

Friday, April 3, 2015

APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS DURING THE SACRED WEEK, DAY 3, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDÚ, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

After having followed the track of My Passion, carry your cross with valor and without delay, for in the coming time, I will wait for you so that you may be a part of My Glory, after you transform.

Do not fear what will come, but rather work so that nothing can happen.

I am calling the last ones that will form the last lines so that the ones who are in front of you can follow Me.

The Universe is showing you a mystery that is loved by few.

Now that you know everything, follow Me, for there is much to do. And this is not just words, it is the Word of God pronounced through My mouth, through the Son of God Who assembles you.

The Cross is known to few, but its mystery is huge; it is a sea of Mercy for those who may want to submerge in it. It is enough to take one step and trust in what I give you, for your purification must be immediate.

There is no more time for waiting. The Universe calls you to the Great Task, which is not only in this world but in all of this vast Universe that silently waits for your definition.

When that happens, companions, everything will have been accomplished and the doors will open from one side to the other, from west to east, from north to south, and in this way, all will be able to see it when they are paying attention and are watching with Me.

While you sing to experience the merits of My Passion, in this afternoon of Mercy I will receive your intentions, and mainly, those of all My daughters consecrated to My eternal Heart.

Let us sing "Be in vigil united with Me, always praying."

While you sing to My Heart, give Me that which has reached its time for exile, so that the Light of God may be born.

Song: "Be in vigil united with Me, always praying."

While the world burns in flames through its own decisions, the Glory of God comes to your assistance to rescue you. Happy are those who believe in My Good News, for thus they will not desist.

My daughters, kneel before your Master and just like on the first day of your consecration, you will honor Me.

Song: "Devotional to the Divine Mercy."

Those who follow Me are not sorry.

Those who follow Me give all of themselves.

Those who follow Me are nurtured by My Spirit.

Those who follow Me are transformed, just like the tree, which loses its leaves, gives new fruits, and then revives all the time.

Those who follow Me do not get lost, but rather find the path they lost.

Those who follow Me are My witnesses and the ones who wait for Me to be able to receive Me.

Those who follow Me do not stop, but move rapidly to reach the Feet of the Master.

Those who follow Me receive everything and lose nothing. Graces are their supreme strength.

Those who follow Me hear the Call and accomplish it like a promise.

Those who follow Me wait for the advent of the new.

Those who follow Me represent an apostle of the times.

Those who follow Me do so because they trust and have complete confidence in knowing what they are doing.

Those who follow Me hear within themselves the signs of the Advent.

Those who follow Me are attentive to the change of the times and assist in any need.

Those who follow Me wait patiently for the day of their redemption, but never stop, for they experience an infinite transformation.

Those who follow Me do so because they have already said "yes" to Me.

The Glorified Christ Jesus

Bring Me the incense to bless it, for you have to wait until Sunday for the Resurrection of the King in the heart of those who were dead.

I await you.

Let us pray. This is what is necessary for these times.

Water, blood, life, and compassion,
that flowed out from the blessed wounded Heart of Jesus,
have pity, Mercy, and redemption on all of us.

Amen.

(repeated three times)

Go now, to the moment of the birth of Jesus, and remember what took place there. Remember what happened there with the kings of Persia, of the East, and of the most distant Orient, what it was that they offered the King and what it is that I ask you to offer Me today.

The representation of the life of nature in the incense is the most sublime offering of the creation of material life.

Anoint your beings with incense so that they may receive the Grace of Mercy and remember what it represents throughout time, which is the liberation of human impurity, which corrodes souls and separates them from God through absolute ignorance.

Today I offer you this consecration so that you may see in these signs the presence of My Spirit that exorcises you.

Before the authority of the Celestial Father and in glorification of the Son of God, at this hour in which He lives His death and pours out His Mercy upon the world, together with the creator angels, let us lift up to the celestial altars the offering of the incense as redemption and the doorway to experience rehabilitation.

Song: "Pater Noster."

Experience My meeting as something unique.

I bless you in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Go in peace and in honor of the Creator.