

Thursday, October 5, 2017

Message of Christ Jesus for the 51st Marathon of Divine Mercy, in the city of Santa Fe, Argentina, transmitted to the visionary Friar Elías del Sagrado Corazón

When you truly sing to Me, My Heart feels an inexplicable relief, something very immeasurable that is generated by all souls.

It gives Me joy to be able to rest My Feet in this nation and to re-encounter friends of yore, who still bear My banner of peace in their hands, so that the Love of My Heart may continue to triumph in this part of the planet, even though it is lived by very few.

If over two thousand years ago I was able to save the world with twelve apostles, what could I do with more than twelve?

Today you are more than twelve and here present are many souls on the inner planes, who are in need of the Fire of My Love and of My Mercy.

I need you to enter into My Heart on this day and share with Me, in this simple communion with My Spirit and with My Divinity, the joy that your Master and King feels on being so close to you, so as to be able to bring you the peace that must be the foundation in these times for the building of a New Humanity.

I come from the Source of God to meet you.

I come from a place in which everything is perfect, in which the subtle dimensions vibrate, in which the archangels of God work to bring, toward these universes, the beloved Project of God, which in this phase, in this last part of the end time, must be concretized on the surface with the immediate collaboration of your souls, through the immediate constancy of your prayers, through all the good works and those of peace that you can carry out.

It is thus that I Am to be found in each detail, as in each new service that your hands may render for this humanity and for this planet.

Through your acts of charity and of service I am able to bring the new codes for this planet, and your souls and spirits can open to My Fount to receive within yourselves all the codes that will renew this humanity, even though it experiences its transition and its purification in this time.

Today I see each detail that you have carried out with much love and that also ennoble My Spirit, because through each detail and each offering, My Consciousness also can express itself in this humanity, and more souls can be participants in My Mercy, even though they may not deserve it at this moment.

I come to walk at your side in this definitive time.

I come to be with you and with the world so that you not feel alone, although humanity also does not deserve it.

I come for those who are suffering and need, in their experiences of life, the renewal of their spirits and souls; so that your hearts and the hearts of your brothers and sisters are able to feel braver as you continue to move through this end time, which will lead you toward a meeting with Me, to be with Me for all eternity.

Never lose that aspiration, companions.

Through that aspiration, never cease to seek the essential union with Me and with My Consciousness. This will help you in your purification and will also open the doors so that new Graces can reach the world and be placed in many more hearts.

I have come to Santa Fe to renew the Sacrament of Faith in God, because it will be your unbreakable faith in Me which will make all things possible and will allow you to walk in these times toward Me, without losing sight of Me at any moment.

And now that on this afternoon a special Grace is approaching, when your Master and King opens the doors to begin this walk for all of Argentina, I come to prepare your hearts for new events, for new missions which will make these people rescuable, redeemable people, who will be able to be converted through permanent service, through the gift of charity that has been springing from your hearts for quite some time now.

The world is in need of good souls so that many more consciousness may be healed.

Thus, companions, I urge you to have a spirit of service in Argentina as something fundamental, because this will also radiate to other nations of the world that also must awaken to the unconditional spirit of surrender and of service to fellow beings.

It is in this way that My Work can expand in the world, when souls open to receive the Spirit of My Love and thus be able to renew all things.

Wherever you go, wherever you walk, My Spirit will always be present and this will make you invincible carriers of My Love and of My Divine Mercy.

There will be nothing that will prevent, companions, what you should do for Me in this time, because when your souls decide to take the step, as you have done in a simple and small way, many more things can happen, such as this Grace, that the Sacred Hearts may be here in Argentina, to renew you again in the joy of My Spirit.

It is for this greater cause that today I draw your consciousnesses closer, that I come to experience the Sacraments with you, so that in the name of many more souls, your feet may be washed, your souls may be baptized, and your bodies may be anointed to receive freedom, healing and redemption.

Today I want to give you this message, which until now I have conveyed to you as a first impulse of My Spirit for you, because the Hierarchy must work gradually with your souls, so that they can show the fruits and so, gift them to God in a spirit of eternal service.

Among the angels that accompany Me today in this opening ceremony, there is in Heaven, the angel of Argentina, the one who from today, will be a conscious part of your lives and you will be a part of his army, so that the Archangel Raphael may grant healing to consciousnesses, the redemption of hearts in all this beloved people.

Keep this angel present in your lives and also in this nation, in spite of all that is happening. Remember that he brings the Ray of Healing to Argentina and he is also a great mediator in the light of the Archangel Raphael, for this planetary situation, as well as for everything that this nation is experiencing.

From today, you will be able to be one with the angel of Argentina and plead with him, in the name of My Merciful Heart, that he may intercede before God for the evolution and the awakening of your people, for the permanence of the roots and of the culture that characterize this people, which will be a part of the Project of a New Humanity.

You, My companions, on this day are the beginners, those that will care for this great aspiration of My Heart of having Argentina and the Southern Cone be the place for a New Humanity.

Even though it does not seem so and in spite of the consequences that the surface is experiencing, for your Master and King nothing is impossible. One just has to begin.

Let us open the doors to the Celestial Church of God, so that each element that will be received today may be blessed by the Powerful Hand of the Lord and, in this way, the Graces and all the Mercies in souls of the world may be multiplied.

We will call to Adonai, companions, so that He may descend and bless this moment that will be a part of the new story of your lives, of the new human being, of the new consciousness, which will participate in the last happenings of My Plan.

May it be so.

Remember that two thousand years ago, when I offered Myself entirely to you, I gifted you My precious Body and I surrendered My Divine Blood to you so that the mystery of Redemption might be revealed in souls that, in this simple communion, would feel encouraged to live in Me; so that I could live in you and, through My being in you, you might be in God.

Through the consecration of these elements that will convert into My Body and My Blood, I bring you the beginning of a new stage for each one of your lives, so that in each living being of this planet the Work of My Mercy and the Work of Redemption may be realized.

May the Lord grant His gifts to consequent souls and may those who avail themselves of this sacrifice leave here renewed, with spiritual fortitude and extensive hope, which can radiate to the planet and to all its humanity.

I grant you the Sacrament of Communion for the forgiveness of sins and so that a new door may open on your paths and on the path of your brothers and sisters.

Proclaim your faith in God and make the Plan of rescue possible in this humanity.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

And now, from the Universe, from the place I come from, I will joyfully and lovingly contemplate the Sacraments that will be received in these two days and the abundance of Love and of Healing that millions of souls of Argentina will receive through My intercession and also because of your

"yes".

Let us pray to God to thank Him, and in this way, I will be able to carry in My Heart the pleadings of your hearts and the pleadings of all your brothers and sisters, so that real justice, equality, equity, and cooperation may be established in Argentina.

Our Father...

Let us give thanks to God for this meeting. In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

And now, companions, you will go and wash your feet, remembering when I washed the feet of the apostles, so as to give them My Spirit of resignation and of humility, My irrefutable Love for each soul.

Experience this Sacrament of foot-washing as a moment of inner divestment and of healing.

Thank you for being with Me today.