

Saturday, February 13, 2021

PRIVATE APPARITION OF THE VIRGIN MARY IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Dear children,

Today I bring you the jar of the Water of Life so that you remember that, through it, you will always be able to wash and purify yourselves. That, through the jar of the Water of Life, you will be able to renew and also sanctify yourselves, because My Son has given His own being so that you may find redemption.

I am the Lady of the jars of Water of Life, and just as in Bethsaja, today I come to purify you with this sacred element so that you may know, as of now, that all will pass, and that a better time will come.

So that this may be possible, it is necessary to do what is correct, it is necessary to live the Law and fulfill the Commandments.

Through the spiritual Water of Life that I bring to you today, My children, I come to heal your spiritual and inner wounds.

I come to bring you peace and to deposit it within your hearts so that this peace can fill you and renew you.

But I also bring you this spiritual jar of the Water of Life so that you prepare to cross your deserts.

This will be the great moment when, through the tests, each one of you will be strengthened and become aware of to what extent you have surrendered to Christ.

In this desert, you will find unimaginable things. You will see situations that you have never seen, and you will participate in realities in which you have never participated. But it is necessary to go through this spiritual desert, and also through this physical desert.

My Son needs that your definition may become present in the Sacred Books of the Father so that all errors that humanity makes at this moment may be justified and thus the Divine Mercy may keep acting in humanity.

Do you now understand, My children, the importance of your strength in Christ?

I am the Mother of the jars of the Water of Life, and as a Samaritan from that time, I come to quench your thirst, the spiritual thirst, so that you can feel quenched by what comes from the Divine Spirit, by what I bring today from the Fountain.

In your deserts, tests or moments of definition, invoke the Presence of the Lady of the jars of the Water of Life, so that My Son can renew you through Me, through the offering of My Immaculate Heart.

In the face of all that the world lives, your consciousnesses receive many graces, they are very much blessed, they are very much contemplated by God.

Your consciousnesses must be before the reality of the purpose for this moment, before the need and the planetary crisis, knowing that it is important that the apostles learn to go through the deserts and trust that they will lack nothing.

But in these deserts, it is very important to find solitude, the solitude that will speak to you in silence and will show you the truth. A solitude that only you can see and recognize. It is not emotional solitude, but rather spiritual.

It is the same solitude that Christ, My Son, attained, during His forty days in the desert, a moment in which He, for you, prepared to accept the chalice that the Father was offering to Him.

At this moment, each one of My children is within their degree of school and of evolution, each one at the doors of their own desert.

But you must affirm yourselves in the promise of My Son. He will return and will become present, once more, among you and in the world.

The moment the situation becomes more acute, you must not back down. An apostle struggles to survive in faith and to be a living testimony of the Presence of Christ, in order to be a sign that is not only sacramental, but also of service, of prayer, of selflessness.

These are the times when everyone will be tested. But they will also be the times when your talents must awaken and be available for My Son. He expects this from all His companions, from all His servers.

Thus you must enter the purpose of the plan of rescue, of consciously participating in the operations of the Hierarchy and of knowing that this is a time of great inner and physical, spiritual movements, not only in the purification of the planet and of humanity, but also of the entire universe, of the whole Solar System.

While the Real Time pushes the alternative clock so that the truth of the true time may enter, I invite you, My children, to cross the inner desert with bravery and to make of this moment a victory for Christ.

Therefore, today I come here, beloved children, to once again be with you, to deliver into your hands this jar of the spiritual Water of Life that I bring you, so that you can drink and quench your thirst, because there is still much to walk through in these tests of the end of these times.

The Father did not expect humanity to reach this point and this situation. Therefore, you must be aware of all that you receive and have, you must be thankful daily. There still lie, within the world, situations that are more difficult, severe, painful and unjust than yours.

Carry the cross in this unknown desert, which only you will be able to know. Depending on your steps, your actions, your offering, this desert will then be longer, shorter or it will be quicker for you to cross and to know.

Our words, instructions and teachings have prepared you throughout these twelve years for this moment.

The apostle of Christ is one who assumes to carry the Cross together with the Master, just as the Cyrenean did along the path to the Calvary. My Son is calling you to share the Cross that He still carries for the world, which is a harder cross than the one He physically carried on this planet. It is the spiritual cross, the cross of adversity, of uncertainty, of what is uncertain.

But the strength of Emmanuel will be upon you, as long as you recognize His Face, recognize the presence of His Heart and of His Life, which can beat like a flame of faith within each being, within each heart.

My children, be the testimony that My Son expects, be a part of the new scriptures of His Sacred Book.

Enter the state of the blessed ones and learn from all those who have purified, transformed and redeemed themselves, so as to someday reach the Eternal Father.

I am praying for all needs, for all hearts, and for all causes. But now is the moment for each one of My children to do their part, the hardest and most demanding part; which will mean the possibility of Grace descending upon humanity or not.

You know that humanity is mistaken, that humanity makes compromises with the forces of evil. But you must think, every day, of this Love that comes from the Source and that can do all; this Love that was capable of shedding Blood and dying on the Cross for all of humanity so that today humanity might be here, present on this planet, and might be forgiven.

I invite you, My children, to be this Light in the darkness, this Light that My Son invites you to be a part of, the Light of His Divinity, the Light of His Spirit.

Seek, at this moment, to see reality, so that you may understand what we are saying.

Live My words.

I thank you, bless you and love you.

Under the Light of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.
Amen.