SPECIAL APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY, IN THE CITY OF BARCELONA, SPAIN, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

When souls in the world become lost, I have them find the path again to God through My Love, and in this way, redemption is established in the hearts that ask for My help, and in the hearts that ask for their brothers and sisters, so that My Plan of Peace may be established in all this humanity.

Thus, I close the door to My adversary, who corrodes souls spiritually and leads them to damnation, to obstacles in life and mainly to the absence of Love.

I have come here, dear children, to meet with you under the unity of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit; because the Most Holy Trinity has sent Me, in this cycle and these times, to prepare you for what will come.

I need your hearts to establish My reign in this world. I need you to accomplish the Plan of Peace with Me that the Lord so awaits.

The world is still deaf and blind, but your hearts are open to Me, and you know, dear children, that this is so and that I need your hearts to fulfill My designs, no matter in what way nor how imperfect you are in the eyes of the universe.

I do not come here to seek your outrage, your indifference or omission. I come here seeking in you what really exists in the depths of your beings, which is God. It is that God that you should be experiencing in this time, for all those who do not experience it.

Remember, dear children, that each time you wake up, at each new morning, you must remember God, because God has been forgotten in this time by the hearts that have not understood Him nor accepted His Will, which is not your lower and human will.

I need to establish a Kingdom here, dear children, that is impossible in these times, but that is possible when your hearts open to receive My call, each time I announce it to the world.

I have come to Catalonia to bring you the mystery of My Love, as I already once brought you, when I found you in this same city to renew your vows to the Celestial Father. My wish, dear children, is that those vows be strengthened in this time, not only by you, but by your brothers and sisters that are on this path, and also by those who are not and who have forgotten God, the Father of Love and Unity.

If Love and Unity live among you and you work for that Love and that Unity, My Plan will triumph in this humanity, regardless of what may happen around you, because I will be among you to give you the impulse to walk forward and to follow the Steps of Christ, which are the Steps that, in this time, are offered to all of you to take for humanity and the planet.

Dear children, you still do not know My profound sorrow for this race, for all souls. You still do not know what it means to bear the seriousness of these times and of a race submerged in its ignorance and in its blindness. But I, as the Mother of Goodness and Mercy, open the doors to all those that do not deserve it; because the Christic seed is in you and in your brothers and sisters, and that seed will never disappear and nobody will be able to erase it from within themselves. It is that seed of Unity and Love that I come to water from time to time, with My prayers, My words, and My petitions to the Celestial Father for you.

It is that seed that will never dry up and must not be lost from anyone's sight. It is that Christic seed that is unknown and feared by My adversary, because when it sprouts, blossoms and yields its fruit, it is invincible.

And so, dear children, today I come to have you recognize your filiation with the Celestial Father. That filiation that is unique to each of you, that is precious and also mysterious to many.

Consider yourselves worthy children of God, and all of humanity will be worthy children of God, because of the steps you may take in this time toward My Son, toward His Sacred Heart.

I do not come to ask, dear children, for what you cannot give Me, but rather for what you can truly give Me from your hearts and lives, in each daily act, in each example of charity and of goodness for a peer.

Thus, dear children, I invite you to share the miseries of the world and to bear them with Me in prayer, service, and sacrifice. I know that many fear sacrifice, because you think you will suffer, but I do not come to bring you suffering, but rather the peace of the Celestial Kingdom, perpetually lived by the angels and archangels, in each moment, in the Divine and Spiritual Universe.

I open the doors for you to that sacred knowledge that is called Celestial Universe.

I want you to be aware, dear children, of this very important task in which you must unite Heaven and Earth. In this way, the doors of the hells of life will close and hearts will gradually lose their ignorance, because the veils will fall from their consciousnesses, they will recognize that they have forgotten God and will be inspired to return to the Path of My Son, which is the Path of forgiveness and love.

Continue onward, in spite of what happens, and remember that I consider you My pillars of Light and Peace in this unfaithful world.

Have My Heart triumph in your lives and live it fully, because the hour has now come and it is time to fight for this Plan of Peace in the world, which each one every day builds with their attitude, thought, feeling and prayer. And in this way, united with you and with each of your spirits, My Plan will triumph and My adversary will lose the war that it so much wants to fight.

It is now time, dear children, for you to be carriers of My Peace and for you to transmit it to the world. That is My principal task in these times, with you and with the world.

Now place your intentions in My Merciful and Immaculate Heart; I open My Heart of Light so that you may deposit your pleas, your entreaties, your requests to the great Universal Father, Who deeply loves you and never forgets you.

In the silence of your hearts, place these intentions.

Now, extending My arms and bringing My hands close to you, dear children, I will pray for Spain, pouring out My Grace upon her.

"Holy Father, breath of Spirit, pour out Your Light upon consciousnesses and let them never be discouraged in searching for You, so that they may find Your Peace and Your Truth.

Strengthen each spark of Your Spirit that has congregated around My Immaculate Heart to revere Your Presence and Your Legacy for all this creation.

Angels of Heaven, greater consciousnesses, carry souls on the good path and fill the voids of Love that many feel in their hearts.

Pour out the Divine Spirit of My Son, so that you may live in His Sacred Heart and may be, in this time, a star that illumines all things from the universe. Amen."

And in the same way that I bless you, dear children, I bless everything you have brought to My altar, in reverence and love.

I bless this union that you seek with My Son every day, without forgetting Him, Who is your Master, your true Love.

Bring here the offering of the Eucharist so that My angels may transubstantiate it into the true spiritual and divine matter that nurtures your spirits and consciousnesses.

Adonai,

Mercy, Mercy, Mercy,
Redemption, Redemption, Redemption,
for this planet.

Amen.

Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón:

Brothers and sisters, we wish to share with you what the Apparition was like, because it was a little, not a little, quite intense.

So that we can all understand, She came as the Queen of Peace. As She arrives, it is not usual for Mary to show something She is doing, a spiritual task She may be doing with us, with the country, or with the planet. So, as She was descending, She descended here as if She were a flower, a sphere of Light in the shape of a flower, a white rose. When She descended, She showed that She was carrying out a task of rescue, of salvation. So it had a very powerful impact on my consciousness, because She was showing how, through the energy of Grace and of Mercy that She conceives as Mother, She rescues Her children. She then showed the example of a consciousness I do not know, but She clearly showed who that consciousness was and how that consciousness was lost; it was quite surrounded by negative forces of evil. That consciousness was quite disturbed, could not manage to get out of that state by its own means, but rather through a greater Grace.

She went to an encounter with that consciousness, on that plane, in that spiritual space, and with Her own hands, was withdrawing the forces of evil from that consciousness. The soul was being freed and received a great brightness, an expansion of Light. She was taking the soul of that consciousness to an enclosure, a space of the Celestial Kingdom, where consciousnesses are freed from evil by Her and by our prayers, are placed there to be restored, to be rehabilitated, so to speak.

And in that moment, Mary began to show many consciousnesses, from different parts of the planet, that had been rescued by Her. In that space, She showed that soul that it had the Christic seed, that it had that talent, that gift that Christ left in each of us when He was here.

At that moment, those souls, those consciousnesses became aware that they truly were part of God; that they were not a part of evil, but rather that they were part of a Plan of Love, a Plan of Unity. Mary was having them recognize this through Her Love of a Mother, these consciousnesses, these souls that did not forget their filiation with God. In spite of what we may have around us, we are children of God, She was saying.

Mary brought this teaching. For me, it was very important, because She, in some way, had us see how the power of prayer was very important at that moment. Not only for us, for our spiritual life, for our path, but also for the path of consciousness and brothers and sisters whom we do not know, who are submerged in the abyss of this Earth, of this illusion, of this deceit.

Today She wanted those of us who are here to become aware and to value how important this task of prayer is in these times, and how much we can collaborate with Her, in such a simple way; because we pray a Mystery and the Rosary for the Peace of Children in War. It was not something so big, but She shows us how, in a more occult way, that has a divine, a celestial power; and She knows She counts on us as if we were Her soldiers.

So, I wanted to leave this experience with you, because it is very significant at this moment, of how the power of prayer not only frees us, but also frees our brothers and sisters and those who most need it.

Mother María Shimani de Montserrat:

When Our Lady carries out a movement of Apparition, of approaching the planet and drawing closer to the groups that She counts on, as the Friar said, it is for soldiers of prayer that She does this mediation.

Each time, She brings us a different code of Light. If we know to treasure it, if we know to take care of it, they multiply within us.

In this world, we have forgotten that we are children of God. We are so imperfect and, as She said, the illusion and the adversary surround us so many times, we fall so many times that we have forgotten that we are truly children of God.

We have also forgotten what God, through all the Messengers of all times, Those Who truly channeled His Word, has taught us, that He is inside of us and that really, all of us can be channels of His Love, of His Wisdom, of His Will.

What Our Lady is attempting to do is that we all remember this and that each one, according to their evolutionary school, to the inner and spiritual state they are in, may be able to activate that filiation of being a child of God, of that perfect, loving, kind, good Father that loves us just as we are, because we are a part of Him and He only asks that we love Him, that He be what is most important in our life.

Mary is trying to have us remember this. And that, in spite of the adversity, of the complications, of the concerns, we never forget that He is our Father, because from the moment in which we unite with Him with so much love, with the love that we are able to experience, a connection is established that is unique and that when we pray united with God, He can use that channel, that prayer, that plea, to save another brother or sister who is connected with Him.

There are things that are very mysterious and we, who are quite ignorant because we are very young in the evolutionary process, do not understand very well how an imperfect person, full of defects, full of unresolved things, could in a single instant be united with God and allow another soul to be able to leave an abyss.

When we begin to love those moments and to give of ourselves so that those moment take place, we end up understanding what it is about. But as Father Pío said, the things of Heaven first have to be loved so that they can be understood.

So, with the little that we did here, being so few, God does so many things and so does Our Lady. Each time one of Her children opens their heart and connects with the Heights, She can pour out a Grace upon that being or upon another. It is something that only comes from God, from that infinite Love that God has and that unfathomable Mercy that He has for each of us.

So we cannot turn our back on that possibility we have, with our families, with our race, with our nation. We are no longer ignorant; we are aware that this is possible. Therefore, we need to open up and give of ourselves so that it may be a reality for everyone.

For this reason, She is being very insistent that we remember we are children of God, that we are mediators, that we are intercessors, that it does not matter that we are imperfect, because She does not want us perfect. She needs us as we are, except that we be able to remember we are children of God and that, through each one, the Father can work.

So we also invite you to remember this every day, as She said today. Open your eyes and remember God. Speak with Him. Tell Him, good morning, Father, what are we going to do today?

In a simple way, say a loving prayer. Pray ten beads before getting up. Do it with all the love of the world, for that perfect Father, and offer it so that He may use it where most necessary. That is how a child of God works, in this simplicity and in this truth.

We thank you very much for having accompanied us. Be with God and in the Heart of Mary.

Thank you, Mother, for all that you give us!
