APPARITION OF CHRIST JESUS, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN, DURING THE 2nd MARATHON OF DIVINE MERCY

Who seeks the Great Sun will always illuminate their path. For this reason, on this afternoon, I come to meet with My apostles, and together with My twelve apostles from the past, I come to meet the New Christs, the inner Christs.

On this afternoon, as I have done in the past, I will wash your countenances and your feet and will consecrate the bread of life so that you may leave here united with Me, in attunement with My Heart.

Souls wait for this great moment, those that are far from our eyes and need to gain peace.

My Mercy comes to the world to free wounded hearts. Thus, the doors must be open so that I can enter your lives. If you do not open your inner door to Me, I will not be able to enter.

We are in a time of changes and this change is governed by My Heart, for the universe of My Father has entrusted it to Me.

Who is united with Me will not perish. They will be guided all the time.

On this afternoon, recognize that My priesthood is unique and is not of this world. But My Rays descend upon the shepherds so that they may find the same channel of Light, the Source that provides life and feeds souls with the Spirit of God.

Blessed are they that follow Me without delay, for they will be with Me at the end of time, and in spite of the tests, I will lift them up to a meeting with My Father.

Who communes with Me from the heart, communes with Me in soul and spirit, and all of their being is permeated by My Light.

Thus, it is time that you accept the Laws of Heaven so that life may be renewed and those dead in life may awaken to the Greater Spirit of My Heart.

Ask yourselves if you are truly with Me.

Prayer has shown you the signs, especially to those who were attentive.

Prayer is the path that is built toward infinity. In this way, the soul will not fall into the abysses, for it will walk safely through My Steps.

My Water washes your stains. My Blood purifies your hearts. My Soul consecrates you to God and My Divinity leads your spirits toward Greater Life.

Prayer: Our Father (repeated several times).

The path of inner consecration is for all the souls of the world. All souls that link with My Spirit and with My Heart permanently receive My blessing and My Grace. Each soul can give Me a step of their consecration. All this is deeply considered by My Heart.

What is important, My dear friends, is that you be united with My Heart, so that all of you will be united as one and will form part of the new flock in this definitive time.

Thus, today I leave you with these two Sacraments that renew souls throughout time. They are the Communion with My Body and with My Blood and the Baptism through the washing of your feet. In this way, the past is spontaneously erased and you will be able to come to My Table renewed in love and in truth.

Today I am more present among you because you have opened a door to Me.

I would wish that all could see Me, but I have not been allowed. My Presence also respects the Laws.

All of us are governed by a Greater Good and to that we must respond so that the good may be in all places, and in this way, sacred unity may unite all souls under the principle of Love, the only Love, the pure Love of God.

At the Last Supper, I gathered together those whom I had assembled from the universe so that they could share the path of consecration with Me. Thus, it was necessary to banish aspects of life. And this legacy, which I gave you in the Eucharist, was so that these effects could be generated in all souls.

It is necessary to set aside the past to be able to be born again in spirit. In this way, you will renew your lives and each day you will be closer to My Heart.

When I give you My Body so that you may eat it, it is so that you may be closer to Me, very close to the Kingdom of Heaven, the place where, someday, you must go with your brothers and sisters, with humanity.

May the Holy Spirit accompany this moment, may the Love of the Father hold each essence of this world, and may the Son of God gather you in celebration and joy on this afternoon of infinite Mercy.

I trust in those who are Mine, as those who are Mine trust in Me.

I consecrate these elements, living signs of union with My Spirit in all this material universe.

Under the Love of the Father, the Good of the Son, and the protection of the Holy Spirit, may the Kingdom of God and conversion descend upon all souls forever.

So be it for the good of all consciousnesses.

Thank you for being with Me today!

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Thank You, Jesus, for all that You give us! In this meeting, we honor You, Lord. Amen.

Dear companions, every Master makes divine announcements for souls. Thus, on this evening, you will receive the special visit of Saint Joseph, the faithful Servant of God. Follow in His footsteps to find peace.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

It is lovely to receive the Master as a surprise, because we never know what He will ask of us. But everything He requests from us is for a Greater Good, as He told us today. At this moment, we feel what it is that each one of us inwardly needs for their life.

We would like to briefly tell you how He came here today, which is something He asked us to share.

He came from the universe, on this day, accompanied by many galaxies. There was an infinite path charted to here, to the Earth.

On the right and left, Our Lord was accompanied by some Archangels and some legions of those Archangels. They also came moving like in a procession, a sacred movement.

Suddenly, before Christ arrived, over the stage appeared the scene of the Last Supper. Immediately, He was showing us how He washed the feet and the hands of His apostles.

He was calling each one of them to sit at His Table. At that moment, we thought He was showing us something that had already happened, but during His Apparition, He explained that it was something He was asking us to practice again, that we remember again that which we once did with Him.

At that moment, He presented the twelve apostles, calling them "the twelve renewed apostles", that are serving on a mission, here on Earth, a spiritual mission, and a mission that His apostles, those who were with Him, have with the humanity of this time.

It is something that we are going to discover, according to what He said to us, in an unknown way and in a way that will take humanity by surprise so that it may truly prepare through the apostles that had been with Jesus, for when He returns.
