APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS DURING THE SACRED CALL, IN THE CITY OF PORTO ALEGRE, RIO GRANDE DO SUL, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

May peace be in this place and in all the hearts of the Earth and may this peace be propagated throughout the world so that My Sacred Heart triumph in all lost souls.

Be apostles of My Word, disciples of My legacy. Adore My Sacred Heart because the time draws near, the time of the great tribulation; do not waste time on other things.

My Heart is full of wonders for all souls and My wish in this definite hour, companions, is that your hearts and souls be consistent with My Heart, so that I may work through your lives, in simple acts of love and of charity.

Humanity will be able to be rebuilt when it is completely purified. There will be no other path to follow, companions, except the path of permanent purification. While that happens in each one of you, adore My Sacred Heart, that is alive in Its Divinity, full of Love and of Mercy for the world.

My wish, companions, in this final time that everybody is living, is that your hearts be attentive to My Words, and in your lives you are able to demonstrate the teachings that I bring you in this end time.

I not only invite you to live My Gospel, but also to practice it daily. And this will begin as from the Patriarchs, when in this so important hour, you remember the Commandments, which you must not alter with any of your actions and feelings. Because it is true, companions, that the final Judgement will come.

And this should not frighten anybody, because the entire Earth will be transfigured. That hour is approaching more each day, and your hearts and minds cannot be distracted by other things.

Create in your families groups of prayer, moments of adoration and of communion with Me. At least, companions, do it for all humanity, that is very lost in other matters.

Open the doors of the Kingdom of Heaven through your praying hearts. Follow the steps of Light that I have been setting in this last hour and do not follow other paths that are not Mine.

Each one of you, companions, has the potential for consecration to My Sacred Heart.

One potential, companions, is that your families consecrate themselves to My Heart, and especially for those who still do not pray to My Heart.

I need to build a true temple in your lives, and not a temple of pagan gods. For in this way, companions, by My completely transfiguring your lives, you will correct your paths and will open the doors so that I may enter into your hearts.

Listen with attention to all that I tell you. Keep the words in your spirits and in your essences, so that they may blossom and then give fruit for My Beloved Father.

You are all being summoned for a greater service, each one in their different degree of commitment.

It is important that the brotherhood be established here. Not only in this city, but also in the whole world. It will be the brotherhood, through the divine fraternity, that will bring you into peace in the critical times; you will know where to be at the exact and propitious time, and you will not lose your paths through the interference of anybody, or anything.

Dear companions, I come on this night and to this region in order to institute the Source of My Divine Mercy, something that souls still do not place their attention on because they are busy with other things.

I need you to enter into this Greater Source so that your lives may be redeemed and your paths straightened toward the horizon of God, the Greater Infinite that comes to meet you.

Follow the paths that I invite you to travel, be My apostles of the New Time and imitate My example of fraternity that I have with all sinners.

My unfathomable Love is approaching you at this moment and especially for those that today are not here and who have not received the sacred opportunity of knowing Me again. Because it is My Glorified Face that is approaching so that everyone may recognize It, fulfilling the sacred promise of My return to the world.

I prepare you for this moment, although it does not seem so. And you will remember My Words, one by one, in the critical moments for humanity.

The first difficult times have already begun in the world and humanity faces a cruel war, that is occurring without pause in the Middle East.

My Heart is over that situation and I hope that your praying voices also correspond to My call, and pray for those who are alone and lost, especially for those that are forgotten by all of humanity.

Entire families go through this crisis and an unceasing exile continues. Who will strengthen all these creatures in this hour?

For this reason, I offer My Sacred Heart, so that you may feel it and live it as the great offering of God for your lives.

To know My Heart, companions, which is an infinite and inexplicable dimension, first you must love it and contemplate it. In this way, the influences of evil in your lives will end and you will be able to take sure steps toward My Heart, because a sacred dwelling place awaits each one of you, so that you may enter in trust and unity.

Today, companions, I come to establish an eternal communion for you with My Spirit and My Divinity. Something that perhaps today you will not understand, because it is a mystery of My Divine Consciousness, that meeting after meeting, draws closer to humanity to establish the new codes of life, so necessary for this time of humanity.

If these codes were not in you today through My Grace, you would not be able to be here today with Me, nor could those who are now watching Me hear Me.

For this reason, My meeting with you is universal.

Many Divine Laws are assembling in this moment, to definitely try and establish the peace that does not exist in the world at this time.

Your first commitment, My companions, is to live peace in yourselves, in the midst of the tribulation and the darkness that circulates throughout humanity.

But if you love My Heart, you will know to adore it and will fully enter into Communion with Me. You will be in the Presence of the Celestial Father and of the Holy Spirit through the Divinity of the Firstborn Son.

In this way, companions, you will re-establish the laws that are lost on the planet, the principal laws for humanity: that of humility, love, charity, goodness, light, brotherhood, fraternity, and service to peers.

If you lived at least one of them, a great part of the Project would have been fulfilled in your hearts, and it would not be necessary that the world suffer the consequences of its sick actions and its negative impulses, which close the doors to God.

Today I bring you My Heart as an offering, because you must always remember it.

Who does not go through My Heart, cannot have eternal life.

Communion with God is first with the Divine Son, to then be in Communion with the Celestial Father; in this way, the events in the world will not be precipitated.

The world is looking for that not to happen, and humanity propagates it in an indifferent way, unleashing the laws and not living a spiritual life in earnest.

All the paths that other believers follow will end up in My Heart. That will be so in the end of the times, in this end of time that you are going through.

Today I bring you revelations from Heaven, in the infinity of My Divine Mercy, so that something may move in your hearts. The Celestial Father waits for each one of you, that you feel the love of your hearts and the relief, rather than such a great indifference.

This city, companions, has the spiritual mission of serving the Animal Kingdom, a Kingdom assaulted by humanity, that feeds the pleasures and the greed in all human beings, not respecting the Laws of Creation.

If you left here today paying attention, you would find service in each point of this city, especially with the animals that are loose, that do not receive the loving of souls, the true love of hearts that must heal all the wounds of this Kingdom, so like yours.

If the blood of animals did not flow over the world, there would be no wars on the planet and souls would be rapidly carried into a reconciliation with God.

At least I invite you, companions, to pray for Creation, for all that was manifested for this humanity by the Creator hands of the Father.

You know, companions, that everything is being destroyed and this causes deep pain to the heart of God.

If you feel encouraged to serve the Younger Kingdoms, especially the Animal Kingdom here, what could God do with your service? Great works of redemption and of peace for a whole people that does not deserve it.

I bring you the consciousness of the Truth so that you learn to live it. It is no longer time, companions, for you to be deceived, because time keeps going by and souls become lost in ignorance because they do not discover the Truth.

Accept My Heart, and My Heart will carry you into finding service, in perfect communion with all of the Creative Source, and you will also bring about the triumph of My Sacred Heart in the Kingdoms of Nature.

Let us lift up our most pure intentions to the Father so that He may hear them deep in His Heart.

And so that this may be possible, companions, we will offer Communion to God: the Body and the Blood of Christ, who was the first lamb mutilated, martyred, and wounded by the sins of the world, who surrendered for you in the slaughterhouse of the world to save all souls through His precious Blood, His redeeming and liberating Blood.

I know that your hearts are still not clean to receive Me. Thus, today, through My Grace which I grant souls, ask God for forgiveness and walk in faith, so as to not be mistaken again.

In this offering that you make to Me today, receive the Codes of My Light and transfigure your lives with the impulse to service and to prayer, so that the Sacred Hearts may triumph in all of humanity.

Our Father...

Commune with Me in hope and receive My Mercy as the last chance for salvation.

I bless you in spite of all the things and the actions of humanity.

Be glad in your hearts for this opportunity and sanctify your lives, responding to the Sacred Call of your King.

Go in peace and continue in peace, living peace for the world, as a greater commitment.

While I rise up, companions, to return to meet you at another moment, pronounce and sing the "Pater Noster".

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Pater Noster...

Friar Elías:

Brothers and sisters, after this meeting with Christ, we invite you to carry His words in your heart and that at some other moment you are also able to go over them, because each time the Divine Hierarchy draws close to a place like this, it brings a special message for each city. Something that we are invited to experience and to accomplish in a simple way, because She remembers and knows that we are children of God. For this reason, we invite you to carry these words in your heart and to be able to practice them as He asked us to this evening.
