aware of this.

As the transition of the Earth happens, souls are being led to live their last definition, to live situations that they had not foreseen.

And why would God allow it, if He is perfect and He loves you since He created you, since your origins?

God extends His Hand to each of His children, just as He has done throughout the times and the different humanities. He extends His pitying Hand so that you can take it, so that your consciousnesses become instruments in His Hands, and thus, He can rewrite this story, a story of humanity, of the present that leads more and more to suffering, to despair, to the lack of credibility in God.

But if the world learned to praise and acknowledge Him, even in difficult and inexplicable moments, an answer would come to you, the answer you have been waiting for for so long.

Now see God, your Eternal Father, still extending His Hands towards you, not only with kindness, but also with Mercy, sustaining this moment so that the Law of Justice does not descend upon humanity because He does not want you to suffer, nor does He want you to lose the path He promised you.

Therefore, His aspiration is very great and it is not understood. It is not an aspiration dictated with words or with instructions, they are the internal aspirations of God, those that you must love in order to know them, to be able to know one day why you are here.

You should ask yourselves what is the reason you are on My Christic Path and not on another path; what was the reason that brought you to Me to live this moment, a moment that you do not yet know and that could change at any moment.

Would you be capable of following me, despite everything?

Many times you will not feel filled by what you are living or suffering. Did I go back with what God had entrusted to Me?

The children of the Father never retrogress, they advance because despite each moment, they find their way out when they are united to the Source by heart and spirit.

God hoped, within this twenty-first Century, that everything would be different, that souls would no longer learn from suffering, but from the joy of living and serving, of only loving life as it is, although imperfect.

Now do you understand how everything could change and be different?

Sometimes you may not deserve what you live, but if God offers it to you, would you reject it?

Who would be able to love more than I loved, even being imperfect, because what has value here is the spirit, the inner dwelling of each being. That is where the warrior is forged, that is where the apostle is born, there lies the fortitude to always say yes and not retrogress, whatever the cost, whatever it means, because at the end of all, the Heart of God will triumph.

We know that these are not times of joy, but of suffering. But what would each of you do to change it, knowing that you have the opportunity to do so in your hands and no longer complain?

You must not only learn to praise everything you have, but also to be grateful for it, to give thanks for it day by day from the heart, with the depth that your spirits can give you.

Today I am here in Divinity, but also present as Soul, so that My Divinity and My Soul strengthen the hearts, those who have offered themselves to live the calvary of this world.

The cross that you can carry by yourself does not compare to the cross of other brothers and sisters around the world, who carry heavier crosses than the ones you have and which is a cross sustained in faith and trust in God.

But you were graced by the Source. My own Most Holy Mother interceded, many years ago, for this to happen, so that you would not lack the joy of living in the spirit and the opportunity to sacrifice yourselves for Me.

What price does that have for your lives? Have you ever asked yourselves, companions?

I do not come to make comparisons, but to bring you awareness of the situation that the entire humanity and the planet are experiencing today. Not even the Kingdoms of Nature receive what you have received through Our Words and spiritual impulses, in these last twelve years.

What else are you waiting for to be My apostles, those that I need in the end of times?

Look into your inner situation and do not just recognize the imperfections or errors. You have the ability to see beyond what you see, what you feel, or what you perceive. For that, you should always give thanks because it will always be Grace that will fill you and strengthen you for this moment and for the times to come.

I do not need your lives fulfilled and perfectly aligned with Me. I need My apostles to perceive this planetary moment and to be ready to serve Me wherever it is necessary and under any situation, because there are many more souls in darkness than in light. You know this and you can already see it.

What can My Heart feel after the great offer that was made from the Garden of Gethsemane until the death on the Cross?

God revealed to Me that this current situation could happen. And even so, I did not hesitate, because I knew that your brothers and sisters and you had to be here, at this time, on the sacred grounds where the Hierarchy is.

But this is not just for you, but for all humanity. For those who do not live from light and only live from darkness, who are tormented, persecuted and disturbed all the time.

The task of planetary transmutation increased in a way never seen before.

Few are the columns on the surface of the Earth that sustain this movement. Will you enter that service, without emitting a word?

Silence forges the warrior of light, strengthens the guardian and expresses the healer. It attracts to oneself the light from the mirrors and in this way one is ready for a new summoning, for a new call.

Your covenant with Me has already been made. Now is the time to live what you came to live, just as your brothers and sisters must live what is written.

I would like to tell you about the wonders of the Kingdom of God and all its dimensions and planes. Some of you have been blessed to be able to know some of this, to enrich your spirits in knowledge and gratitude. But most do not know it yet, because it is subject to a world-system from which one cannot leave by their own power.

But the heart that prays and the heart that opens finds the way out, it does not fear defeat, it promises with its effort the triumph of God and the fulfillment of His Plan, it is not mediocre or petty; its donation is the key to transformation and surrender, to Communion with Me.

My Words cannot remain only on paper. Today, more than I have ever asked of you, from my heart, may your lives be transformed into My Word so that I can place your testimonies in the Hands of God and He may grant the world, in this present moment, an extraordinary opportunity for healing, unknown by science and by humanity.

The tabernacle of My Heart is open for you to visit and adore, for you to deposit your efforts and your daily work so that you may live in unity among you, the one which I have so long-awaited, a unity without appearances, without conditions, without rules, without selfishness, without pessimism.

You are the base of that great mirror of My Heart that needs to reflect on Earth the principles of the new life, of the New Humanity.

The signs of the Apocalypse are being presented. Be attentive and do not be distracted, because there the Hierarchy will speak and the events of the planet will show the moment in which all human consciousness is found.

You should not fear those signs. You must penetrate their mystery to be able to understand and accept them.

The books of the Lords of the Law are open, ready to begin to dictate the new time, the last destiny.

I know that you are already My sheep and I am your Shepherd.

Today I gather you here to speak to you of the Truth that you must hear beyond what you know and understand.

It is time for inner growth, it is time to prepare the Return of your Master and Lord, in the most difficult and culminating moment of humanity; where the signs of suffering and agony in the world will show that it is the long-awaited hour, a moment that will cease to be a promise to become a reality.

I am the Lord and you are My disciples who must follow one path, without oscillations, the path towards My Spirit.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.